Outdoor Fun

The Nature Adventure Book
DK

This is the perfect gift for adventurous children, as they play their way through 40 crafts and games to be done outside. You don't need to live near a forest or have a huge garden to have a go at these projects – the activities and crafts in this book can be done on-the-go, in your neighborhood, or at your local park. Discover the magic of the outdoors and get hands-on with activities that are perfectly suited for young children, as you collect treasure on a nature walk, learn to identify animals from their tracks, create wild art, whittle a magic wand from a stick, and build a twig teepee. There are also mindful games that encourage children to tune into their senses and feel connected to their surroundings.

Get inspired by nature, be creative, and feel free. 48 pages

Little Yogi Deck

Simple Yoga Practices to Help Kids Move Through Big Emotions
CRYSTAL MCCREARY; Illustrated by ANDREA PIPPINS

The Little Yogi Deck teaches children skills to recognize and manage emotions by introducing yoga and mindfulness as tools they can use when things feel overwhelming. The deck covers important topics from strengthening attention, increasing self-awareness, and soothing the nervous system to developing vocabulary for emotional self-expression, cultivating resilience, and skillfully navigating emotions during challenging times. The 48 cards are organized into eight color-coded categories – anger, worry, excitement, sadness, joy, jealousy, shame, and peace – to support children through every emotion they may be feeling. Along with a practice, each card also features a vibrant illustration to visually depict the pose or activity. Every illustration showcases children with different cultural and ethnic backgrounds, physical limitations, and social and emotional needs highlighting our diverse experiences.

How Do You Feel?

Written & illustrated by LIZZY ROCKWELL

There are a lot of emotions on the playground. A girl is happy when playing with a puppy. Another girl is angry when a boy knocks over her drink. And the boy who knocked over the drink is sorry. With simple, sparse language and bright, expressive illustrations, Lizzy Rockwell introduces the very young to a wide range of emotions. Detailed art encourages identification and discussion of the different characters' emotional reactions, and serves as a springboard for introducing the concepts of emotional intelligence, self-regulation, and coping skills.

Toddlers will start to identify feelings in themselves and in others in this simple, clever book by a prominent preschool nonfiction author-illustrator. Sturdily crafted for small hands, this board book features beautiful, detailed spreads of panoramic views of the playground action, while close-ups focus on body language and facial expressions. 26 pages

Mermaid Dreams

KATE PUGSLEY

One sunny Saturday, Maya and her parents visit the beach. Maya loves the beach: the warm sand feels wonderful between her toes. But it would be more fun if she had a friend. Too shy to say hello, Maya watches the kids play nearby, and slowly her eyes droop closed . . . When Maya awakens she has been transported to a magical underwater world! She admires the sea creatures flitting around her, and she discovers that she too has a beautiful tail. Maya is a mermaid! But who is calling out a greeting from behind that coral? Whose bright eyes are peering at her from the sea grass? Whose laughter does she hear? Could it be a new friend? Or just another sea creature? This adorable board book will delight the youngest daydreamers and shows us that making new friends may not be as hard as you think – if you have a good imagination! Full Color Throughout, 32 pages

Milo is on a long subway ride with his older sister. To pass the time, he studies the faces around him and makes pictures of their lives. There's the whiskered man with the crossword puzzle; Milo imagines him playing solitaire in a cluttered apartment full of pets. There's the wedding-dressed woman with a little dog peeking out of her handbag; Milo imagines her in a grand cathedral ceremony. And then there's the boy in the suit with the bright white sneakers; Milo imagines him arriving home to a castle with a drawbridge and a butler. But when the boy in the suit gets off on the same stop as Milo – walking the same path, going to the exact same place – Milo realizes that you can't really know anyone just by looking at them. Constellation of the Deep
BENJAMIN FLOWW

Fox loves nature, and enjoys discovering strange and fascinating plants. He especially loves the seaside, and often walks the salty coastal trails with his cousin Wolf. One day, Seagull tells the two about an especially interesting underwater plant called the constellation of the deep. According to Seagull, it grows on the bottom of the ocean, but no one knows exactly where, and it glows in the dark. Before long, Fox has donned his diving equipment, including a wet suit, a snorkel, a diving mask, fins and more, and sets off on an underwater quest to find this incredible plant. Along the way, Fox observes many different kinds of ocean life, like crabs, starfish, algae and an amazing array of corals. He also comes across some underwater friends who try to help guide him to the elusive plant. But Fox despairs when he loses his camera – even if he finds the constellation of the deep, how will he capture this amazing discovery? Full Color Throughout, 48 pages

G My Name Is Girl

A Song of Celebration from Argentina to Zambia
Written and illustrated by DAWN MASI

A my name is ALBA and my sister's name is AYELEN. We come from ARGENTINA and we are ADVENTUROUS.

Girls from 26 different countries - Argentina to Zambia - are celebrated in this alphabetical celebration of global girlhood. Children will enjoy reading the names of girls, their characteristics, and their countries for each letter, learning how girls around the world live - how they are different, and how they are the same. This inspiring, diverse, kind-hearted, and empowering book will let every girl feel seen and loved. A map at the end of the book shows readers all the countries represented, adding an educational and globally-minded geography component. Full Color, 40 pages

The Wonderful World

The Tree in Me
CORINNA LUYKEN

Through poetic text and exquisite illustrations of children reveling in nature, this picture book explores the various ways we as human beings are strong, creative, and connected to others. Each of us is like a tree, with roots and fruit, and an enduring link to everything else in nature. "The tree in me is strong. It bends in the wind, and has roots that go deep . . . to where other roots reach up toward their own trunk-branch-crown and sky."

As Corinna Luyken did in her award-winning My Heart, she again provides an invigorating conversation-starter that contains a world of truths – about self-esteem, community, and living a meaningful life. Full Color Illustrations, 56 pages

The Wonder Walkers
MICHA ARCHER

When two curious kids embark on a "wonder walk," they let their imaginations soar as they look at the world in a whole new light. They have thought-provoking questions for everything they see: Is the sun the world's light bulb? Is dirt the world's skin? Are rivers the earth's veins? Is the wind the world breathing? I wonder . . . Young readers will wonder too, as they ponder these gorgeous pages and make all kinds of new connections. What a wonderful world indeed! Full Color Illustrations, 32 pages
