Princes & Whales

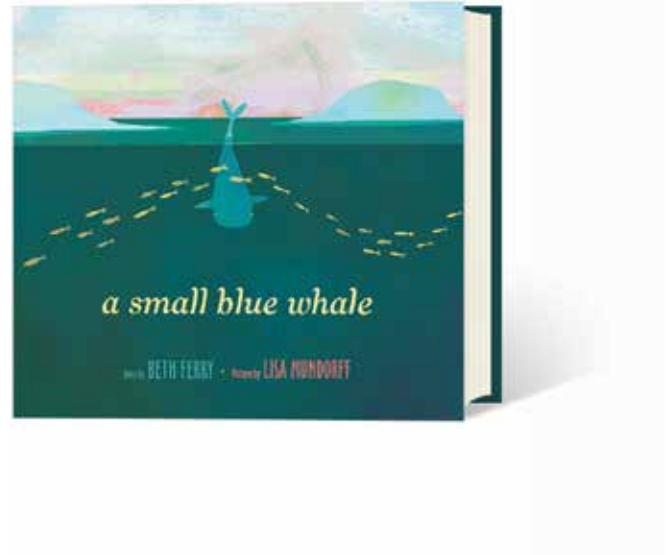

Purloining of Prince Oleomargarine

Framed as a story “told to me by my friend, Mr. Mark Twain,” and occasionally interrupted by an imagined meeting over tea between Stead and an impatient Twain, Stead picks up the story of poor Johnny and his quest to save a stolen prince with the help of a cast of talking animals. Illuminated by Erin Stead’s graceful, humorous, and achingly poignant artwork, the result of this extraordinary combination of talent both classic and contemporary marks a major event in children’s publishing. With themes of charity, kindness, and honor, and with sharply drawn satire and tear-inducing pathos, this is a story that reaches through time and brings us the debut children’s picture book of America’s most legendary writer, imagined through the monumental talent of two of today’s most important names in children’s literature. Full Color Illustrations, 160 pages.

PHILIP STEAD is the author of the Caldecott Medal winning book A Sick Day for Amos McGee, also a New York Times Best Illustrated Book and a PW Best Children’s Book of 2010. With his wife, illustrator Erin Stead, he also created the acclaimed Bear Has a Story to Tell and Lenny & Lucy.

Small Blue Whale

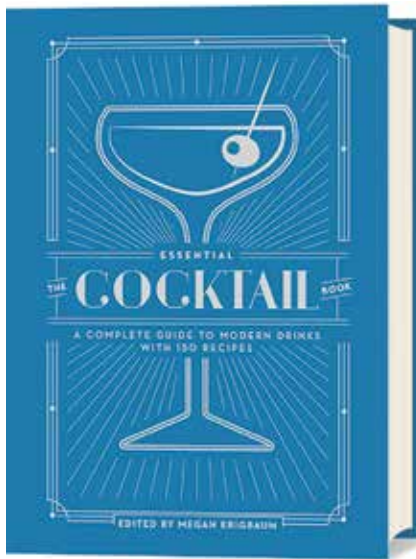

A small blue whale sits in a silver sea, wishing, wanting, waiting for a friend. Waiting is hard, but he doesn’t mind; he’s sure a friend will be worth the wait. First, the whale meets a quiet pink cloud, and he thinks this might be the friend he’s been waiting for. But when he finds himself in trouble, and a group of penguins comes to his rescue, the small blue whale finally understands what friendship is—what it looks like, sounds like, tastes like, and feels like. It was definitely worth the wait. 32 pages.

Yummy Cocktails & Wine

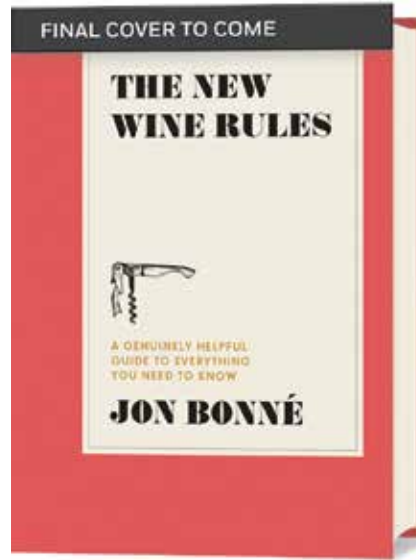

Essential Cocktail Book

A Complete Guide to Modern Drinks with 150 Recipes

How do you create the perfect Daiquiri? What type of glass should a Whiskey Sour be served in? What exactly is an aperitif cocktail? The Essential Cocktail Book answers all of these questions and more. Written by the editors of Punch, and edited by author and drinks writer Megan Krigbaum, this book presents the history, mythology, and tried-and-true recipes behind the cocktails that are essential to any aspiring home bartender, in an easy-to-navigate format. 150 Photographs, 352 pages.

MEGAN KRIGBAUM is a wine and spirits writer, a contributing editor at Punch, and the former deputy wine editor at Food and Wine. There, she wrote a monthly wine column called "Bottle Service," in addition to regular feature stories pertaining to wine, spirits, and beer.

New Wine Rules

An Expert's Guide to Everything You Need to Know (and Nothing You Don't)

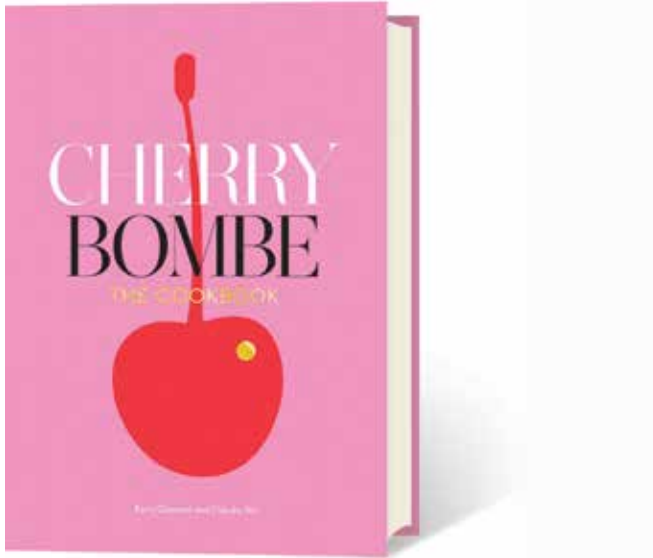

The New Wine Rules covers 101 topics on drinking, buying, storing, and sharing wine—told as very short lessons with highly editorialized illustrations to go along with each. For example: (1) You'll never need to own more than two types of wine glass. (2) Smell the cork. It really does tell you something. Smell the glass before you pour wine in. (3) If you've heard of the Champagnes on the list, you're probably paying too much for them. This fun, informative, and stylish book will be the ultimate holiday gift for all wine lovers. 101 Illustrations, 128 pages.

JON BONNÉ is one of the leading American voices writing on wine today. He is the senior contributing editor at Punch, author of The New California Wine, winner of the Roederer International Wine Book of the Year, and the wine consultant for JetBlue Airways. For nearly a decade, he served as the wine editor and chief wine critic of the San Francisco Chronicle, where he won two James Beard Awards and numerous other accolades.

Funky Cuisine

Cherry Bombe
The Cookbook

The founders behind the hit indie quarterly—which counts celebrities and food icons like Chrissy Teigen, Lena Dunham, Christina Tosi, and others as cover girls—have collected delicious recipes for mains, salads, sides, soups, starters, desserts, and cocktails from 100 of the coolest women in food today, along with cooking tips from the old guard (Ina, Martha, Julia, Nigella, and more). These keepers are the equivalent of a dress borrowed from a girlfriend or a dog-eared book your sister lent you: dependable, interesting, and hip. These favorite recipes are served up on a pretty platter of a book that readers will want to buy in twos—one for themselves and one for their favorite gal pal. 100 Full Color Photographs, 256 pages.

KERRY DIAMOND is the cofounder and editorial director of Cherry Bombe, a biannual indie magazine about women and food. She is co-owner of Nightingale 9, Wilma Jean, and Smith Canteen in Brooklyn. CLAUDIA WU is the cofounder and creative director of Cherry Bombe and was a creative consultant at Yahoo Food.

Grand Central Market Cookbook
Cuisine and Culture from Downtown Los Angeles

Grand Central Market (GCM) was founded in 1917. In the 1980s, Ira Yellin believed the city of Los Angeles needed to be revamped at its core, and set out to find food curators to help him in that mission. Today, his wife, Adele, continues to carry out his vision. GCM is filled with legacy, ethnic, and cutting-edge vendors, all reflecting the waves of immigration and trends that have shaped DTLA. This cookbook takes a look at what makes up this mix: Anglo-European, Latin, and Asian cuisines. Essays focused on key moments in GCM's history and interviews with its top chefs will punctuate 85 recipes, including some developed exclusively for this book. 100-125 Full Color Photographs, 240 pages.

ADELE YELLIN is president of the Yellin Company and the asset manager of GCM. KEVIN WEST is the co-food curator of GCM, former West Coast editor of W magazine, author of Saving the Season, and coauthor of Truffle Boy.

The World & The Sky

Acts of Kindness

101 Ways to Make the World a Better Place

Through the simplest act of kindness, all of our lives are improved. Genuine human sentiment is best expressed through helping others, in ways big and small. It enables us to rely on one another for strength and happiness. But in the confusion and chaos of the modern world, even small acts of kindness are often overlooked and ignored. Acts of Kindness shines a spotlight on the best that humanity has to offer, one good deed at a time.

RHONDA SCIORTINO overcame abuse, homelessness, and poverty to become a financially successful entrepreneur, business woman and advocate for abused children. She's the chair for the Successful Survivors Foundation, which was created to collaborate with child welfare organizations, the faith-based community, business and community leaders, and schools throughout the country to provide the framework within which foster alumni can establish healthy relationships, mine the lessons out of their adversity, and apply those lessons to create their own personal and professional success.

Run the World (Girls)

Courage Is Contagious
To Michelle Obama, with Love

In October of 2016, in response to Michelle Obama's now famous campaign speech—a blistering rebuke to Trump and a salvo for women's rights and common decency—T Magazine published a dazzling feature called “To the First Lady with Love,” edited by Nicholas Haramis. Here, Haramis expands the T Magazine tribute, by gathering together twenty never-before published essays from a stunning array of prize-winning writers, Hollywood stars, famous chefs, and politicians. Michelle's persona freed people—especially women—to speak, engage, even dress as they wanted to; she was an accessible insider, representing a thrilling combination of establishment culture (Princeton, where she went to school) and the striving middle class (the South side of Chicago—where she grew up); she was an equal partner in her marriage and parenthood; she had an unabashedly ethical bent; and she had genre busting style. These collected essays celebrate a First Lady whose impact will continue to be felt for years to come. Illustrations throughout, 160 pages.
