Frankie likes to sort things. She sorts flowers, she classifies the contents of the fridge and she even attempts to group the people on her street (which is hard!). But the one thing Frankie cannot seem to sort ... is herself!

Where does one little girl belong in a world of endless colours, shapes and sizes? From bestselling author Pippa Goodhart and illustrator Emily Rand, join Frankie in her search to find out where she belongs ... and discover that it's the mixed up, muddle of life that brings us all together. Exploring first concepts in a simple and heart-warming way, this book is perfect for children just starting to learn about the world and their place in it.

Pippa Goodhart grew up in Grantchester, UK, and has written over 90 books. She was longlisted for the Kate Greenaway Award, won the 2011 Mumsnet Children's Book of the Year and was shortlisted for the Young Telegraph Book of the Year award.

DEER FOXES

Deer foxes are so rare that many people believe them to be mythical. Despite their luminous white fur, they are skilled at avoiding detection and rarely reveal themselves to humans. However, these extraordinary mystical creatures have occasionally been sighted in the wilderness surrounding Trolberg, though never within the city's walls. That's what you think!
