Schwartz & Wade Books

In ten short years Schwartz & Wade Books has established itself as a beloved publisher of books for children. Some imprints publish books that are well reviewed, while others publish books that become bestsellers—Schwartz & Wade Books has a reputation for publishing both. Their titles have appeared on the New York Times, Indie, and PW bestseller lists and have won numerous awards, including the 2012 Caldecott Medal for A Ball for Daisy by Chris Raschka. And of course they've introduced children to favorite characters like Duck & Goose, Rocket, and Sparky.

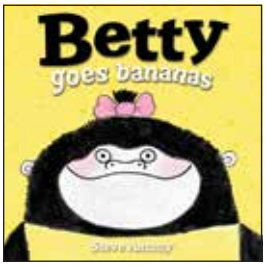

Schwartz & Wade's emphasis is on picture books but they also publish middle grade and YA fiction, novelty books, and nonfiction. Founders Anne Schwartz and Lee Wade are known for the care they take with every book. As Anne and Lee like to say, "We acquire with our hearts and publish with our heads." Penguin Random House looks forward to seeing what the imprint has in store for the next ten years.
