Delicious Baking

Sweet Enough: A Baking Book
ALISON ROMAN

Casual, effortless, chic: These are not words you'd use to describe most desserts. But before Alison Roman made recipes so perfect that they go by one name—The Cookie, The Pasta, The Lemon Cake—she was a restaurant pastry chef who spent most of her time learning to make things the hard way. She studied flavor, technique, and precision, then distilled her knowledge to pare it all down to create dessert recipes that feel special and approachable, impressive, and doable. In Sweet Enough, Alison has written the book for people who think they don't have the time or skill to pull off dessert. Here, the desserts you want to make right away, you can make right away. Alison shows you how to make simple yet sublime sweets with her trademark casualness. 100 Full Color Photographs, 304 pages.

Buzzworthy
Cocktails Inspired by Female Literary Greats
JENNIFER CROLL

The fifty recipes in this volume are as unconventional, imaginative, and refreshing as the authors that inspired them. Each double page spread includes an illustration of one important woman writer along with fascinating background about her oeuvre, personality, and points of literary distinction. And, of course, each profile is paired with a delicious recipe for a fitting cocktail. Pulling from every category—literary and genre fiction, poetry, graphic novels, essays and nonfiction—this book offers some surprising twists as well as old favorites. And while each subject could provide hours of cocktail chatter, the recipes themselves are also a unique conversation starter: the Virginia Woolf—a peach-and-mint creation with a modernist flair; and the Octavia Butler—an uncompromising blend featuring bourbon and port. 165 Full Color Illustrations, 160 pages.

That Cheese Plate Wants to Party

Festive Boards, Spreads, and Recipes with the Cheese By Numbers Method
MARISSA MULLEN; Illustrated by SARA GILANCHI

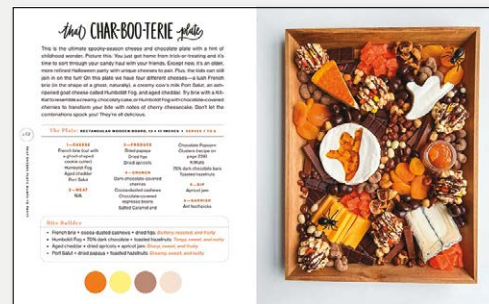

If you're in the mood to celebrate life, anything can be a party. There's nothing like the positive energy of being together, a festive atmosphere, and the spark of laughter and conversation-around the cheese plate, of course. But a party doesn't have to be a big event; it can just be a mind-set. The very act of making a cheese plate builds space for creativity and settles you into a self-care mood, and now, Marissa Mullen takes the art of mindful plating to the next level by turning self-care communal. Featuring forty new cheese boards for parties of all kinds, thoughtful drink pairings, color themes, floral arrangement tips, tablescene ideas, playlists, and cheesy party games, this is the ultimate party planning guide. Full Color Photographs Throughout, 288 pages.

Flavorful Cooking

A Cook's Book
The Essential Nigel Slater [A Cookbook]
NIGEL SLATER

A collection of more than 150 delicious, easy, and gratifying plant-based and meat recipes, A Cook's Book is the story of famed food writer Nigel Slater's life in the kitchen. He charms readers with the tales behind the recipes, recalling the first time he ate a sublime baguette in Paris and the joy of his first slice of buttercream-topped chocolate cake. From the first jam tart he made with his mum, standing on a chair trying to reach his family's classic Aga stove, through learning how to cook on his own and developing his most well-known and beloved recipes, readers will be delighted by the origin stories behind Slater's work. Slater writes eloquently about how his cooking has changed, from discovering the trick to the perfect whipped cream to the best way to roast a chicken. These are Nigel Slater's go-to recipes, the heart and soul of his simple and flavorful cooking. 138 Photographs, 512 pages.

Pasta for All Seasons

Dishes that Celebrate the Flavors of Italy and the Bounty of the Pacific Northwest
MICHELA TARTAGLIA

Fresh ingredients, fresh pasta, innovative dishes. What's not to like? Rising Seattle chef Michela Tartaglia has developed 50 seasonal recipes that showcase the best of Northwest seafood, produce, and meat in creative, delicious pasta dishes. Michela is founder of Pasta Casalinga, a Pike Place Market counter restaurant that serves up new dishes each week from the garden, the ocean, and the farm. Using favorite ingredients such as salmon and clams and foodie favorites like nettles and chanterelles, this book offers home cooks regional, seasonal pasta dishes that are as comforting as a favorite spaghetti or fettuccine dish but as bold and exciting as a hot new restaurant entree. In addition, a pasta primer helps home cooks make fresh pasta at home and choose the right pasta shape for the right sauce or dish. 40 Photographs, 176 pages.

Entertaining with Style in the Great Outdoors
LELA ROSE

Lela Rose is the ultimate party girl. In her second entertaining book, she is back with advice on giving stylish parties outside, filled with ideas for beautiful table settings, flower arrangements, and specialty cocktails and canapes. The parties featured are inspired by places that matter to Lela—her childhood home in Texas, her favorite vacation retreat in Jackson Hole, and her home base in New York City—but their concepts easily travel, from a sundowner cocktail hour to a party celebrating local cheeses. There are stylish bird-watching excursions and a wildflower-gathering expedition under the big sky of Texas. The glory of the Tetons serves as a backdrop for a glamorous bonfire, and there is a beautifully choreographed dinner with a lunar theme on a Manhattan terrace. These and many more unique parties showcase Lela's creative flair with dozens of tips and takeaways. 150 Full Color Illustrations, 256 pages.

The World at Your Table
Inspiring Tabletop Designs
STEPHANIE STOKES;
Written with Judith Nasitir; Foreword by Melissa Biggs Bradley

The World at Your Table features transporting tablescapes set with evocative, eye-catching, and exotic items this adventurous spirit has gathered over the years. To enliven her tabletops, Stokes creates experiences in miniature using china, glassware, linens, candlesticks, and cutlery from such widely different destinations as Japan, Cartagena, Budapest, and London. Each conjures the spirit of a particular place: Palm Beach's tropical lushness, Provence's remarkable charm, Portugal's artisanal refinement, and so much more. By pairing her travel photography with the featured tables, she illustrates how incorporating the treasures collected on one's travels can capture, express, and spark fresh memories at home. Throughout, Stokes discusses the design principles that inform her choices—from color palettes to indigenous materials. 200 Full Color Illustrations, 224 pages.

Sensational Prep-Ahead Meals for Camping, Cabins, and the Great Outdoors
CHRIS NUTTALL-SMITH

Say goodbye to your ho-hum canned beans, freeze-dried meals, and hot dogs. Making impressive dishes like Herby Lemon Dijon Chicken Thighs, Blistered Fingerling Potato and Burrata Poutine, or even fire-baked Pecan Sticky Buns is totally possible—even if you’re camping in the backwoods! Food writer and outdoorsman Chris Nuttall-Smith shows readers how by bringing the stress-free simplicity of meal-prepped cooking to the great outdoors. Dividing each recipe by prep location, his ingenious approach gets most (if not all!) of the cooking done at home before a trip even begins. Then at camp, many recipes simply have you drop fully prepped ingredients into a pot or onto a grill, and just like that, you’re dining on Cumin Lamb Kebabs with Fresh Chapatis, the simplest high-summer Cherry Tomato Pasta, or showstopping Sweet-Tangy Ribs. 100 Full Color Photographs; 20 Spot Illustrations, 224 pages.

Franklin Smoke
Wood. Fire. Food. [A Cookbook]
AARON FRANKLIN and JORDAN MACKAY,
New York Times bestselling authors of “Franklin Barbecue”

Aaron Franklin, bestselling author and proprietor of Austin hotspot Franklin Barbecue, turns to backyard live-fire grilling and smoking in Franklin Smoke. Along with award-winning food writer Jordan Mackay, Franklin addresses the mysterious area where smoker and grill intersect, describing when and how to best combine the two. This complete resource, which features inspiring and helpful photographs, proves that lighting a backyard fire is no big deal on a weeknight—and that you can (and should!) cook this way for fuller flavors and a deeper engagement with the elements. The trick is in treating fire as an ingredient, not a medium. Franklin and Mackay detail strategies for executing meals over the full lifespan of a fire, employing low- and high-heat techniques as well as indirect cooking and smoking. 100 Photographs, 224 pages.

The BBQ Companion
50 recipe cards for grilling perfection
OSCAR SMITH

The BBQ Companion is your guide to grilling up a great time—just pull out a card and get cooking in the great outdoors. With fifty recipes in the deck, it's got you covered for chicken, beef, lamb, pork, seafood, and veggies, as well as options for side dishes and even desserts. In the mood for a classic? Try a barbecued steak with bearnaise sauce, grilled buttermilk chicken, or sticky beef short ribs with bourbon-laced BBQ sauce. Or, if you're looking for something different, there's Korean bulgogi tofu, haloumi burgers with peperonata, or rum-spiked barbecued banana boats. Each card comes with a different recipe, with enough choices to keep you cooking all summer. So, just shuffle the deck and get grilling. 50 Full Color Illustrations, 50 pages.

Global Flavors

Southern Cooking, Global Flavors
CHEF KENNY GILBERT and NAN KAVANAUGH;
Foreword by Alexander Smalls

Learn to cook favorite traditional Southern dishes, adding variety and spice through the use of different techniques and ingredients. Each of ten chapters offers an iconic Southern dish and then international variations, with, for example, Korean or Chinese or Indian ingredients and flavors. Showing his full range, chef Kenny Gilbert shares other dishes: the “Ribs and Slaw” chapter includes jerk-spiced spareribs with habanero-mango BBQ sauce and coconut-guava slaw; the “Fish and Grits” chapter features grouper Francese with truffle-gouda grits; and the “Meatloaf and Mashed Potatoes” chapter includes shawarma-spiced lamb meatloaf with feta and kalamata-olive mashed potatoes. Through more than 100 recipes, as well as tips and techniques in Gilbert’s own words, this book connects people to the great potential of Southern cuisine in today’s global culture. 100 Illustrations, 256 pages.

An A-Z of Pasta
Recipes for Shapes and Sauces, from Alfabeto to Ziti, and Everything in Between: A Cookbook
RACHEL RODDY

This is the story of pasta. Award-winning food writer Rachel Roddy has lived and cooked in Rome for almost two decades. She has spent years browsing bucolic Italian markets, cooking with fresh and seasonal vegetables, discovering cheeses, and perfecting the art of making Italy’s favorite food: pasta. Now she has condensed everything she’s learned about pasta in a practical, highly entertaining collection of recipes that will ensure authentic Italian meals and take your pasta dishes to the next level. In this cookbook, you will learn the many ways to pair pasta shapes with sauces, how to make certain pastas from scratch and how to best serve them—from Cavatelli with Sausage, Mint, and Tomato to Fregula with Clams; and from Bucatini with Cauliflower, Saffron, and Anchovies to a spaghetti for every night of the week and a Bolognese-style lasagna. 122 Full Color Photographs & 50 Illustrations, 368 pages.

Culinary Adventures

The Open Skies Cookbook
A Wild American Road Trip
SARAH GLOVER

In this greatly anticipated new cookbook, Sarah Glover shares her passion for America's wide-open spaces and characterful cars. A feast for the eyes and the soul, the book is filled with recipes from across the country—from New England, New York, and Florida to California, New Mexico, and Utah. She even takes a detour for a spot of surfing in Baja California. Sarah completes her trip to each destination in a different vehicle. Readers will travel to the Texas and Arizona deserts for some barbecue in a Land Rover; explore Northern California's Wine Country in a Dodge Freightliner; sample Maine seafood in a Volkswagen Campervan; dive into the Deep South in a Ford RV. Each of the sixty recipes— including vegan, vegetarian, and gluten-free options—can be cooked on a small stove or barbecue grill. There is even a bonus chapter on beverages. 120 Full Color Illustrations, 240 pages.

Love Japan
Recipes from our Japanese American Kitchen [A Cookbook]
SAWAKO OKUCHI and AARON ISRAEL with Gabrielle Gershenson

Steaming sukiyaki. Pillowy, soft shokupan. Springy ramen noodles. These famed Japanese dishes, as well as modern interpretations and evolutions, are all part of Love Japan, a collection of beloved family recipes from the married owners of Brooklyn's Shalom Japan. Like many of us, chefs Sawako Okuchi and Aaron Israel lead busy lives and often find themselves short on time in the kitchen. Their secret to getting nourishing, delicious food on the table for their family? The Japanese-inspired dishes that Sawako grew up eating. While not rigid in tradition, these recipes are all rooted in the Japanese flavors and techniques taught to Sawako by her mother, with influences from Aaron's Jewish heritage as well as the menu at Shalom Japan. Through years of practice in their own home and in their Brooklyn restaurant, Sawako and Aaron have distilled these recipes for maximum flavor and minimum fuss. 100 Photographs, 272 pages.

Ever-Green Vietnamese
Super-Fresh Recipes, Starring Plants from Land and Sea
[A Plant-Based Cookbook]
ANDREA NGUYEN

Although many people think of Vietnamese cooking as beefy pho and meat-filled sandwiches, traditional Vietnamese cooking has always involved a lot of plants and seafood and a little meat. In Ever-Green Vietnamese, Andrea Nguyen details how cooks in her home country draw on their natural resourcefulness and Buddhist traditions to showcase a wide array of herbs and vegetables in flavorful, comforting recipes. Filled with the brilliant advice and exceptional teaching Nguyen is known for, the book offers recipes for flavor-boosting condiments and sauces (her incredible DIY vegan fish sauce), exciting ways to enjoy tofu, and dozens of vegetable-driven sides and mains, including a few that incorporate a bit of meat (many with vegetarian or vegan options). 85 Photographs, 304 pages.

Our Kindred Home

Herbal Recipes, Plant Wisdom, and Seasonal Rituals for Rekindling Connection with the Earth
ALYSON MORGAN

Alyson Morgan, a second-generation Haitian American, grew up feeling disconnected from her roots and suffering from the trauma of racism. To heal herself, she found a connection with the natural world around her: slowing down, respecting the seasons, and growing or foraging plants in her local area. To Alyson, connection with the earth means finding a sense of place and home in an era of stress and overwhelm. Now she shares her methods of homesteading for anyone to practice in their own life. Beautifully photographed, with plant monographs, illustrations, and recipes, Our Kindred Home explores our deep ties to the natural world and offers regenerative and sustainable ways of living. 40-50 Full Color Photographs; 30-35 Line Art, 320 pages.
