DEAR READERS,

I am thrilled to present our Fall 2018 titles—one of the most exciting lists from National Geographic Books to date. Leading the charge is one of our most ambitious endeavors yet: the first ever National Geographic Almanac, which covers our world from a uniquely visual standpoint by blending fascinating facts about science, history, and culture with the stunning photography that is our hallmark.

Speaking of photography, our latest coffee table book, Spectacle, will leave you breathless, with astounding visual delights from colorful contortionists to volcanic lightning. And we close out our magnificent Year of the Bird initiative with The Splendor of Birds, an exquisite large-format collection of National Geographic photography and illustrations that will enchant bird-watchers around the world.

Twenty eighteen is also a big year in history, one of Geographic's most beloved categories. This fall, best-selling author and historian Winston Groom offers a unique look at how three world leaders—Winston Churchill, Joseph Stalin, and Franklin Roosevelt—ended World War II and shaped the political climate of the 21st century in The Allies. We are also celebrating the 50th anniversary of NASA's lunar missions with Apollo to the Moon, which highlights 50 hallowed objects from the celebrated Apollo journeys. And eminent Egyptologist Kara Cooney examines the complex dynamic between women and power in When Women Ruled the World, her riveting account of Egypt's little-known female pharaohs.

Finally, as the holiday season approaches, get ready to pack your bags with inspiration from some of our most exciting travel titles yet. In Tasting Italy, we've partnered with the culinary experts at America's Test Kitchen to provide a comprehensive guide to Italy's 20 unique regions, featuring 100 authentic recipes to enjoy at home. And plan your next vacation with our best-selling Journeys of a Lifetime, fully updated for its 10th anniversary with new must-see destinations and top 10 lists.

As ever, thank you for supporting National Geographic—our books and mission.

Warmly,

LISA THOMAS

TASTING ITALY

A CULINARY JOURNEY

America's Test Kitchen, with Julia della Croce and Eugenia Bone, and a foreword by Jack Bishop

The experts at America's Test Kitchen and National Geographic bring Italy's magnificent cuisine, culture, and landscapes—plus 100 authentic regional recipes—right to your kitchen.

Also featuring 300 gorgeous color photographs and 45 maps, this beautifully illustrated guide takes you on a captivating journey through the rich history of Italian cuisine, region by region. Evocative essays feature the origins of celebrated cheeses, the nuances of different wine growing regions, the best farmer's markets in Venice and more, while intriguing sidebars illuminate key ingredients from olive oil to fish. In every region, the food experts at America's Test Kitchen bring it all home, with foolproof recipes for standout dishes as well as hidden gems: Piedmontese braised beef in lustrous red wine sauce, crispy-custardy chickpea flour farinata pancakes from Genoa, and hand-formed rustic malloreddus pasta of Sardinia that is a breeze to make. The perfect way to experience the joys—and tastes—of Italy.

AMERICA'S TEST KITCHEN: The recipes in this book have been produced by the cooks, editors, and cookware specialists at America's Test Kitchen, a 15,000-square-foot kitchen located in Boston's Seaport District. It is the home of Cook's Illustrated and Cook's Country magazines; the public television shows America's Test Kitchen and Cook's Country from America's Test Kitchen; and the online America's Test Kitchen Cooking School.

JULIA DELLA CROCE is one of America's foremost authorities on Italian food. She is the author of more than 13 cooking and travel books. She has also conducted cultural and culinary tours to Italy. Her work has appeared in many publications, including the New York Times, Food & Wine, and the Washington Post. She lives in New York City.

EUGENIA BONE is a nationally known food journalist and author. She has written for Saveur, Food & Wine, Gourmet, Martha Stewart Living, the New York Times, and the Wall Street Journal. She is the author of five books. Her work has been anthologized in Best Food Writing, Saveur, Cooks, and The Food & Wine Cookbook. She lives in New York City.

JACK BISHOP is the Chief Creative Director of America's Test Kitchen. An expert in Italian cooking, he is the author of several cookbooks, including Pasta e Verdura and The Complete Italian Vegetarian Cookbook. He lives in Boston.

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC SPECTACLE

RARE AND ASTONISHING PHOTOGRAPHS

National Geographic, with a foreword by Mark Thiessen

This exquisite photo collection showcases awe-inducing moments from around the world, including such stunning sights as the aurora borealis, cities made of neon lights, a great wildebeest migration, a contortionist on display—and more.

In life, there are certain sights that are as beautiful as they are unforgettable—from a majestic desert sandstorm to the secrets of a deep blue ice cave to the world’s largest library. These rarely seen spectacles shock us in their diversity, their complexity, and their epic scale, bringing us the miraculous beauty of our planet. Featuring more than 200 color images from acclaimed National Geographic photographers, this inspiring volume presents a dazzling array of natural wonders, unusual phenomena, and amusing curiosities. Each page will enlighten and inspire, presenting our world at its best.

Mark Thiessen has been a photographer with National Geographic since 1990 and on staff since 1997. He is widely published in National Geographic magazine, National Geographic Adventure, and National Geographic Traveler. In 1996, Thiessen began a personal photography project on wildland firefighters that took him to the front lines of wildfires every summer. To better understand the world of this little-known subculture, he became a certified wildland firefighter. His photographs for the National Geographic cover story “Under Fire: Why the West Is Burning” earned first-place recognition by Pictures of the Year International. Thiessen also directs the National Geographic photo studio and was featured in Out There, a series aired on the National Geographic Channel. He lives in Washington, D.C.

JOURNEYS OF A LIFETIME, SECOND EDITION

500 OF THE WORLD'S GREATEST TRIPS

National Geographic, with a foreword by George Stone

Featuring 120 new destinations, this best-selling inspirational travel guide reveals 500 celebrated and lesser known destinations from around the globe. Compiled from the favorite trips of National Geographic's legendary travel writers, this fully updated, 10th anniversary edition of Journeys of a Lifetime highlights a diverse array of adventures. With every continent and possible form of transport covered, this is the perfect resource for travelers who crave adventurous trips—from trekking the heights of Mt. Kilimanjaro in Tanzania to mountain biking in Transylvania—and those searching for more specific experiences (the world's top small cruises, hot new museums, secrets for following in the footsteps of film and TV heroes, and more). Each chapter features stunning photography, full-color maps, and practical tips, including how to get there, when to visit, and how to make the most of your journey. Beautiful, informative, and inspiring, this luxurious volume is a lifelong resource to treasure for years to come.

GEORGE STONE is editor in chief of National Geographic Traveler. Stone views travel as a tool for transformation and for connecting with other cultures, principles that help guide his editorial mission statement. As a National Geographic Traveler magazine writer and editor for 18 years, he has written and edited articles that have received awards from the North American Travel Journalists Association and the Society of American Travel Writers. Stone is the author of three books: From Mist and Stone: The Folklore of the Celts and Vikings; Raging Forces: Life on a Violent Planet; and Extreme Earth: A Journey Through the World's Most Dangerously Beautiful Places.

THE ALLIES

CHURCHILL, ROOSEVELT, STALIN, AND THE UNLIKELY ALLIANCE THAT WON WORLD WAR II

Winston Groom

Best-selling author Winston Groom tells the complex story of how Franklin Roosevelt, Winston Churchill, and Joseph Stalin—the three iconic and vastly different Allied leaders—aligned to win World War II and created a new world order.

By the end of World War II, 59 nations were arrayed against the Axis powers, but Roosevelt, Churchill, and Stalin had emerged to control the war in Europe and the Pacific. Vastly different in upbringing, temperament, and political beliefs, they were not always in agreement—or even on good terms. Historian Winston Groom returns to tell one of the biggest stories of the 20th century: the interwoven and remarkable tale, and a fascinating study of leadership styles, of three world leaders who fought the largest war in history and set the course for international politics for decades to come.

WINSTON GROOM was born in Washington, D.C., but grew up in Mobile, Alabama, on the Gulf Coast. After a brief period in the Army, Groom returned to Washington, where he worked as a reporter at the now defunct Washington Star, covering the political and court beat. He enjoyed a stint in New York City socializing with literary legends before returning to Alabama, where he settled down to writing and enjoying life. He is the author of 18 previous books, including Forrest Gump, turned into an Oscar-winning movie, and the national bestsellers The Generals and The Aviators.

SPACE ATLAS, SECOND EDITION

MAPPING THE UNIVERSE AND BEYOND

James Trefil, with a new introduction by Buzz Aldrin

For space enthusiasts, science lovers, and stargazers, the newly revised edition of National Geographic's enduring guide to space combines thoroughly updated maps, lavish photographs from recent space missions, and elegant illustrations to chart the solar system, the universe, and beyond.

Starting with the sun and moving outward into space, acclaimed science writer and physicist James Trefil illuminates each planet, the most important moons, significant asteroids, and other objects in our solar system. He explains what we know about the Milky Way and other galaxies beyond—and how we know it. To celebrate the 50th anniversary of his moonwalk, astronaut and American hero Buzz Aldrin offers a special section on Earth's moon and its essential role in space exploration, past and future.

JAMES TREFIL, Clarence J. Robinson Professor of Physics at George Mason University, is internationally recognized not only as a distinguished scientist but also as an expert in making complex scientific ideas understandable. He is the author of numerous magazine articles and books on science for the general public, including National Geographic's The Story of Innovation. He lives in Fairfax, Virginia, with his wife.

REBUILDING THE WORLD TRADE CENTER

THE NEW WORLD TRADE CENTER

In 2000 the twin towers of the World Trade Center symbolized New York, the United States, wealth, achievement, and a global economy. Destroyed by terrorists on September 11, 2001, their footprint now stands as centerpiece of a new neighborhood of enterprise—and spirit. Two massive fountains, ringed by parapets inscribed with the names of all those lost, make up the National September 11 Memorial. Under that extends the Memorial Museum, nine stories down to bedrock, with artifacts and exhibition spaces reflecting that day in history. Nearby buildings climb high again, many still under construction.

A WORD FROM

Benji Risingl The terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, brought loss and grief on a scale we had never known in the dark days that followed, the indomitable spirit of our city and nation showed more brightly than ever, as stories of heroism and sacrifice inspired us all. And together, we made a solemn vow: that we would never forget those we lost and that we would forever share these stories with the world. That is why we built the National September 11 Memorial & Museum, which stands as a powerful tribute to the victims of the attacks—and to the power of the human spirit.

—MICHAEL R. BLOOMBERG, former mayor of New York City and Chairman, National September 11 Memorial & Museum

ATLAS OF WORLD WAR II

A COMPREHENSIVE GUIDE TO THE BATTLES THAT CHANGED THE WORLD

Neil Kagan and Stephen G. Hyslop, with a foreword by Kenneth W. Rendell

In the most comprehensive atlas of World War II ever made, naval, land, and aerial attacks from the invasion of Poland to Pearl Harbor and the bitter Battle of the Bulge are portrayed in a rich combination of wartime maps and custom-made cartography.

This definitive, lavishly illustrated book features an astonishing array of vintage and newly created maps, rare photographs, covert documents, and eyewitness accounts that illuminate the world's greatest conflict. Rare maps include a detailed Germany & Approaches map used by Allied forces in the final stages of the war, full large-scale wartime maps of the world used by President Roosevelt, and crucial Pacific theater maps used by B-17 pilots. Satellite data renders terrain as never before seen, highlighting countries and continents in stunning detail to include the towns, cities, provinces, and transportation roads for a pinpoint-accurate depiction of army movements and alliances.

NEIL KAGAN, editor, heads Kagan & Associates, Inc., a firm specializing in designing and producing innovative illustrated books. He edited Great Photographs of World War II, Smithsonian Civil War, and for National Geographic, the best-selling Concise History of the World, Eyewitness to the Civil War, Atlas of the Civil War, The Untold Civil War, Eyewitness to World War II, and The Secret History of World War II.

STEPHEN G. HYSLOP has written several books on American history, including National Geographic's The Secret History of World War II, Eyewitness to World War II, Eyewitness to the Civil War, and The Old West. His articles have appeared in American History, World War II History, and the History Channel magazines.

KENNETH W. RENDELL is the founder and director of the International Museum of World War II, which houses the world's most comprehensive collection of original artifacts and documents relating to the causes, events, and consequences of World War II.

ALL OVER THE MAP

A CARTOGRAPHIC ODYSSEY

Betsy Mason and Greg Miller

Created for map lovers by map lovers, this book explores the intriguing stories behind maps across history and illuminates how the ancient art of cartography still thrives today.

Award-winning journalists Betsy Mason and Greg Miller—authors of the National Geographic cartography blog All Over the Map—examine maps from a wide variety of cultures, civilizations, and time periods. Based on interviews with scores of leading cartographers, curators, historians, and scholars, this diverse compendium includes ancient maps of dragon-filled seas, elaborate maps of hidden worlds from inside Earth to outer space, devious maps created by spies, and cutting-edge, data-based cartography showing the ebb and flow of modern cities.

BETSY MASON is a science journalist based in the San Francisco Bay Area. Previously she was the online Science editor for Wired, where she built an award-winning science section, the highest-traffic section on the site. Before becoming a journalist, Mason earned a master's degree in geology from Stanford University.

GREG MILLER is a science and tech journalist based in Portland, Oregon. Previously he was a senior writer at Wired and a staff writer at Science, where he won several honors. Miller earned a Ph.D. in neuroscience at Stanford University. He has appeared on public radio's Science Friday to discuss maps and has given talks on a wide variety of cartography-related topics.

APOLLO TO THE MOON

A HISTORY IN 50 OBJECTS

Teasel E. Muir-Harmony

A celebration of the 50th anniversary of the Apollo missions, this collection features 50 key artifacts from the Smithsonian archives that tell the story of the groundbreaking space exploration program.

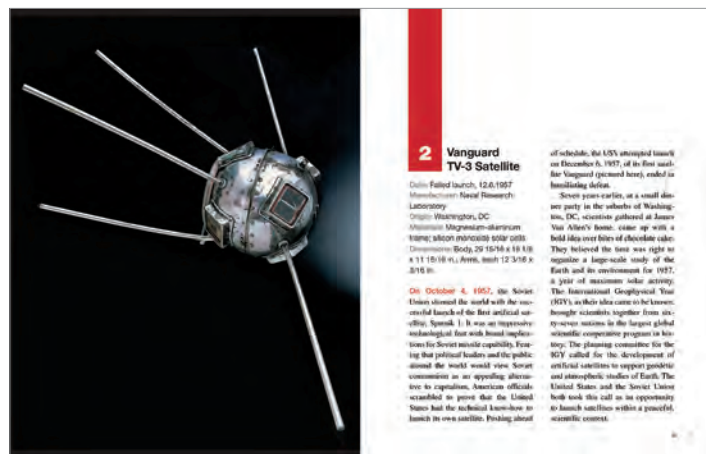

Bold photographs, fascinating graphics, and engaging stories commemorate the 20th century's most important space endeavor: NASA's Apollo missions to the moon. From the lunar rover and an emergency oxygen mask to space food and moon rocks, it's a carefully curated array of objects—complete with intriguing back stories and profiles of key participants. This book showcases the historic space exploration program that landed humans on the moon, advanced the world's understanding of space travel and our solar system, and revolutionized our sense of humanity's place in the universe.

TEASEL E. MUIR-HARMONY, curator at the Smithsonian National Air & Space Museum, is a distinguished scholar of space history. She earned a Ph.D. from MIT, writing a dissertation on the political implications of the Apollo program. She has published more than a dozen articles and book reviews, and has presented internationally on various topics in the cultural history of 20th-century space science.

WHEN WOMEN RULED THE WORLD

SIX QUEENS OF EGYPT

Kara Cooney

This riveting narrative explores the lives of six remarkable female pharaohs—women who ruled Egypt with real power—and shines a piercing light on our own perceptions of women in power today.

Female rulers are a rare phenomenon—but thousands of years ago in ancient Egypt, women reigned supreme. Repeatedly, and with impunity, queens like Hatshepsut, Nefertiti, and Cleopatra controlled the totalitarian state as power brokers and rulers. In place of dead husbands and young sons, they sat on the throne and maintained peace in their kingdoms. But throughout human history, women in positions of power were more often used as political pawns in a male-dominated society. What was so special about ancient Egypt that provided women this kind of access to the highest political office? What was it about these women that allowed them to transcend patriarchal obstacles? What did Egypt gain from its liberal reliance on female leadership—and could today's world learn from its example? In this groundbreaking book, celebrated Egyptologist Kara Cooney delivers a fascinating tale of female power, exploring why it has seldom been allowed through the ages—and why we should care.

KARA COONEY is a professor of Egyptology at UCLA. Her academic work focuses on death preparations, afterlife beliefs, and gender studies. She has participated in digs with the Metropolitan Museum of New York at the Royal Pyramid complex of Senwosret III, and the Theban Necropolis with Johns Hopkins University. She appeared as a lead expert in the popular Discovery Channel special The Secrets of Egypt's Lost Queen, and is a recurring team member on the History Channel's Digging for the Truth. Her book The Woman Who Would Be King was published in 2014.

THE ULTIMATE BEGINNER'S GUIDE TO GREAT PHOTOGRAPHY

Joel Sartore

For digital camera and smartphone users, this fun, easy how-to guide reveals the essentials of taking great pictures from an experienced National Geographic photographer.

Written by Joel Sartore, acclaimed photographer and founder of the Photo Ark, this entertaining book shows aspiring photographers how to take great pictures, from framing and F-stops to editing and archiving. Whether you're using your phone or a DSLR camera, you'll learn the fundamentals of photography—and how to put them to work every day.

In a series of short lessons, Sartore explains the basics, from how to choose a camera and gear to understanding focus, exposure, composition, and lighting. Using examples from his own work, he applies the basic rules of photography to family, pet, travel, nature, and street photos.

Throughout the book you'll find pro tips, quick assignments, smartphone ideas, and behind-the-camera stories. Fun and informative, this book will be your gateway to picture-taking success!

JOEL SARTORE brings a sense of humor and a midwestern work ethic to everything he does, including more than 30 assignments and 4 books for National Geographic, his wildly popular photography courses with The Teaching Company, and his celebrated National Geographic Photo Ark initiative.

THE SPLENDOR OF BIRDS

ART AND PHOTOGRAPHS FROM NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC

National Geographic

An elegant collection featuring artwork and photography from the National Geographic archives illustrates the magnificence of birds. Nature, bird, and art lovers alike will treasure this sumptuous visual celebration of the colors, forms, and behaviors of the winged wonders that share our world.

Luminous paintings, revealing photographs, and state-of-the-art high-speed and telephoto camera images reveal moments rarely seen and sights invisible to the human eye, from beloved songbirds to the exotic theatrics of courtship dances among birds of paradise, tender moments inside a tern's nest, or the vivid flash of a hummingbird's tongue. Readers will delight in seeing iconic species portrayed in vintage paintings, early black-and-white photographs, and modern masterpieces from acclaimed National Geographic wildlife photographers such as Chris Johns, Frans Lanting, Joel Sartore, and Tim Laman. Exquisitely produced and expertly curated, this unparalleled collection of images displays the irresistible beauty, grace, and intelligence of our feathered friends.

One of the world's leading nonfiction publishers, NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC has published more than 1,700 titles, featuring such categories as history, travel, nature, photography, space, science, health, biography, and memoir. A portion of its proceeds is used to fund exploration, conservation, and education through ongoing contributions to the work of the National Geographic Society.

PIGEONS OF HIS ROYALTY COURT

Probably the best known pigeon fancy in the world is the King Pigeon of England, whose birds of the drab color contain the finest racing specimens obtainable. From these birds birds have grown into more beautiful English breeds, accompanied by the necessary long necks, their so produce winners for their accident owners. His Majesty's grandfather, Queen Victoria was also an ardent fancier; seeing pigeons shows whenever possible and spending many hours in her aviary. Thousands of years before the days of King George another King, Rameses III of Egypt glorified in his dominions of pigeons in the temples of Thebes, Heliopolis, and Memphis. Since his time, down to the present, the Chinese, especially Mohammedan countries, has regarded pigeons as sacred.

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC RARELY SEEN PHOTOGRAPHS OF THE EXTRAORDINARY

National Geographic, with a foreword by Stephen Alvarez

This “mini”-size version of the New York Times bestseller showcases astounding natural phenomena, far-flung landscapes, and uncommon animal species, shot by star National Geographic photographers.

Volcanic lightning cuts through the night sky. A lone kangaroo skims the surface of a lake at sunset. A jeweled scarab from King Tut’s tomb glitters in the darkness. The dazzling landmark book shot by an elite group of acclaimed photographers is now available as a compact gift book. Culled to reflect the many variations of our planet’s secret wonders—from 30,000-year-old cave paintings to flowers that bloom every few years to engravings inside Abraham Lincoln’s watch—each image offers a powerful perspective that will astonish and inspire. Filled with behind-the-scenes stories and wrought with beauty, mystery, and joy, Rarely Seen is a breathtaking window to the extraordinary.

Foreword author STEPHEN ALVAREZ is an award-winning National Geographic photographer, filmmaker, and explorer who produces global stories about exploration, adventure, culture, and archaeology. He has published over a dozen feature stories in National Geographic magazine. The magazine has sent him from the highest peaks in the Andes to the depths of the deepest cave in the world. Recent appearances include NPR, PBS, and CBS Saturday Morning. Alvarez is also a frequent consultant on how new photographic technology is changing the world.
