Modern Fashion

Africa
The Fashion Continent
EMMANUELLE COURRÈGES

From the runway in Lagos and music festivals in Casablanca or Nairobi, to the “image makers” of Marrakech and the influencers of Dakar or Accra, a new generation of African fashion designers, photographers, bloggers, and hair and makeup artists are redefining the aesthetic contours of the continent. Audacious, humorous, disruptive, and innovative are the bywords of these young creatives who, while drawing upon and revalorizing their heritage, offer an ultra-contemporary perspective on fashion today. A creative revolution is spreading in an extension of continental revindication through cultural reappropriation and the invention of a visual language. Appliqué figures straight from Ghanaian Asafo flags seem to chant modern slogans as they march across silk dresses and traditional textile prints give power back to women. 300 Full Color Illustrations, 240 pages.

Perfect Puzzles

Gee's Bend: Equal Justice

A Quilt Print Jigsaw Puzzle: 750 Pieces

ESSIE BENDOLPH PETTWAY and PAULSON FONTAINE PRESS

Michal Kimmelman of the New York Times described the quilts from Gee's Bend as "some of the most miraculous works of modern art America has produced." The Gee's Bend community has a history of quilting that goes back to its formerly enslaved ancestors. The quilts, originally intended for comfort and household use, are celebrated for their bold abstract patterns and dramatic colorways. This 20 x 26-inch puzzle, featuring a quilt pieced together in glowing shades of royal blue, lavender, pink, and teal, is a superb example of this tradition. As you assemble it you will see a work of art come together under your hands. 750 pages.

Japan's Best Friend

Dog Culture in the Land of the Rising Sun
MANAMI OKAZAKI

In Japan's Best Friend, stunning photographs take readers to religious festivals and shrines that honor dog deities, to the streets of Tokyo where canines are a mainstay of kawaii culture, and inside the doors of cafes that make pup-themed latte art as well as facilities that train rescue dogs to be involved with therapy. Readers are introduced to SONY's iconic dog robot aibo; to the loyal Akita Hachiko, whose statue is located next to the world's busiest pedestrian crossing; and to Doge, the Shiba Inu internet sensation. The book looks at how dogs are represented in Japanese traditions, as well as the extraordinary lengths to which they are exalted within pop culture. It includes Edo and Meiji-era woodblock prints, as well as dog-centric work by Pritzker Prize-winning architects and renowned contemporary artists. 200 Full Color Illustrations, 192 pages.

RBG A to Z
The Life of An Icon from ACLU To Gen Z
NADIA BAILEY

This intricately illustrated and fastidiously researched book unpacks the life of Ruth Bader Ginsberg, who herself was larger-than-life. It explores her early days growing up in Brooklyn, New York, in her family home; her time at Cornell, where she was first in her class, and Harvard, where she was the first female member of the Harvard Law Review; her persistence in fighting for gender equality, and the indelible impact she had on her country. Jaw-dropping illustrations track her rise as one of the most important and celebrated judges, the impact of her legacy for women, her contribution to law, and the unparalleled phenomenon that is RBG. This book looks at the life of one of the most inspiring, influential figures in recent history— all in a brilliantly illustrated A to Z format. 30 Full Color Illustrations, 56 pages.

100 Meaningful Conversations on Power, Equity, and Justice
IBRAM X. KENDI

Ibram X. Kendi has raised our awareness of the importance of persistent, dedicated antiracist work. Being antiracist is an everyday commitment; in order to build a more equitable and just society, we must be diligent, making antiracist choices at every turn. Meaningful change can start at the micro-level; these conversations starters will help you along the way. When did you first become aware of racism? When did you first become aware of your race? Where does racism exist? What does “resistance” mean to you? Why is talking about race important? Why now? Whether you choose to ponder these questions alone or with family, friends, or community groups, the 100 cards in The Antiracist Deck will help you lead discussions on race, racism, antiracism, and intersectional topics like class, ethnicity, gender, sexuality, power, and more. 100 pages.

Jane Austen's Universal Truths
 Wisdom and Witticisms from Her Writing
 SUSAN HART-BYERS; Illustrations by POLLY FERN

The novels of Jane Austen are famed for their ability to perfectly convey the nuances of social interactions in the Regency period. Perhaps what makes the books still so popular is just how recognizable the social situations and character types of two hundred years ago are today. This collection of some of Austen's most choice and wry observations features witticisms on love and marriage, the battle of the sexes, town and country, and moral duty. Dipping into all of her six published novels, this anthology will delight Austen fans and includes charming illustrations by Polly Fern. 10 Full Color Illustrations, 128 pages.

 Life Lessons from Jane Austen
 AVERY HAYES

It is a truth universally acknowledged that most of us could use some guidance. Whether you're looking to marry a man with several carriages to his name, are recovering from an illness caused by wet stockings, or you're unsure what color ribbon is the best match for your outfit, Jane Austen's wisdom is here to guide you through any problem. This deck of cards features insights from Austen's wide world of characters. Just shuffle the deck and pull the card on top. With illustrations of her beloved characters and their most enlightened quotes, they'll guide you through the day ahead and help you resolve your questions. Not sure you've made the right decision? "Better be without sense than misapply it as you do." 50 Full Color Illustrations, 50 pages.

Make Yourself at Home

Coming Home to Nature

The French Art of Countryfication

GESA HANSEN, ESTELLE MARANDON, CHARLOTTE HUGUET
Photographs by STEPHANIE FÜSSEN ICH and NATHALIE MOHADJER

A manor next to an elegant seventeenth-century castle in a picturesque village, a restored four-hundred-year-old windmill, or a ruin in the Barbizon forest transformed into a contemporary timber house—our trio of authors saw the potential in these rural homes and took the leap into a life rhythm by nature. But how did these urban dwellers step away from the glamour of Paris, and why haven't they looked back? A calmer life enriched by its surroundings, with more space at home, a burgeoning garden, and a relaxed ambiance is a seductive combination. But a country house is different from a cozy apartment, just steps from modern conveniences. In their search for a deeper experience, they embarked on a long-term project that required planning and effort, but it brought unexpected joy along with the challenges. 120 Full Color Illustrations, 208 pages.

Surf Life

Surfer Magazine

1960-2020
GRANT ELLIS

Founded in 1960 by surfer, artist, and filmmaker John Severson, Surfer was the longest continuously published surf magazine, referred to as “the bible of the sport.” Surfer was firmly established as the sport’s leading voice, serving as a template for a small but growing number of surf magazines around the world. Featuring a mix of travel articles, contest reporting, surf spot profiles, big wave pictorials, and surfer interviews, Surfer worked with the world’s best photographers, writers, and graphic designers. This voluminous anthology features the most time-less, inspirational, and historically significant covers and interior pages from the magazine’s extensive archive and depicts the chronological progression of the sport, the gear, the style, and the world’s top surfers throughout the decades. 350 Full Color Photographs, 256 pages.

The Art of Waves

CLARK LITTLE with JAMIE BRISICK, Foreword by KELLY SLATER

Surfer and photographer Clark Little creates deceptively peaceful pictures of waves by placing himself under the deadly lip as it is about to hit the sand. “Clark’s view” is a rare and dangerous perspective of waves from the inside out. Thanks to his uncanny ability to get the perfect shot--and live to share it--Little has garnered a devout audience, been the subject of award-winning documentaries, and become one of the world’s most recognizable wave photographers. Clark Little: The Art of Waves compiles over 150 of his images, including crystalline breaking waves, the diverse marine life of Hawaii, and mind-blowing aerial photography. This collection features his most beloved pictures, as well as work that has never been published in book form, with Little’s stories and insights throughout. 150 Photographs, 240 pages.

Modern Hideaways

Rocky Mountain Modern
JOHN GLENDALL

Rocky Mountain Modern presents the most inspiring modern residences set within the stunning landscapes of the Rockies. Perched on cliffsides or nestled into verdant valleys, with expansive picture windows framing breathtaking vistas and natural materials such as wood and stone interpreted in new ways, these striking homes reveal modern living at its best in the mountains. Indeed, modern design has a deep connection to the region: in 1945, Aspen, a former mining town in the Colorado Rockies, became an unlikely bastion of modernism, hosting some of the world's leading designers. Over the ensuing decades, a regional modernism developed that blended the International Style's clean lines, open volumes, and curtain walls, and Wrightian organicism that incorporated the natural features of the rocky landscape with a vernacular that had adapted to the extreme environmental conditions. 200 Illustrations, 224 pages.

Treehouses for Adults
PHILIP JODIDIO

Whether it's a yearning to escape the stress of day-to-day existence, or a desire to live more sustainably and to get closer to nature, more and more people are finding reasons to go off-grid, high above the ground. Today's treehouses have evolved into shapes and sizes that nobody could ever have dreamed of. Philip Jodidio takes us on an exciting international tour of more than 36 structures, revealing how they are designed, built, and appreciated in a wide array of cultures and settings. Each treehouse is presented with breathtaking exterior and interior photography, giving readers an in-depth glimpse of this rapidly evolving symbiosis between nature and shelter, indoor and outdoor, and rustic and polished, in a definitive examination of tree-house living. 200 Full Color Photographs, 260 pages.

Fun for Film Lovers

The Feminist Film Guide

100 Great Films to See (That Also Pass the Bechdel Test)
MALLORY ANDREWS

With so much incredible cinema to choose from, there's only so many movies you can watch about a bunch of white guys struggling with their daddy issues, right? It's time to push past the male gatekeepers of what makes a movie 'great' or 'culturally significant' and get a broader view of what's out there. A curated selection of great films that span genres, this illustrated guide is the perfect gift for everyone from film buffs to your friends who can't stop arguing about which movie to choose. From overlooked female trail-blazers of the silent era and the iconic triple-threat performers of classic Hollywood, to gun-toting badasses of the eighties and nineties and the funny women absolutely dominating comedy in the new millennium, The Feminist Film Guide offers a fresh take on what defines great cinema and lends a voice to the women who've defined the artform. 50 Color Illustrations, 208 pages.

Step inside the Villa Mabrouka, Yves Saint Laurent's former home in Tangier, to see how the sylvan refuge has been preserved and transformed, and inside a 1950s Marrakech house to see how its new owners use tiles and local stone to playful effect. Learn how homeware companies such as Trame and LRNCE brilliantly reimagine traditional Moroccan ceramics and craftsmanship. And visit parks such as Majorelle Garden, where a French painter created his greatest masterpiece out of plants and water. Combining modern technology with a deep respect for tradition, these locations and influencers incorporate natural materials such as earth, wood, and bamboo into buildings that are both simple and elegant, and into landscapes that honor a fragile ecosystem. 180 Color Illustrations, 192 pages.

Bless the Daughter Raised by a Voice in Her Head

Poems

WARSAN SHIRE

With her first full-length poetry collection, Warsan Shire introduces us to a young girl, who, in the absence of a nurturing guide, makes her own stumbling way towards womanhood. Drawing from her own life, as well as pop culture and news headlines, Shire finds vivid, unique details in the experiences of refugees and immigrants, mothers and daughters, Black women, and teenage girls.

Satisfy Your Cravings

Every Last Crumb
A Modern Cook's Guide to Using Your Loaf
JAMES RAMSDEN

Inspired by the traditional cookbooks of yesteryear, Every Last Crumb fuses old-fashioned culinary resourcefulness with a modern palette to create a wonderfully giftable book, filled with bold and beautiful line drawings and with a zero-waste mentality at its core.

Comprising approximately 80 recipes, the book takes us through the five-day life cycle of the loaf. Each chapter offers a range of recipes to make the most of leftovers in the most delicious way, from classic sandwiches and bread and butter pudding, to brown bread ice cream and even fermented rye bread beer. With many people having recently rediscovered the joy of baking, this is the modern antidote to waste, using the whole loaf and a little culinary ingenuity. 90 Full Color Photographs, 128 pages.

Cake & Loaf
Satisfy Your Cravings with Over 85 Recipes for Everyday Baking and Sweet Treats
NICKEY MILLER and JOSIE RUDDERHAM

Cake & Loaf, a cozy from-scratch neighborhood bakery, started with a dream shared over coffee between college friends and business partners, Nickey Miller and Josie Rudderham. Genuinely passionate about food, sustainability, and community, they wanted to create a bakery with a dynamic atmosphere that fosters creativity and equality. Full of flavor and homespun comfort, the recipes range from classics like Maple Syrup Butter Tarts and Vanilla Bean Nanaimo Bars, to local favorites like Pumpkin Spice Baked Doughnuts and Lemonlicious Cake. The book features over 85 recipes and variations to create your own sweets and treats at home, including everyday morning baking-muffins, scones, doughnuts, and granolas-cookies, decadent sandwich cookies, bars, layer cakes, tarts, and pies. Full Color Photographs Throughout, 288 pages.

Mindful Drinking

Mindful Mixology

A Comprehensive Guide to No- and Low-Alcohol Cocktails with 60 Recipes
DEREK BROWN

Not long after his son was born, Derek Brown decided to cut back on his drinking. But as a bartender, bar owner, and cocktail and spirits expert, he wanted to do so using the techniques and expertise of mixology to create a new arsenal of libations that were sophisticated, satisfying, and tasty. The drinks Brown presents in this book are meticulously choreographed around taste, texture, body, and piquancy to result in surprisingly complex “adult beverages” minus the booze. Drawing on historical research, meticulous tweaking of classic cocktails to create lower-proof versions, and entirely new concoctions inspired by an evolved home bar, Derek shares sixty recipes, as well as a guide to the ingredients and equipment you need to imbibe at home. 100 Full Color Photographs, 224 pages.

Drink Lightly

A Lighter Take on Serious Cocktails, with 100 Recipes for Low- and No-Alcohol Drinks
NATASHA DAVID

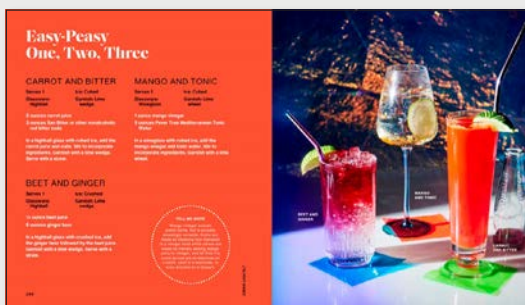

Drink Lightly presents a relaxed style of drinking that goes down easy but is soundly rooted in the technical precision of craft cocktails. Award-winning bartender Natasha David’s approach to low-alcohol, aperitif-style drinks goes far beyond the formulaic—bitter liqueur plus soda—and takes full advantage of an incredible and vast array of low-proof spirits, liqueurs, and wines, along with flavorful fruit and herbal infusions. The result is a collection of creative, genre-pushing drinks that surprise and delight. Offerings are effervescent and light in effect, but complex in flavor, ranging from savory and herbal to floral and aromatic, depending on your mood. 100 Full Color Photographs, 272 pages.

Dressed to Swill

Runway-Ready Cocktails Inspired by Fashion Icons
JENNIFER CROLL, DAIANA RUIZ

Dressed to Swill contains sixty original cocktail recipes inspired by style icons from the 20th century to today, including fashion designers, models, photographers, stylists, influencers, and more. Karl Lagerfeld's tippie is made for royalty: it's similar to a Kir Royale, but brings in the velvety flavors of raspberry and vanilla. The Kim Kardashian is sensuous, flavorful, and as subtly delicious as its subject. Lizzo's cocktail is a strawberry-rhubarb sparkler certain to fill you with joy. From Alexa Chung and Andre Leon Talley to Coco Chanel and RuPaul, there's a flavor to fit every mood, be it avant-garde, glamorous, rebellious, or little-black-dressy. 100 Full Color Illustrations, 144 pages.

The Bartender's Manifesto

How to Think, Drink, and Create Cocktails Like a Pro
TOBY MALONEY and the Bartenders of The Violet Hour with Emma Janzen

Take a raucous romp through the essential stages of fashioning cocktails and learn the hows and whys of bartending with acclaimed mixologist Toby Maloney and the team from The Violet Hour. When the pioneering cocktail bar opened in Chicago in 2007, it set a high standard with an innovative training program that teaches not just how to replicate classic cocktail recipes flawlessly, but how to embrace ingenuity, make smart decisions, and create original, inspired recipes from rote. Like cooks who can peer into their pantry and whip up dinner on the fly, no recipe needed, those who follow the methods in The Bartender's Manifesto will have the technical foundation and confidence to take their cocktail skills to the next level and fabricate a drink from any ingredients at hand. 100 Photographs, 50 Illustrations, 304 pages.

Bludso's BBQ Cookbook
A Family Affair in Smoke and Soul
KEVIN BLUDSO with NOAH GALUTEN

Kevin Bludso was born and raised in Compton, California, by a Black Panther-supporting mother and a police officer father. To stay out of trouble, he spent his summers in Corsicana, Texas, where he was schooled on the art of barbecue and worked long, hot hours on the pits at his granny's legendary BBQ stand. In 2008, Kevin opened his own Bludso's BBQ, a small walk-up stand in the heart of Compton that has led to multiple locations in California, Texas, and even Australia. In this honest and engaging cookbook, Kevin teaches you everything you need to know about BBQ: choosing, seasoning, trimming, and cleaning your pit, how to select your brisket, ribs, and sausages, plus all the rubs and sauces you could need. Kevin also shares 90 delicious recipes along with the mouthwatering photographs to accompany them. 150 Photographs, 288 pages.

Life of Fire
Mastering the Arts of Pit-Cooked BBQ and the Smokehouse
PAT MARTIN and NICK FAUCHALD

One of the few pitmasters still carrying the torch of West Tennessee whole hog barbecue, Nashville's Pat Martin has studied and taught this craft for years. Now, in his first book, he reveals all he knows about the art of barbecue and open-flame cooking, in all the stages of a fire's life. Through beautiful photography and detailed instruction, the lessons start with how to prepare and feed a fire—what wood to use, how to build a pit or a grill, how to position it to account for the weather—then move into cooking through all the stages of that fire's life. You'll grill chicken with Alabama white sauce over the grown-up fire, and of course you'll master pit-cooked whole hog, barbecue ribs, turkey, pork belly, and pork shoulder over the smoldering heat of mature coals. 125 Full Color Photographs, 320 pages.

My America

Recipes from a Young Black Chef
KWAME ONWUACHI with JOSHUA DAVID STEIN

Featuring more than 125 recipes, My America is a celebration of the food of the African Diaspora, as handed down through Onwuachi's own family history, spanning Nigeria to the Caribbean, the South to the Bronx, and beyond. From Nigerian Jollof, Puerto Rican Red Bean Sofrito, and Trinidadian Channa (Chickpea) Curry to Jambalaya, Baby Back Ribs, and Red Velvet Cake, these are global home recipes that represent the best of the patchwork that is American cuisine. Interwoven throughout the book are stories of Onwuachi's travels, illuminating the connections between food and place, and food and culture. The result is a deeply personal tribute to the food of "a land that belongs to you and yours and to me and mine." 100 Full Color Photographs in Text, 304 pages.

Extraordinary Voices

The Year We Learned to Fly

JACQUELINE WOODSON; Illustrated by RAFAEL LÓPEZ

On a dreary, stuck-inside kind of day, a brother and sister heed their grandmother's advice: "Use those beautiful and brilliant minds of yours. Lift your arms, close your eyes, take a deep breath, and believe in a thing. Somebody somewhere at some point was just as bored you are now." And before they know it, their imaginations lift them up and out of their boredom. Then, on a day full of quarrels, it's time for a trip outside their minds again, and they are able to leave their anger behind. This precious skill, their grandmother tells them, harkens back to the days long before they were born, when their ancestors showed the world the strength and resilience of their beautiful and brilliant minds. Jacqueline Woodson's lyrical text and Rafael Lopez's dazzling art celebrate the extraordinary ability to lift ourselves up and imagine a better world. Full Color Illustrations, 32 pages.

Mommy's Hometown

HOPE LIM

This gentle, contemplative picture book about family origins invites us to ponder the meaning of home. A young boy loves listening to his mother describe the place where she grew up, a world of tall mountains and friends splashing together in the river. Mommy's stories have let the boy visit her homeland in his thoughts and dreams, and now he's old enough to travel with her to see it for himself. But when mother and son arrive, the town is not as he imagined. Skyscrapers block the mountains, and crowds hurry past. The boy feels like an outsider—until they visit the river where his mother used to play, and he sees that the spirit and happiness of those days remain. Sensitively pitched to a child's-eye view, this vivid story honors the immigrant experience and the timeless bond between parent and child, past and present. 32 pages.

Mama and Mommy and Me in the Middle
NINA LACOUR

For one little girl, there's no place she'd rather be than sitting between Mama and Mommy. So when Mommy goes away on a work trip, it's tricky to find a good place at the table. As the days go by, Mama brings her to the library, they watch movies, and all of them talk on the phone, but she still misses Mommy as deep as the ocean and as high as an astronaut up in the stars. As they pass by a beautiful garden, the girl gets an idea...but when Mommy finally comes home, it takes a minute to shake off the empty feeling she felt all week before leaning in for a kiss. Michael L. Printz Award winner Nina LaCour thoughtfully renders a familiar, touching story of a child who misses a parent, illustrated by Kaylani Juanita, whose distinctive style brings charm and playfulness to this delightful family of three. 32 pages.

All You Need Is Love

All You Need

HOWARD SCHWARTZ; Illustrated by JASU HSU

All You need

Is a planet to live on,
A sun to give you light,
And warmth. . .

In All You Need, poet Howard Schwartz's graceful, deceptively simple text describes a handful of things anyone needs to live a rich and fulfilling life, made all the more potent by the illustrations of debut picture book artist Jasu Hu, who uses her talents to create a rich and powerful narrative describing her own journey, creative and otherwise, from a childhood in China to her arrival to study art in New York. Ultimately, she creates her own book, this book, a gift to her distant parents. 32 pages.

Colorful Creatures

The Tide Pool Waits

CANDACE FLEMING; Illustrated by AMY HEVRON

Twice a day when the tide goes out, an astonishing world is revealed in the tide pools that form along the Pacific Coast. Some of the creatures that live here look like stone. Others look like plants. Some move so slowly it's hard to tell if they're moving at all, while others are so fast you're not sure you really saw them. The biggest animals in the pool are smaller than your hand, while the smallest can't be seen at all without a microscope. During low tide, all these creatures—big, small, fast, slow—are exposed to air and the sun's drying heat. And so they have developed ways to survive the wait until the ocean's return. Candace Fleming is the author of Honeybee, which received an Orbis Pictus Honor and 7 starred reviews. 40 pages.

Enjoying the World Around Us

Tisha and the Blossoms
WENDY MEDDOUR

Tisha has spent the entire day rushing. She has to hustle for the bus in the morning, though she wants to stop and listen to the sounds around her. She has to quickly put her crayons away at school, though she's not finished with her drawing. She even has to speed through recess so she doesn't miss lunch. So when Mommy picks her up, Tisha asks if they can please "have a little slowdown." What if they walked instead of taking the bus? What if they counted cars and seagulls, umbrellas and hats? What if they simply sat on a bench in the sunshine and gave names to the pigeons in the park? From the creators of Grandpa's Top Threes comes a beautifully illustrated, tenderly told story about taking the time to experience the world around us, listen to one another, and enjoy the little things in life. 32 pages.

The Boy and the Mountain

MARIO BELLINI and MARIANNA COPPO; Illustrated by MARIANNA COPPO

A little boy, who is a keen artist, becomes obsessed with a mountain he can see from his house. One day, he tries to draw the mountain, but his drawing doesn't look anything like it, so he decides that he has to take a closer look. He sets off with his dog, drawing what he sees along the way, and making a growing collection of animal companions during his hike. But when he finally reaches the mountain, the boy makes a discovery about the importance of perspective and friendship which changes how he views the world around him. Both a powerful exploration of art and a sweet ode to hiking, this picture book from acclaimed author-illustrator Marianna Coppo and her partner, Mario Bellini, will inspire readers young and old to stop and take the time to appreciate both the world around them and others who inhabit it. Full Color Illustrations, 48 pages.

Open Your Imagination

I'd Like to Be the Window for a Wise Old Dog
PHILIP C. STEAD

The limitless possibilities of the world outside our windows—and the warmth and comfort of home – are explored in this thoughtful meditation on the imagination, as seen from the point of view of a wise old dog. Any child who has ever felt uncertainty about the world outside will be soothed and enchanted by the open-ended, seemingly-unanswerable, and utterly whimsical questions this book poses: “Will I ever be the dawdle of a penguin? Will I ever be the waddle of a snail? Will I ever be the tumble of a honeybee? Will I ever be the bumble of a whale?” Children will love poring over the vivid, whimsical artwork, asking their own imaginative questions, and thinking about their own view of the world outside their window. It’s a perfect story for families to share together from the warmth and comfort of home. Full Color Illustrations, 48 pages.

Books to Empower

I Am Quiet

A Story for the Introvert in All of Us

ANDIE POWERS; Illustrated by BETSY PETERSEN

Emile is not shy; he is quiet. While the perception from the outside world is that he is timid and shy, the world inside of Emile's mind is bustling with imagination. As we navigate Emile's school day, we learn that the smallest and most silent moments can sometimes be the strongest. While grownups and even other kids may see Emile as the shy kid who doesn't raise his hand in class, we know that Emile is actually a swashbuckling adventurer, a tamer of beasts, and a friend to everyone he meets.

This story honors and encourages the beauty of knowing ourselves for exactly who we are. Emile's world shows us that the mind of a quiet child can be as rich, expansive, and bold as that of any other (more extroverted) child. 32 pages.

The Essential Japanese Green Living Handbook for Kids
KAI SAWYER AND AZUSA FUKUOKA

Young readers will be swept along by Ranger Kai, the guide on this journey, who only has five rules:

1. Be yourself
2. You have everything you need
3. You can create whatever you want
4. We are all connected
5. Have fun with life!

With those rules as the north star, Ranger Kai teaches kids and adults about eating, permaculture, mindfulness, design thinking, creating a garden, DIY crafts, and more. Each section includes illustrated step-by-step guides and activity ideas. Many books on climate change and green living for kids focus on recycling or other small-picture ideas. This book from Japan dares to truly envision a post-carbon future—and not only that, embraces it and charts the path towards a truly fun life, in harmony with the Earth. 144 pages.

Dream Big

The Wild Garden
CYNTHIA CLIFF

In the village of Mirren, a tidy community garden is carefully organized and tended by the townspeople. On the other side of the garden wall is a wild patch of land- a jumble of trees, a pond, and tall grassy places. While the garden is cared for in different ways throughout the seasons, Jilly and her grandfather like to visit the wild place, foraging for mushrooms, asparagus, and nuts, and watching the insects, birds and other animals. When the townspeople decide they need a bigger garden, they make plans to expand beyond the wall into the wild place. Worried about what will happen to their special piece of nature, Jilly and her grandfather come up with a plan, inviting the townspeople to discover a new kind of gardening. Their plan works and the wild place and the community garden merge harmoniously. 40 Full Color Illustrations, 32 pages.

Loujain Dreams of Sunflowers
LINA ALHATHLOUL & UMA MISHRA-NEWBERY;
Illustrated By REBECCA GREEN

Inspired by co-author Lina alHathloul's sister, formerly imprisoned Saudi women's rights activist and Nobel Peace Prize nominee Loujain al-Hathloul, who led the successful campaign to lift Saudi Arabia's ban on women driving, this gorgeously illustrated story is lyrical and uplifting. Loujain watches her beloved baba attach his feather wings and fly each morning, but her own dreams of flying face a big obstacle: only boys, not girls, are allowed to fly in her country. Yet despite the taunts of her classmates, she is determined to learn to do it-especially because Loujain loves colors, and only by flying will she be able to see the color-filled field of sunflowers her baba has told her about. Eventually, Loujain's impossible dream becomes reality-inspiring other girls to dare to learn to fly. 40 pages.

Heartwarming Tales

Everywhere with You
CARLIE SOROSIAK

Two houses stand side by side: one is home to a dog, the other to a young girl. Though a fence divides them, girl and dog build a sweet and sturdy friendship rooted in make-believe...and are lonely no more. Paired with moving illustrations and based on a true story, this endearing tale from the author of I, Cosmo testifies to the transformative power of creativity and inter-species friendship. 40 pages.

The Birders
An Unexpected Encounter in the Northwest Woods
ROB ALBANESE

As an elderly man wonders if his days of adventure are behind him, across the street a young boy is struggling with boredom. But then everything changes when they run into each other outside and, after a bit of commotion, get caught up in the pursuit to document an elusive snowy owl in the woods behind their houses. As the day unfolds, they get to know each other better and realize that they each have something to teach the other, and their friendship starts to grow. The Birders is a humorous and heartwarming intergenerational story. 40 pages.
