DEAR READERS,

2018 is a big year for us at National Geographic. Across National Geographic Partners, we are celebrating Year of the Bird. In addition to magazine and digital stories, events, partnerships, and calls to action, we're thrilled to be publishing Joel Sartore's Birds of the Photo Ark. A follow-up to last year's wildly successful The Photo Ark, this extraordinary volume reveals the splendor and astonishing diversity of the avian world.

In other news from the animal kingdom, we're delighted to bring you Jim and Jamie Dutcher's The Wisdom of Wolves. I've been captivated by the intelligence and creativity of these remarkable animals, and spellbound by the way Jim and Jamie became part of the Sawtooth pack. Their stories of life among the wolves are rich with humanity and the spirit of the wild.

We've got a good deal to offer from the human world as well. In The Promise and the Dream, prize-winning journalist David Margolick explores the legacies of Martin Luther King, Jr., and Robert F. Kennedy in commemoration of the 50th anniversaries of their assassinations. Best-selling biographer Karen Karbo celebrates 29 iconic women in her witty narrative In Praise of Difficult Women. And mindfulness coach Laurie Cameron teaches us all how to be more present in The Mindful Day. Hint: Think about changing your alarm clock!

The best part of spring is getting out of the house again, and new editions of our best-selling Guide to State Parks of the United States and Guide to Scenic Highways and Byways offer thousands of ways to do just that.

Thank you for supporting National Geographic—our books and our mission.

Warmly,

LISA THOMAS

TO
COMETHE PROMISE AND THE DREAMTHE INTERRUPTED LIVES OF ROBERT F. KENNEDY
AND MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.David Margolick

Fifty years after the assassinations of Martin Luther King, Jr., and Robert F. Kennedy, acclaimed journalist David Margolick reveals the untold story of the complex relationship between the two remarkable men.

With the assassinations of Martin Luther King, Jr., and Robert F. Kennedy, which took place only 62 days apart in 1968, the United States was changed forever. The deaths of these two great American heroes were a turning point in the social history of our country, embodying the nation's inner turmoil and serving as a sinister embodiment of race relations at the time. Fifty years later, how far have we come? In this riveting narrative, journalist David Margolick examines the complex relationship between MLK and RFK and provides a living history of this turbulent time, documented with richly drawn interviews from the people who experienced it firsthand. Filled with untold stories from close intimates and revealing photos by the foremost photojournalists of the period, this book provides a compelling look at a tumultuous moment in our country's history, bringing the past vibrantly to life to shine a light on the unique cultural crossroads of the modern age.

DAVID MARGOLICK is a longtime contributing editor to Vanity Fair. As a renowned reporter, he has held positions at Newsweek and Portfolio.com. For 15 years he was the legal affairs reporter for the New York Times, where he covered the trials of O.J. Simpson, Lorena Bobbitt, and William Kennedy Smith. His work was nominated four times for the Pulitzer Prize. Margolick remains a frequent contributor to the New York Times Book Review, and his work has appeared in the New York Review of Books, Tablet, and The Forward. His previous books include Dreadful: The Short Life and Gay Times of John Horne Burns; Elizabeth and Hazel: Two Women of Little Rock; Beyond Glory: Joe Louis vs. Max Schmeling, and a World on the Brink; and Strange Fruit: The Biography of a Song.

BIRDS OF THE PHOTO ARK

Joel Sartore and Noah Strycker

This elegantly packaged celebration of birds from around the world unites incredible animal portraits from Joel Sartore's distinguished National Geographic Photo Ark project with inspiring text by up-and-coming birder Noah Strycker. It includes hundreds of species, from tiny finches to charismatic eagles, brilliant toucans, and intricate birds of paradise, and perennial favorites such as parrots, hummingbirds, and owls also make colorful appearances. Everyone who cares about birds—from the family with a bird feeder outside the kitchen window to the serious birder with a life list of thousands—will flock to this distinctive and uplifting book.

JOEL SARTORE is a photographer, author, and 25-year contributor to National Geographic magazine. Through his National Geographic Photo Ark project, he will photograph every species of animal under human care, an estimated 12,000. His "Fundamentals of Photography" is the best-selling course of all the Great Courses. Sartore often appears on national television, including an upcoming three-part PBS special, and he is a frequent guest on CBS Sunday Morning.

NOAH STRYCKER is a writer, photographer, and birding expert. In 2015 he set a world record by seeing 6,042 species of birds (more than half the birds on Earth) in a year. Author of The Thing With Feathers and Among Penguins, he is also associate editor of Birding magazine and writes often for Audubon and other publications. He lives near Eugene, Oregon.

IN PRAISE OF DIFFICULT WOMEN

LIFE LESSONS FROM 29 HEROINES WHO DARED TO BREAK THE RULES

Karen Karbo, with a Foreword by Cheryl Strayed

From Amelia Earhart to Carrie Fisher, this witty narrative explores what we can learn from the imperfect and extraordinary legacies of 29 iconic women who forged their own unique paths.

Smart, sassy, and unapologetically feminine, this elegantly illustrated book is an ode to the bold and charismatic women of modern history. Best-selling author Karen Karbo (The Gospel According to Coco Chanel) spotlights the spirited rule breakers who charted their way with little regard for expectations: Frida Kahlo, Nora Ephron, Hillary Clinton, Amy Poehler, Shonda Rhimes, Elizabeth Taylor, and Helen Gurley Brown, among others. Their lives—imperfect, elegant, messy, glorious—provide inspiration and instruction for the new age of feminism we have entered. Karbo distills these lessons with wit and humor, examining the universal themes that connect us to each of these mesmerizing personalities today: success and style, love and authenticity, daring and courage. Being “difficult,” Karbo reveals, might not make life easier. But it can make it more fulfilling—whatever that means for you.

KAREN KARBO is the author of multiple award-winning novels, memoirs, and works of nonfiction. She was one of 24 authors selected for the inaugural Amtrak Residency. Her best-selling Kick-Ass Women series includes The Gospel According to Coco Chanel: Life Lessons From the World's Most Elegant Woman, which was an international best-seller. Karbo's short stories, essays, articles, and reviews have appeared in Elle, Vogue, Esquire, Outside, the New York Times, Salon, and other publications. She is a recipient of a National Endowment for the Arts Fellowship in Fiction and a winner of the General Electric Younger Writer Award. Karbo lives in Portland, Oregon, where she continues to kick ass.

EYEWITNESS TO WORLD WAR II

UNFORGETTABLE STORIES FROM HISTORY'S GREATEST CONFLICT

Stephen G. Hyslop, with an Introduction by Winston Groom

This elegant narrative edition of Neil Kagan's best-selling Eyewitness to World War II offers incredible first-person stories and amazing moments of heroism, providing new context and perspective on history's greatest conflict.

The unforgettable story of World War II is told through the words of those who lived it—both on the battlefield and the home front—creating a dramatic tapestry of the wartime experience. Personal writings and recollections of Roosevelt, Hitler, and Patton, as well as letters composed by soldiers at battle and diaries of women serving in the military at home, present an absorbing narrative that tells the entire history of the war from several perspectives. In this absorbing reader's edition, a carefully curated selection of memorable, significant photographs and illuminating maps from the 2012 book accompany the revised text. Comprehensive and compelling, this finely wrought book is as gift-worthy as its predecessor.

STEPHEN G. HYSLOP has written several books on American history, including National Geographic's Eyewitness to World War II, Eyewitness to the Civil War, and The Old West. A former writer and editor at Time-Life Books, he contributed to many volumes on the Second World War, including Great Photographs of World War II. His articles have appeared in American History, World War II, and The History Channel Magazine.

THE WISDOM OF WOLVES

LESSONS FROM THE SAWTOOTH PACK

Jim Dutcher and Jamie Dutcher

From the world-famous couple who lived alongside a three-generation wolf pack, this book of inspiration, drawn from the wild, will fascinate animal and nature lovers alike.

For six years Jim and Jamie Dutcher lived intimately with a pack of wolves, gaining their trust as no one has before. In this book the Dutchers reflect on the virtues they observed in wolf society and behavior. Each chapter exemplifies a principle, such as kindness, teamwork, playfulness, respect, curiosity, and compassion. Their heartfelt stories combine into a thought-provoking meditation on the values shared between the human and the animal world. Occasional photographs bring the wolves and their behaviors into absorbing focus.

For more than 20 years, JIM AND JAMIE DUTCHER have been documenting wolf behavior. For six years they lived in a camp near Idaho's Sawtooth Wilderness, intimately observing a three-generation wolf pack. Their unprecedented experiences resulted in prime-time documentaries that won three Emmys. They live in Ketchum, Idaho.

LOVE UNLEASHED

TALES OF INSPIRATION AND THE LIFE-CHANGING POWER OF DOGS

Rebecca Ascher-Walsh

This book is for dog lovers everywhere. Celebrating the amazing relationships shared with our four-legged friends, each story recounts the love of dogs and the powerful ways dogs impact our lives.

In this heartwarming collection of stories, readers meet 38 incredible dogs who have gone above and beyond the job description of best friend. Each uplifting story provides an inspiring look at the animals who change our lives. Meet rescue dogs who learn to serve others, working dogs who go beyond the call of duty, and underdogs who surmount extraordinary challenges on the road to finding their forever home. This treasury of man's best friend features photographs and personal anecdotes from those who have been touched by the selfless love of a beloved pet.

Journalist REBECCA ASCHER-WALSH loves dogs and excels at imparting stories about amazing animals. She is the author of Devoted, Loyal, and The Art of Calm, and she contributes to many newspapers and national magazines, including Entertainment Weekly, Adweek, and the Los Angeles Times. She is a director of the Deja Foundation, devoted to funding the medical care and training costs of dogs rescued from high-kill shelters.

THE ESSENTIAL LEWIS AND CLARK

Meriwether Lewis and William Clark, Edited by Anthony Brandt

The celebrated journals of Lewis and Clark's legendary expedition into the uncharted American West are abridged into a single volume and translated into modern English, with nuanced observations from star author and journalist Anthony Brandt.

At the start of the 19th century, Meriwether Lewis and William Clark embarked on an unprecedented voyage of discovery. Their assignment was to explore the newly acquired Louisiana Territory and record the geography, flora, fauna, and people they encountered along the way. This updated edition of the captains' journals combines historical insight from editor Anthony Brandt with the rich detail of Lewis and Clark's original writing, as well as archival maps and artwork. An enthralling portrait of the unspoiled West, this true-life adventure story is a window to the dawning of America—from encounters with grizzly bears to councils with tribal leaders and perilous mountain crossings.

ANTHONY BRANDT attended Princeton and Columbia before becoming a freelance writer for Esquire, American Heritage, The Atlantic, Psychology Today, GQ, Men's Journal, National Geographic Adventure, and many other magazines. He was the essays editor of the Pushcart Prize for eighteen years and has served as a nonfiction judge for the National Book Awards. Brandt edited the Adventure Classics series for National Geographic Books, including the first edition of The Journals of Lewis and Clark.

WADE DAVIS PHOTOGRAPHS

Wade Davis

A fascinating photographic journey to indigenous cultures around the world by renowned anthropologist Wade Davis.

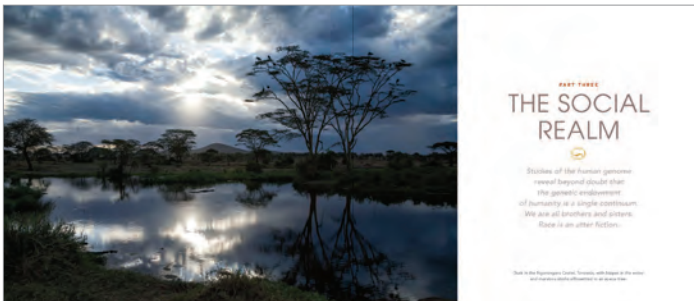

Anthropologist and best-selling author Wade Davis has traveled the world, befriending indigenous peoples on every continent and engaging in their spiritual lives and practices. To him, no culture is primitive—every daily habit, every ritual, every ceremony expresses the human genius. In this book he takes us into the heart of 20 different world cultures, from the ancient salt mines of the Sahara to the icy world of the Inuit, from the pastoral nomads of Mongolia to the dreaming Aboriginals of Australia. Through sensitive text and revealing photos, enter what Davis calls our “ethnosphere”: the extraordinary matrix of cultures thriving on this planet.

National Geographic Explorer-in-Residence WADE DAVIS is an anthropologist and storyteller whose work has taken him into indigenous communities worldwide. He is the author of 17 books, including The Serpent and the Rainbow (1986) and Into the Silence: The Great War, Mallory, and the Conquest of Everest (2011), which won the 2012 Samuel Johnson Prize for best English-language nonfiction. For National Geographic TV he created Light at the Edge of the World, an eight-part documentary. One of 20 Honorary Members of the Explorers Club, in 2011 Davis received their Explorers Medal, the club's highest award.

CESAR MILLAN'S LESSONS FROM THE PACK

STORIES OF THE DOGS WHO CHANGED MY LIFE

Cesar Millan and Melissa Jo Peltier

Best-selling author and "Dog Whisperer" Cesar Millan reveals the inspiring human-canine relationship, using eight essential life lessons gleaned from a group of very special dogs.

In this heartwarming book, now in paperback, celebrated dog behaviorist Cesar Millan reveals that man's best friend is also our greatest teacher. Through eight remarkable dogs—from Paloma, the mutt who shows Cesar the meaning of respect on his grandfather's farm in Mexico, to Daddy, his wise pit bull sidekick—Millan takes us on an emotional journey, highlighting the profound lessons he's learned from his pack along the way. At each step, canine companions are his guideposts, teaching him to overcome his fears, survive a difficult divorce, and create a more meaningful life. Digging deep into his past, and sharing case studies from such celebrity clients as Jerry Seinfeld and Alec Baldwin, he spotlights the essential traits that help dogs make the best of their situations, imparting a unique blueprint for happiness and fulfillment through canine companionship.

Star of National Geographic WILD's Dog Whisperer and Cesar Millan's Dog Nation, CESAR MILLAN is the most sought-after dog behaviorist in the world. He is the author of the New York Times bestsellers Cesar's Way and How to Raise the Perfect Dog, as well as Cesar Millan's Short Guide to a Happy Dog. He runs the Cesar Millan PACK Project, a nonprofit organization dedicated to animal rescue, rehabilitation, and rehoming.

NO DREAM IS TOO HIGH

LIFE LESSONS FROM A MAN WHO WALKED ON THE MOON

Buzz Aldrin, with Ken Abraham

NOW IN PAPERBACK

Now in paperback and updated with a new essay on his celebrated trip to Antarctica comes this best-selling inspirational memoir from beloved astronaut Buzz Aldrin.

Buzz Aldrin is an American hero. Always larger than life, he is the best known surviving member of a generation of astronauts who in just a few years became both the first men in space and first men on the moon. In this inspiring book, Aldrin pauses to reflect and share what he has learned about life from the vantage point of both outer space and time. (Still a nonstop traveler and impassioned advocate for space exploration, he turned 87 in 2017.) Consisting of nine principles to live by, each illustrated by fascinating anecdotes and memories, this thought-provoking book is a beautiful memento of a life well lived—and a new opportunity for Aldrin to connect with the masses of people who recognize his unique place in human history.

BUZZ ALDRIN, celebrated for his Apollo 11 moonwalk in 1969, holds a doctorate degree in astronautics and continues to wield influence as an international advocate of space science and planetary exploration. He has written four nonfiction books, two science fact/fiction novels, and two children's books. KEN ABRAHAM is a New York Times best-selling author, known around the world for his collaborations with celebrities and fascinating, high-profile public figures, including former U.S. attorney general John Ashcroft, former senator Bob Dole, former U.S. senate majority leader Bill Frist, and champion boxer and entrepreneur George Foreman. Currently, Abraham has more than ten million books in print.

ANDY WARHOL WAS A HOARDER

INSIDE THE MINDS OF HISTORY'S GREAT PERSONALITIES

Claudia Kalb

NOW IN PAPERBACK

Was Andy Warhol a hoarder? Did Einstein have autism? Was Frank Lloyd Wright a narcissist? In this surprising, inventive, and meticulously researched look at the evolution of mental health, respected journalist Claudia Kalb gives readers a glimpse into the lives of high-profile historic figures through the lens of modern psychology, weaving groundbreaking research into biographical narratives that are deeply embedded in our culture. From Marilyn Monroe's borderline personality disorder to Charles Darwin's anxiety, Kalb provides compelling insight into a broad range of maladies, using historical records and interviews with leading mental health experts, biographers, sociologists, and other specialists. Packed with intriguing revelations, this smart narrative brings a new perspective to one of the hottest topics in today's cultural conversation.

CLAUDIA KALB, an award-winning journalist who reports on a wide variety of health and science topics, is known for combining serious reporting with engaging, accessible writing. A former senior writer at Newsweek who has contributed to Smithsonian and Scientific American, Kalb has penned hundreds of features on topics ranging from depression and PTSD to painkiller addiction and the surge in drugs used to treat ADHD. She is now a freelance writer and editor.

AUTHOR APPEARANCES

Author appearance hosts are encouraged to work with their local retail booksellers or wholesalers to purchase autographing copies.

SCHOOLS & LIBRARIES

Librarians and other educators can request
our latest catalog for School & Public Libraries
by calling 1-877-873-6846.
Visit www.nationalgeographic.com/books
National Geographic books are also available through your regular wholesaler.

Catalog entries list the suggested cover price.
The suggested cover price will be printed on the jackets of the books listed in this catalog.
Booksellers and wholesalers will purchase books from Penguin Random House, Inc., at the suggested catalog retail price less their earned discounts. All resellers are free to charge any prices they choose for books. All trim sizes, page counts, months of publication, and publisher's suggested catalog retail and cover prices shown in this catalog should be considered tentative and subject to change without notice. Orders are subject to acceptance and availability.
