Jimmy Nelson

HOMAGE TO HUMANITY

FROM THE AUTHOR OF
BEFORE THEY PASS AWAY

JIMMY NELSON

Jimmy Nelson, renowned photographer of Before They Pass Away, captures the essence of thirty iconic and incredible cultures, from Asia, Africa, and Australia to India and Mexico.

British-Dutch photographer Jimmy Nelson presents his latest collection of 600 evocative photographs, revealing intimate insight into the peoples of over thirty iconic cultures from around the world. From the Himalayas with the Sharchop in Bhutan to the Mundari on the dry, isolated plains of South Sudan—these and many more indigenous cultures hidden from the world's eyes are documented with a pride and respect that only Nelson can conjure.

This new assemblage of epic voyages is accompanied by a state-of-the-art mobile app that allows readers to view 360-degree film material, behind-the-scenes video, storytelling, and interviews, immersing readers on a journey to the remotest places on Earth. Accompanying the photographs are engaging interviews with members of the communities and infographics on the locations and cultures of each destination.

This volume celebrates each community's distinct aesthetic cultural heritage and is a visual document that reminds us and future generations of the beauty of these peoples and their harmonious connection to nature. An invaluable time capsule of these still-surviving cultures, this is an homage to the other, who we may probably never fully understand, but who will never stop compelling us to explore.

Nelson's romantic work captures minute details, vivid colors, and dramatic light to produce awe-inspiring portraits of beautiful people: from head-on shots to visual narratives documenting quotidian life, rituals, rites of passage, and striking pictures of marvelous and sometimes harsh landscapes.

Jimmy Nelson is a photographic artist and storyteller known for his dignified and aesthetic representations of indigenous peoples.

UNFASHIONABLE

30 YEARS OF FASHION PHOTOGRAPHY

RANKIN

CONTRIBUTIONS BY JEFFERSON HACK,
KATIE GRAND, KATE MOSS, AND
DONNA MATTHEWS

A spectacular retrospective of the profoundly influential photographer Rankin's extraordinary thirty-year career on the cutting edge of fashion and pop culture.

A photographer who defined the aesthetics and attitudes of the 1990s and 2000s, Rankin's influence continues to be seen everywhere, from fashion editorials to cinematography, graphic design, and music videos for artists from Iggy Azalea to Miley Cyrus.

Edited by the photographer himself, and drawing from thirty years of work, this is the first retrospective of Rankin's full career. From early provocative portraiture in the late 1980s, through his founding with Jefferson Hack of the fashion bibles of the 1990s and 2000s, Dazed & Confused and AnOther Magazine, to his pioneering of independent television and film through Hunger and his iconic monographs on Heidi Klum and Rosie Huntington-Whiteley, Rankin's work has defined the face of popular culture for generations.

Presented in reverse chronology, with a nod to a continuing spirit of contradiction, Unfashionable moves from Rankin's most iconic portraiture and documentary work through his nudes, his groundbreaking fashion work, and back to his earliest Polaroids. With contributions from Rankin and several of his influences, peers, subjects, and admirers, this is the definitive look at one of the most profound influences on fashion and photography working today.

Rankin is a photographer living and working in London. He cofounded the magazines Dazed & Confused and AnOther with Jefferson Hack, and his fashion photography has been published everywhere from his own publications to Elle, Vogue, Harper's Bazaar, Esquire, GQ, Rolling Stone, and Wonderland.

Pharrell: Transformations

PHARRELL WILLIAMS
CONTRIBUTIONS BY KARL LAGERFELD,
LEBRON JAMES, AND SARAH ANDELMAN

Transformations documents the continuing adventures in art and design of Pharrell Williams, one of the most influential figures in contemporary music and popular culture.

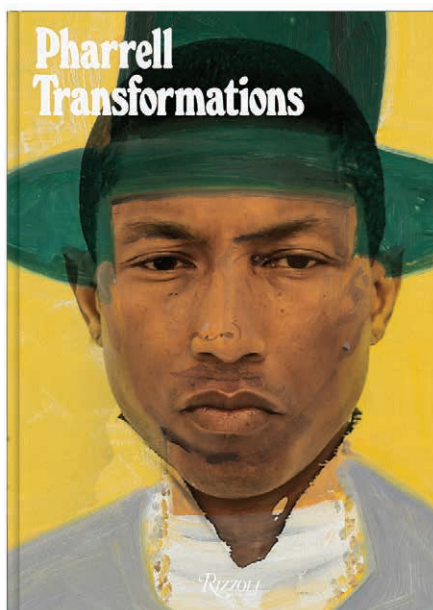

The worldwide success of the song “Happy” and his soundtrack and production credit for the Oscar-nominated film Hidden Figures bookend a volume wholly devoted to Pharrell’s mastery of artistic collaboration. Straddling the intersection of art, design, and hip-hop, Pharrell’s creative output is without peer or precedent. By playing off different disciplines—music, fashion, and contemporary art—and using each as an element in the other, Pharrell has redefined the role of the contemporary recording artist, blazing a trail for other musicians and prominent cultural figures. Expanding on themes covered in Places and Spaces I’ve Been, the new book gathers a fresh group of collaborators. Engaging Pharrell in conversation, talents as diverse as Karl Lagerfeld and Takashi Murakami provide context and position Pharrell’s work within contemporary visual and material culture.

Featuring projects and designs for Chanel, Moncler, Moynat, and Adidas and Pharrell’s pioneering work with visual artists as diverse as JR, Alex Katz, MR, and Daniel Arsham, Transformations highlights Pharrell’s most impressive recent collaborations. At the heart of it all is the visual language that Pharrell has built around his Ice Cream/Billionaire Boys Club clothing line, which integrates a sophisticated approach to streetwear into the design of apparel, accessories, limited-edition toys, and skate graphics.

Pharrell Williams is a multiplatinum recording artist, 11-time Grammy award recipient, and a two-time Academy Award nominee. Karl Lagerfeld is the creative director of Fendi and Chanel. LeBron James is an American professional basketball player for the Cleveland Cavaliers. Sarah Andelman is the founder and creative director of the Parisian concept store Colette.

NEW YORK

Cocktail & Drink Groups

Cocktail & Drink Groups

American drinks are divided according to volume into short drinks (up to 3½ oz content and long drinks (up to 8½ oz content and above).

There is a large number of groups defined by their content, of which many are no longer known behind the bar and are no longer mixed. The cocktail books of the 1930s listed more than 30 groups.

The following thirteen are those which I find important and contemporary.

I have put the aperitifs and digestifs at the beginning. For me, the bar's cocktail stars are those for the hours before and after a meal. The bartender can and should advise their guests here.

Appropriate advice is crucial for the bar's reputation.

THE INTERIORS

ASHLEY HICKS

The first large-format, luxury hardcover book to comprehensively document the lavish State Rooms of Buckingham Palace. Beautiful imagery and a lively commentary by interior designer Ashley Hicks present a firsthand account of the most splendid rooms of the London residence of Britain's royal family.

With rare access, interior designer and artist Ashley Hicks has photographed the State Rooms of Buckingham Palace, home of Britain's monarch since 1837. An important representation of Regency, Victorian, and Edwardian styles, the palace is the work of such noted architects as John Nash. Hicks's eye brings a vibrant take on the formal spaces, capturing the magnificent rooms furnished with treasures from the Royal Collection.

Starting at the Grand Staircase, Hicks leads us through the opulently decorated State Rooms, which include the White Drawing Room and the Blue Drawing Room that both overlook the palace gardens; the Ballroom, which is the setting for twenty investiture ceremonies each year; and the Throne Room, used by Queen Victoria for spectacular costume balls in the 1840s. The long, skylit Picture Gallery is hung with important works of art in the Royal Collection by Rembrandt, Rubens, Poussin, van Dyck, Vermeer, and Canaletto, among others. Decorative furnishings from George IV's exotic Brighton Pavilion lend a fanciful turn to many of the rooms. This intimate tour through the Buckingham Palace State Rooms is a necessary addition to the libraries of devotees of the royal family, English architecture, decoration, and the fine arts in general.

Ashley Hicks is a British author, architect, interior and furniture designer, and photographer. He is the only son of Lady Pamela Hicks and the legendary interior decorator David Hicks.

Nina Campbell Interior Decoration

CAREFREE ELEGANCE

GILES KIME

FOREWORD BY CAROLINA HERRERA

For comfortable and stylish interiors, look no further than Nina Campbell, the doyenne of English interior design today. Rooms with sophisticated color combinations, tailored upholstery, whimsical antiques, and unquestionable ease—motifs that are uniquely Campbell's but that also echo her early influences working with legend John Fowler.

Nina Campbell's almost fifty-year career exemplifies the best of English interior design. Campbell imparts her design wisdom through a biography of her career and recent decorating projects, sharing tips and secrets of the trade. A selection of the designer's own London residences outlines her experimentations and passions—from pared-back grandeur to bold plays of scale and modern use of texture and color. A survey of Nina's high-profile commissions completed in the last five years demonstrates how she employs the key principles of her design aesthetic in a variety of contexts, from prestigious addresses in London and New York, a pied-à-terre in Rome, and a retreat in the English countryside to a historic German hotel, a viewing pavilion at the Ascot, and a Los Angeles bedroom suite. The running theme is how Campbell has taken the tenets of classic English style and uses them to create a style germane to the twenty-first century.

This book is for people who love English design, one of the most enduring decorating styles of the past fifty years—traditional interiors with vibrant colors, luxurious textiles, pared-down elegance, and, above all, true comfort. A necessary addition to design libraries on masters of the field.

African Twilight

THE VANISHING RITUALS
AND CEREMONIES OF THE
AFRICAN CONTINENT

CAROL BECKWITH AND ANGELA FISHER
TEXT BY AIDAN HARTLEY

African Twilight is the magnum opus of the two pioneering documentary photographers of African tribal cultures and ceremonies—a world that is quickly vanishing before our very eyes.

Spanning the last fifteen years of world-renowned photographers Carol Beckwith and Angela Fisher's four decades of fieldwork documenting traditional ceremonies throughout Africa, African Twilight is a timely testament to these vanishing moments and peoples. No other book like this exists or can ever be created again, as more than half of the ceremonies documented here will never occur again. All of the photography is previously unpublished.

Beckwith and Fisher's unmatched access has allowed them to witness ceremonies previously unseen outside of these cultures—from fireside rituals around the grass huts of the Bushmen in the Kalahari Desert to Sufi moulid ceremonies in the nighttime streets of Cairo; from young boys' initiations into warrior-hood in the Democratic Republic of the Congo to the spectacular mask-dancing festivals of Burkina Faso.

At the twilight of so many traditional African cultures, experience firsthand the sacred and historic as brought together in this stunning, seminal two-volume masterpiece.

Carol Beckwith and Angela Fisher have photographed the peoples and cultures of Africa for more than forty years. Together, they have published several books, including their landmark African Ceremonies, and their magazine credits include major features in Time, Life, and Vogue, among others. Aidan Hartley is a Kenya-born writer and entrepreneur. As a foreign correspondent for the Reuters news agency, Hartley covered Africa in the 1990s: wars in Somalia, famine in Ethiopia, and genocide in Rwanda.

Reviews for Tish Jett's previous book, Forever Chic:

"Frenchwomen have an enviable reputation for being svelte, sexy, and stylish and for possessing a certain je ne sais quoi that doesn't seem to diminish with age. Fashion journalist and editor Tish Jett reveals how middle-aged Frenchwomen remain 'forever chic' in this detailed look at the diet, skin, hair, makeup, and exercise regimen of la femme d'un certain age...this volume provides commonsense and decidedly French head-to-toe beauty routines that yield results. Readers will also learn how to use color, accessories, and figure-flattering clothing to emulate the classic Parisian sense of style. Verdict...worthwhile and entertaining." —Library Journal

"In one word...fabulous. The first print run sold out in a flash...now it's back on the shelves and not to be missed." —VickiArcher.com

"Haven't you always wondered how [the French] can drink all that wine and eat all that beurre and remain slim and silky? Now comes a book that helps explain why. Forever Chic, written by Tish Jett (an American who spent years abroad) shares the secrets of what she calls the French "timeless beauty, style, and substance." She spills some of their beauty secrets but also gets to the core of what makes them seem more comfortable in their skin." —Huffington Post

"Jett's comments and sprinklings of French give the book a lively personality. Each chapter is indulgent fun." —Publisher's Weekly

FRENCHWOMEN'S TIMELESS SECRETS
FOR ELEGANT ENTERTAINING,
GRACIOUS HOMEMAKING, AND
IMPECCABLE STYLE

TISH JETT

Why Frenchwomen of a certain age are the consummate hostesses, homemakers, and style icons—and how you can be, too.

Frenchwomen—particularly those 40 and beyond—are role models for stylish and gracious living, what the French call l'art de vivre. American-born fashion journalist Tish Jett, who has studied these women for years, shared their beauty secrets in her first book, Forever Chic. Now she explores why Frenchwomen of a certain age are master hostesses and homemakers, expert practitioners of les bonnes manières as well as everyday elegance, savoir faire, and, as a result, la joie de vivre.

Jett explains how to entertain like a Frenchwoman, including a glimpse into the typical French larder from which a delicious meal can be thrown together with ease, to detailed instructions on laying a beautiful table and crafting a perfect cheese plate (did you know that when cutting from a wedge of cheese, slice from the back to the point, which is the "heart" of the cheese, and as such considered the best part and not to be lopped off so others cannot enjoy it). She explores everyday style and elegance, disclosing how to create that special bien dans sa peau (to feel good about oneself) sensation so coveted by Frenchwomen. Jett also shares the importance of discipline, which goes hand in hand with beauty—a well-ordered closet, be it for clothes or linens, translates to easy everyday elegance.

With tips on adjusting your beauty and style regimes seasonally, charmingly packaged with color illustrations, Living Forever Chic is a delightful gift for the Francophile in your life.

The former fashion editor of American Elle in Paris, Tish Jett is the author of Forever Chic. She blogs about Frenchwomen of a certain age and their style secrets at tishjett.com. She lives in France.

The Nature of Home

CREATING TIMELESS HOUSES

JEFFREY DUNGAN

PHOTOGRAPHY BY WILLIAM ABRANOWICZ

Light-filled houses built with an emphasis on natural materials by award-winning Southern architect Jeffrey Dungan.

Following in the tradition of populist architects Gil Schafer and Bobby McAlpine, Dungan designs new traditional houses for today—houses with clean lines, made with stone and wood, that carry an air of lasting beauty and that are made to be handed on to future generations. In his first book, Dungan shares his advice and insight for creating these “forever” houses and explores eight houses in full, from a beach house on the Gulf Coast to a farmhouse in the Southern countryside to a family home in the Blue Ridge Mountains. All speak of authenticity, timelessness, and lived history that reveals itself through the rich patinas and natural textures that come with age. Layered in between are thematic essays and imagery celebrating the importance of elements such as light, stone, and rooflines in creating a home.

Acclaimed Southern architect Jeffrey Dungan grew up on a small Alabama farm. He has been honored with awards from the American Institute of Architects as well as the 2017 Southeast Architect of the Year Award by Veranda magazine and ADAC. He was named a fellow in 2015 of the Institute of Classical Architecture and Art and has won three coveted Shutze Awards from the ICAA, where he has been named a Shutze Fellow. Dungan's work has been featured in Veranda, The Wall Street Journal, Garden & Gun, Southern Living, and House Beautiful. William Abranowicz is an acclaimed and widely published photographer whose work is found in prestigious collections throughout the world.

The Power of Pattern

INTERIORS AND INSPIRATION:
A RESOURCE GUIDE

SUSANNA SALK

Featuring interiors by today's top designers, The Power of Pattern shows how wallpaper and fabric designs can be used to elevate and personalize every room. Both a beautiful interiors book and a resource guide, it is the only patterns book on the market to feature such a wide range of work and diversity of styles.

Best-selling interiors author Susanna Salk turns her focus to patterns, celebrating their versatility and creative possibilities, from a dash of colorful pattern in the entryway to the whimsy of a uniquely upholstered chair in the dining room or a luxuriously textured bedroom curtain. A practical primer on the many motifs available—"Nature", "Animal", "Floral", "Ikat", "Chinoiserie", "Stripes", and "Toile" are some of the chapters—this volume presents myriad versions of each, with inspiring examples of how to decorate with them. # Point of View

NEW YORK CITY AND THE BIRTH OF NEW WAVE

CHRIS STEIN

A new collection of unseen photographs and stories of New York City's 1970s punk heyday, by one of the icons of the city's golden age of New Wave, Blondie's Chris Stein.

For the duration of the 1970s—from his days as a student at the School of Visual Arts through the foundation of the era-defining New Wave-band Blondie and his subsequent reign as epicenter of punk's golden age—Chris Stein kept an unrivaled and long overlooked photographic record of the downtown New York City scene.

Following in the footsteps of the successful Negative: Me, Blondie, and the Advent of Punk, this spectacular new book presents a more personal and more visceral collection of Stein's photographs and stories of the era. Focusing on a single decade in Stein's own world, the images presented here take us from self-portraits in his run-down East Village apartment to candid photographs of pop-culture icons of the time and evocative shots of New York City street-scapes in all their longed-for romance and dereliction. An eclectic cast of true punk characters—from Richard Hell and William Burroughs to Joan Jett, Debbie Harry, Andy Warhol, and Stephen Sprouse—appear here exactly as they were in the day, interacting with a city of torn-down blocks, riding the graffiti-ridden subway, or cruising the burgeoning clubs of the Bowery.

Accompanied by Chris Stein's own stories and recollections and with a look and feel that speaks to the era, P.O.V. is at once a chronicle of one music icon's life among his punk and New Wave heroes and peers, and a love letter to the city that was the backdrop and inspiration for those scenes.

Chris Stein is the cofounder of iconic New Wave band Blondie. His photographic work has been featured in galleries and press around the world, and published in the successful book Negative: Me, Blondie, and the Advent of Punk, published by Rizzoli.

The Art of Natural History

BOTANICAL ILLUSTRATIONS,
ORNITHOLOGICAL SKETCHBOOKS,
AND OTHER MASTERPIECES FROM THE AGE OF EXPLORATION

PASCALE HEURTEL AND MICHELLE LENOIR

This oversized collector's edition showcases antique paintings and drawings of birds and animals from the most important natural history collection in France.

An unparalleled collection of the most beautiful—yet scientific—depictions of flora and fauna ever produced, these artworks document three centuries of exploration of the far reaches of the world—a rich visual record harking back to a time when science relied upon painstaking human illustration as the only way to record exotic plants and unknown animals observed during voyages of discovery.

All the artworks included here were depicted on vellum, a high-quality, long-lasting parchment that fell out of use around 1900 when it was supplanted by photography. France's national collection consists of over 7,000 such artworks and is among the world's finest. Flora and fauna from every corner of the globe are represented in precisely rendered color and detail.

Sadly, many of the species depicted in these masterful yet hauntingly accurate portraits are now endangered, threatened—or in many cases, already extinct. This volume is both a celebration of the human quest for knowledge and an epitaph for a fast disappearing world—as well as a feast for the eyes for anyone who loves birds or vintage natural history art. This exquisite and timeless book is beautifully presented in a jacketed volume within a slipcase and luxuriously packaged within an illustrated mailer with a handle for portability.

Equestrian Life beautifully captures the details and atmosphere of a life enjoyed with horses. Offering a privileged look into country homes and estates in England, Scotland, and Ireland, and their adjoining stables, these photographs focus on the signature elements of an equestrian-centered life, from tack rooms and coach houses to trophy and portrait rooms. The reader will visit the beamed interior of the Combe Court stables, which are unchanged since they were built in 1860; the richly decorated wood-paneled interior of Bolsover Castle, the home of William Cavendish—the father of modern dressage; Seven Barrows, the property of champion Cheltenham Festival trainer Nicky Henderson, where trophies crowd the rooms and the sound of horses neighing is never too far; and the Royal Mews at Windsor, where the Ascot carriages are kept and where their driving horses are stabled together with riding horses.

The centuries-old residences featured are home to owners of polo ponies; thoroughbreds; hunt horses; and carriage teams, where the sounds of hooves in the courtyard echo through the halls. With entirely new photography shot specifically for the book, Equestrian Life is certain to delight horse and classical interiors enthusiasts alike and bring ideas and inspiration for breathing new equestrian life into their homes.

The Continental Divide Trail

EXPLORING AMERICA'S RIDGELINE TRAIL

BARNEY SCOUT MANN
FOREWORD BY NICHOLAS KRISTOF
IN ASSOCIATION WITH THE CONTINENTAL DIVIDE TRAIL COALITION

Spectacular images capture the beauty and challenges of this legendary hiking trail—one of the greatest long-distance treks in the world—in this official book from the Continental Divide Trail Coalition.

The Continental Divide Trail explores this iconic footpath in more than 250 contemporary images, unpublished historical photos and documents from the CDTC archives, and even an official trail map folded into an inside pocket.

Designated as one of the first national scenic trails in 1968, the trail is a continuous footpath of more than 3,100 miles—following the Rocky Mountains from Canada to Mexico along the Continental Divide, through New Mexico, Colorado, Wyoming, and Montana, and traversing Glacier, Yellowstone, and Rocky Mountain National Parks. Hikers from all over the world are drawn to this trail for a variety of reasons, but mostly to experience true American wilderness and to challenge themselves physically—whether for three miles or three thousand. This book is perfect for anyone interested in conservation, outdoor recreation, and for all those who dream of one day becoming thru-hikers.

Barney Scout Mann is coauthor of Rizzoli's The Pacific Crest Trail, which Backpacker magazine named Coffee Table Book of the Year. ## Richard Bernstein Starmaker

ANDY WARHOL'S COVER ARTIST

ROGER PADILHA AND MAURICIO PADILHA
FOREWORD BY GRACE JONES
EPILOGUE BY JEAN-PAUL GOUDE

An exploration of the work by American artist Richard Bernstein that celebrates his larger-than-life portraits for the covers of Andy Warhol's Interview magazine, as well as his visually arresting fine art, movie posters, and album covers created from the mid-1960s to the 1990s.

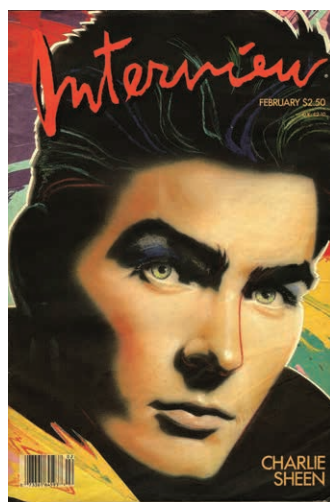

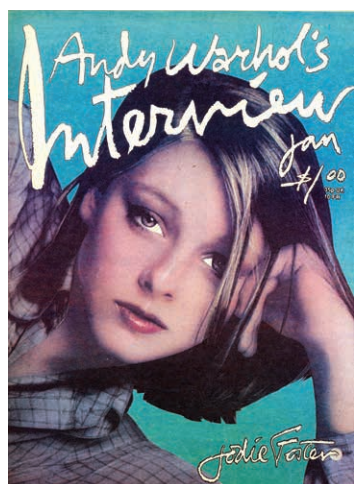

Richard Bernstein, a fixture at Studio 54 and with fashion and art insiders, captured the allure of the disco era through his iconic hyper-colored graphic portraits of superstars for the covers of Andy Warhol's Interview magazine. Warhol's influence on Bernstein's bold, playful, and graphic artwork is evident, and it was often thought that Warhol created the covers himself. Yet it was Bernstein, an American artist and art director, whose distinctive craft of retouching photographs with pastels, stencils, and airbrushing monumentalized his subjects into dazzling pop-art incarnations—sexy, captivating, and forever young.

The book features his legendary Interview covers of Madonna, Grace Jones, Mick Jagger, Cher, Calvin Klein, Michael Jackson, and Aretha Franklin, and Bernstein's rarely seen fine artwork, album covers, and editorial work for Time, Vogue Italia, New York Magazine, and Playboy, complete with intimate anecdotes and interviews with his closest friends and collaborators. This volume is an essential addition to any fashion, pop culture, style, or art lover's library.

Roger Padilha and Mauricio Padilha are the founders of MAO Public Relations and the authors of several Rizzoli books. Grace Jones is a legendary Jamaican performer, singer, supermodel, and author. Jean-Paul Goude is a renowned French graphic designer, photographer, and advertising film director.

THE BIBLE OF MUSIC AND STYLE

MARVIN SCOTT JARRETT

CONTRIBUTIONS BY LIZ PHAIR, WAYNE COYNE,
DEAN KUIPERS, AND STEVEN HELLER

This exclusive volume presents the best features and radically designed pages of the 1990s' most uncompromising document of alternative music, style, and pop culture.

Founded in 1992, Ray Gun was the only magazine wherein a die-hard culture seeker could find information on alternative music and the street-inspired style that really mattered. Punk rock had torn pop music to shreds and created a hunger for an original lifestyle beyond mainstream culture, and Ray Gun was its graphic chronicler: across its pages blasted a visual feast made up of era-defining artists such as Sonic Youth or Iggy Pop, music-inspired art, and a complete redefinition of sartorial style. The magazine's original art director, David Carson, and his peers who followed, created an entirely new visual culture that shattered the limitations of graphic design.

Ray Gun was as radical as the lifestyle it reported on, deeply committed to visually representing an alternative culture as a new way of seeing and being in the world. With over 200 full-color photographs, Ray Gun gathers the most outrageous pages from the magazine that helped to shape the '90s. This epic anthology features exclusive photographs and articles on rock legends such as R.E.M., Henry Rollins, Jane's Addiction, The Pixies, Dinosaur Jr., U2, Marilyn Manson, Smashing Pumpkins, Nine Inch Nails, Mudhoney, Pearl Jam, Bjork, Morrissey, PJ Harvey, Beastie Boys, Soundgarden, and Beck, and an interview with David Bowie.

Marvin Scott Jarrett is a celebrated creative force in the worlds of publishing, film, and television, as well as founder of Ray Gun and Nylon. Liz Phair is a legendary alt-rock goddess; Wayne Coyne is frontman of The Flaming Lips; Dean Kuipers is an arts and environmental writer; Steven Heller is an art director and co-chair of the MFA Design Department at the School of Visual Arts.

Veere Grenney: On Decorating

A POINT OF VIEW

VEERE GRENNEY

FOREWORD BY HAMISH BOWLES

The first book from AD100 designer Veere Grenney—the master of streamlined, glamorous, classical rooms with an English touch—eloquently explores not only the hows but also the whys of decorating.

Featuring thirty years of acclaimed interiors, paired with thoughtful advice and packaged with a real cloth case and mixed paper stocks, this book presents a rich album of Grenney's decorating work, from London townhouses to Long Island estates, with multiple images per page. Organized by room, these chapters feature Grenney's room-by-room decorating philosophy for entrances, living rooms, dining rooms, bedrooms, and kitchens, and explore thematic topics such as Englishness and composition and balance. Grenney also shares his own story, from his early years on the '70s London design scene to starting his own firm, from his first flat in London to his renovation of David Hicks' former house, the Temple, to his new holiday house in Tangier. There is also a chapter on the iconic designers who have inspired him. Whether it's a country house or an urbane apartment, Grenney's world is one of settled calm and welcoming comfort, where there are always generous fireplaces to sit in front of, billiard rooms and stone-flagged passages, and utility rooms where boots and coats are stored; grandeur and modesty side by side. This book is a must for Anglophiles and design lovers.

Veere Grenney trained under Mary Fox Linton and David Hicks, and later was a director at Colefax and Fowler before launching his own company in London 22 years ago. Widely published, Grenney's awards include House and Garden's "The Directory of 100 Leading Interior Designers," Veranda magazine's 2013 Magic Makers, and the AD 100.

FOUR SEASONS OF HOME COOKING

RUSSELL NORMAN

A dazzling tribute to Italy's greatest "hidden" regional cuisine by the author of the best-selling and groundbreaking cookbook Polpo.

Returning to the city of his gastronomic inspiration, Russell Norman immerses himself in the authentic recipes and culinary traditions of Venice and the Veneto in one hundred recipes showcasing the simple but exquisite flavors of La Serenissima. He documents one magical year learning and fine-tuning the specialties and everyday comfort foods of la cucina Veneziana in a rustic kitchen in a neighborhood far from the tourist crowds—where washing hangs across the narrow streets and some houses still rely on a communal well for water.

Norman lovingly reproduces true Venetian recipes with authentic ingredients very different from the globalized tourist fare in the city's restaurants. The book is structured by season, highlighting the ever-changing produce available in Venice's buzzing market stalls throughout the year. Included are Venetian favorites such as asparagus with Parmesan and anchovy butter, butternut risotto, arancini, rabbit cacciatore, warm duck salad with walnuts and beets, scallops with lemon and peppermint, and warm octopus salad.

Norman also affords a rare and intimate glimpse into Venice: its hidden architectural gems, secret places, embedded history, the color and energy of daily life and the characters that make this city so enchanting.

Russell Norman, whose eight acclaimed London restaurants include Polpo and Spuntino, writes "The Accidental Cook" column for Esquire and is the author of the award-winning POLPO: A Venetian Cookbook (of Sorts).

“My books are all about telling stories, and a lot of my art is about asking questions, but both are extensions of the same curious brain.”

—Oliver Jeffers

From the creator of some of the most engaging and New York Times best-selling illustrated and children's books today, this dynamic visual biography, in the tradition of Chip Kidd: Book One and Book Two or Chris Ware's Monograph is Jeffers's personal and charming chronicle of an artist who blends his love of creating stories, skillfully combining picture-making and storytelling, making this crazy world a better place in his signature fantastical fashion.

Roots: Farm to Table Recipes from the Black Swan

AN INN IN THE HEART OF YORKSHIRE

TOMMY BANKS

Britain's youngest Michelin-starred chef shares over 100 unique seasonal recipes from his family farm and pub—as well as stories and ideas about growing, foraging, and preserving.

With an approach to food that is above all local, Tommy Banks celebrates key ingredients locally grown or foraged, preserved for later or eaten soon after harvest. The Black Swan is more than just award-winning food—it is about identity and rootedness mixed with creativity and eccentricity. Fervently seasonal, Tommy celebrates summer abundance and autumnal bounty, but he revels in winter's "hungry months." Other chefs pay lip service to the seasonal/local mantra, but Tommy embraces it heart, soul, and plate.

Influenced by the rhythms of the land, he renames and redefines the seasons into three growing groups based on garden availability and shares creative recipes, preserving techniques, and ideas on using these "root" ingredients all year round. Beautifully photographed throughout the shifting seasons, the images showcase recipes, ingredients, and the landscape from which they hail.

Tommy Banks became Britain's youngest Michelin-starred chef in 2013 and won the Great British Menu in 2016 and 2017. Chosen as a Sunday Times One to Watch, Tommy was also featured in 2017's Observer Food Monthly 50. In 2017, the annual TripAdvisor Awards named The Black Swan the world's best-rated restaurant.

Frequently elegant and uncluttered, these houses serve as models of smart and often exquisite design with lots of ideas for homeowners who don't necessarily live in a waterfront home, but who wish to have something of that appeal and sensitivity in their own space. A range of projects encompassing myriad geographic and cultural inspirations show some of the world's most inviting residences, built in stone and glass, in wood and steel and concrete. The houses vary in size and style, though all are within the realm of the modern, from open-plan homes that include terraces and rooms that flow from indoors to out to spaces flooded with light and views.

LOW WATER GARDENS

DANIEL NOLAN

FOREWORD BY FLORA GRUBB

PHOTOGRAPHY BY CAITLIN ATKINSON

Acclaimed landscape designer Daniel Nolan showcases the best of desert gardenscapes that have become synonymous with luxury minimalism, and presents techniques that will inspire readers to transform available space into their own modern dry garden.

Hot days, cool nights, dry air, a blazing sun—California's Mediterranean climate is not what you think of when you hear "lush garden," but leading garden designers Nolan and his peers have revolutionized this genre with their artful designs.

Nolan, the authority on dry gardens, has carefully selected 25 unique public and private garden masterpieces, diverse examples of interior and exterior gardening techniques. Readers will be treated to a complete look at crafting elevated and rustic gardens through a variety of environments, from pools and pocket gardens, front lawns, balconies, and living walls to retail spaces, museums, and vineyards. Each detailed project offers a different approach to incorporating the desert's wild array of flora and becomes a practical tool, addressing various materials and horticultural and compositional solutions.

Rich with bold architecture of spiny cacti, brilliant and muted sage, rosy succulents, bright, dusty sands, and red rocks, Dry Gardens proves that inspiration has no geographic boundaries. It will be appreciated by lovers of gardens and interior design from around the world.

The Rebirth of an English Country House

ST. GILES HOUSE

THE EARL OF SHAFTESBURY AND TIM KNOX

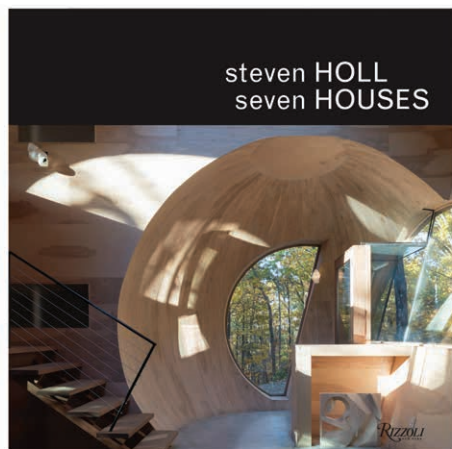

PHOTOGRAPHY BY JUSTIN BARTON

The brilliantly restored St. Giles House, in the idyllic Dorset countryside, offers high-point Georgian architecture and interiors that bridge many historical styles.

The 12th Earl of Shaftesbury, 39-year-old Nicholas Ashley-Cooper, invites the reader into the house that his family has called home since the fifteenth century. In recent years, his award-winning restoration has brought the house back to life, transforming exquisite spaces that honor the past while being suited to twenty-first-century living. English country-house splendor, through the hands of some of the world's top artisans and craftspeople, returns to the house in the form of re-created wallpapers, customized paints, revived furniture from the Georgian and Victorian periods, reworked antique Brussels tapestries, restored plasterwork and textiles, and a complete overhaul of the landscape, with its sunken garden, woodlands, avenue of beeches, lake, and shell-encrusted grotto.

With stories of noteworthy architecture, beautiful interiors, and centuries of a single family's involvement in British and world history, this book will appeal to devotees of country living, the aristocratic life, historic houses, and English interior design.

Steven Holl: Seven Houses

STEVEN HOLL

INTERVIEW BY PHILIP JODIDIO

This volume takes a close look at houses designed by Steven Holl, considered one of America's most influential architects. It offers the reader unprecedented access to the thought processes and work of this groundbreaking, cutting-edge architect through his own words, watercolors, and photographs.

Following the successful Oscar Niemeyer: Houses, Tadao Ando: Houses, and Frank Lloyd Wright: The Houses, this book features private residences by acclaimed architect Steven Holl, including four new houses built in the past five years, and many published here for the first time. Inspired by the light of the Hudson Valley, in New York—where many of these homes are built—Holl has written an insightful essay about the special relationship of light and architecture especially for this volume. The book will serve as a companion to his previous Rizzoli book Steven Holl: Architecture Spoken.

Steven Holl is the founder and principal of Steven Holl Architects in New York. Holl has won many awards, and his work has been presented at the Museum of Modern Art in New York. In 2001, France bestowed the Grande Médaille d'Or upon him, for Best Architect of the Academy of Architecture; and in the same year Time magazine declared him America's Best Architect for his "buildings that satisfy the spirit as well as the eye." Philip Jodidio has written over 90 books about contemporary architecture and art, including Tadao Ando: Venice, Tadao Ando at Naoshima, Tadao Ando: Modern Art Museum of Ft. Worth, and I. M. Pei: The Complete Works for Rizzoli.

Notes on Decor, Etc.

PAUL FORTUNE

In his first book, interior design legend Paul Fortune opens his design portfolio to share his favorite projects and his inimitable aesthetic worldview in this monograph-cum-memoir.

Arriving in Los Angeles from London during the 1970s, Paul Fortune gradually made his way as a graphic artist, art director of music videos, and even nightclub owner. But with the renovation of his own now legendary Laurel Canyon house in 1978, Fortune's career as an interior designer was born.

Fortune Design Studio, based in Los Angeles and Ojai, has been operating since 1982, enjoying the patronage of discerning clients worldwide, whose ranks include Marc Jacobs, Sofia Coppola, David Fincher, and Jeff Klein (notably the sumptuous revival of the Deco landmark Sunset Tower Hotel). Exhibiting a distinct style widely recognized for its integration of refinement with lived-in comfort, Fortune's designs are uniquely geared toward accommodating the history and material integrity of each chosen venture. In Notes on Decor, Etc., Fortune—a natural raconteur—not only documents his favorite of these timelessly elegant projects but also his life and times as a designer, an expatriate, and an Angeleno in a one-of-a-kind chronicle that Architectural Digest, in its 2018 AD100 list, describes as “A tell-all monograph-cum-memoir detailing significant projects and stories from Fortune's peregrinations through the beau monde.”

Hollywood Modern

HOUSES OF THE STARS

DESIGN • STYLE • GLAMOUR

MICHAEL STERN AND ALAN HESS

The homes of the discerning Hollywood stars, from Groucho Marx to Leonardo DiCaprio.

Hollywood Modern looks at the intersection of celebrity and design, through houses designed by great architects for their informed, trendsetting, and extremely famous clients. Included are gorgeous photos of the houses as well as little-seen informal portraits of the stars and wonderfully detailed texts that tell the story of these members of the glitterati, touching on film, fashion, architecture, and the everyday lives of legends.

Hollywood Modern touches on the many moods of modernism. From Ed Niles's house for Johnny Carson in Malibu, which creates a ficus-tree forest that extends from the garden directly into the house, to the machine-age austerity of Richard Neutra's Von Sternberg House, (later owned by The Fountainhead author Ayn Rand) to Faye Dunaway's New York City apartment, designed by Charles Gwathmey, these houses edit, rearrange, and direct our point of view much like the carefully composed version of reality we see in motion pictures.

The book features beautiful, high-glamour photographs of the celebrities (often by celebrated photographers, including Richard Avedon and Michael Childers), as well as stunning photographs of the architecture (by Julius Shulman, Ezra Stoller, Tim Street-Porter, and others). Each chapter will feature a brief biography of the celebrity whose home is shown, and an explanation and direct quotes, when available, about the celebrity's relationship with modernism plus an informative text about the architect and the architecture.

Michael Stern is an artist who creates large-scale photographic installations and author of Julius Shulman: Palm Springs. Alan Hess is the author of many books, including Palm Springs, Frank Lloyd Wright: The Houses, and Oscar Niemeyer: Houses, and numerous others. ## PROJECTS AND PROVOCATIONS

MARK FOSTER GAGE

FOREWORD BY PETER EISENMAN

INTRODUCTION BY ROBERT A.M. STERN

Gage, Yale theorist, architect, and pioneer of the digital avant-garde in architecture and design, presents here a phantasmagoria of ideas and built work in his first monograph.

Architect to Lady Gaga and Nicola Formichetti, Mark Foster Gage has spent 20 years leading the digital architectural avant-garde, pushing the boundaries of what is possible in architecture and design and exploding expectations. This volume features built and unbuilt work from around the globe, from a penthouse in downtown Manhattan to retail stores in Hong Kong. The work shown goes beyond traditional architecture to the realm of fashion and fine art, and includes Gage's celebrated Valentine's Sculpture for Times Square, a 3-D-printed outfit for Lady Gaga, as well as designs for Google Glass, Solar Flowers, and robotic tulips.

Gage, whose work Harper's Bazaar has called "effortlessly chic" and who has been labeled a "boundary breaker," is a visionary for today. Filled with surprises and creations of wonder, such as a tower for New York's 57th Street with mouthlike balconies on giant wings or a retail space bedecked with a hundred-faceted mirror, Gage's work at once challenges expectations of what architecture might be and, as well, frequently fills one with a sense of excitement. Gage's work is further elucidated in the book by the critical musings of eminent architects and cultural touchstones Peter Eisenman and Robert A.M. Stern.

Mark Foster Gage is the principal of Mark Foster Gage Architects and the assistant dean of the Yale School of Architecture. Peter Eisenman is principal of Eisenman Architects. Robert A.M. Stern is founder and senior partner in the firm of Robert A.M. Stern Architects.

Life Along the Hudson

THE HISTORIC COUNTRY ESTATES OF THE LIVINGSTON FAMILY

PIETER ESTERSON

FOREWORD BY JOHN WINTHROP ALDRICH

Award-winning architecture and interiors photographer Pieter Estersohn presents an insider's view of majestic historic houses of the Hudson River.

This scenic stretch of estates along the Hudson offers some of the finest examples of American architecture and landscape design. The edition's thirty-five featured homes were designed in a range of styles by notable architects Stanford White, A. J. Davis, Calvert Vaux, and more. All pair exquisite interiors with expansive lush lawns and riverfront views. Formerly country homes for eighteenth-century landed gentry and nineteenth-century industrialists—Astors, Chanlers, Roosevelts—they include Dutch Colonial cottages and Gothic Revival and Beaux-Arts residences. Constructed on land owned by the influential Livingston family, who settled in the area in the late seventeenth century, many have been restored to their former splendor by the original owners' descendants as well as recent leaders of industry and the arts, including Richard Jenrette and Brice Marden.

Pieter Estersohn is a renowned photographer of architecture and interiors. Author of Kentucky: Historic Houses and Horse Farms of Bluegrass Country, he is on the boards of the Historic Red Hook Advisory Council and The Friends of Clermont. John Winthrop Aldrich, a Livingston descendant, resides in Rokeby, the family's two-hundred-year-old country seat on the Hudson River. He was the former New York State Deputy Commissioner for Historic Preservation.

A Vanity Affair

THE ART OF NÉCESSAIRES

FOREWORD BY VISCOUNT LINLEY
INTRODUCTION BY DIANA SCARISBRICK
TEXTS BY CATHERINE CARIOU AND PASCALE LEPEU

This is the ultimate illustrated guide to the most exquisite vanity cases from the nineteenth century onward; an unmissable opportunity for lovers of jewelry and fashion.

This elegant and richly illustrated volume, featuring a slipcase and gilded page edges, showcases a rare private collection of vanity cases and includes an exquisite array of luxury accessories from the nineteenth century to the twentieth century. These vanity cases, carefully designed and mostly handmade, became covetable accessories with the advent of beauty products.

The vanity case, the ultimate jeweled fashion accessory, was designed and made mostly in Paris by skilled designers and craftsmen who understood that the fashionable modern woman needed a practical solution for carrying lipstick, powder compact, cigarettes, lighter, theater tickets, keys, and other small paraphernalia. Tiny, made of precious metals, including platinum and gold, with inlays of lacquer, gemstones, mother-of-pearl, jade, or enamel, these reticules took hundreds of hours of patient craftsmanship to complete.

Perfume According to Bulgari

EDITED BY SIMONE MARCHETTI
TEXTS BY ANNICK LE GUÉRER

A magnificent book on Bulgari's luxury line of fragrances exploring the intimate bonds that connect Rome, the gem roads, and the world of perfumes.

This stunning luxury book—a kind of precious atlas of fragrances—traces the origins of Bulgari's precious perfumes back to the ancient gems and spice trails and to Bulgari's fine jewelry tradition, which is deeply rooted in Roman tradition. An exclusive journey into the world of colors, jewelry, and fragrances, this elegant book tells a story that intertwines colored gems, precious essences, and the contemporary alchemies of the most famous "noses" in the world.

Sophie the Parisian

STYLE TIPS FROM A TRUE
PARISIAN WOMAN

NATHALIE PEIGNEY

Dedicated to all women who recognize Frenchwomen as genuine style models, this book is an appealing, pocket-size guide to French style and glamour, with 100 practical and concrete tips and delightful photos and sketches.

Seven years after the success of the style guide Parisian Chic by Inès de la Fressange, Sophie the Parisian offers a fresher, wider, and more varied guide to French style.

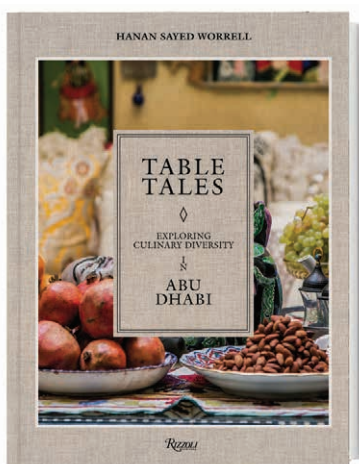

The Parisian woman is considered a female role model by definition: classical in taste, but independent and dynamic; elegant and sophisticated at times, feminine and seductive, but not vulgar; attentive to what she wears and taking care of her body, but without excessive vanity; and who has sophisticated and original but simple taste. Food lover and party-goer, she focuses on the quality of food rather than on her shape. Fond of natural beauty, and without plastic surgery, she doesn't try to hide the signs of aging, which she wears with pride.

Sophie the Parisian doesn't take herself too seriously and uses a well-balanced mix of charm, great taste, and irony—three typical traits of the modern French woman—to cover topics ranging from fashion to the well-being of the body, from looks to health, from cooking to decoration: everything that makes the French joie de vivre a role-model lifestyle worldwide.

Nathalie Peigney holds a master's degree in business administration and management, as well as one in marketing from the Institut Français de la Mode. She embarked on a journey in the fashion industry and launched her own brand in Paris. Today, she is a marketing consultant and journalist specializing in luxury products, male fashion, and French gastronomy. She also has a blog, Sophie the Parisian, where eight of her girlfriends and a male friend discuss the Ville Lumière and Parisian life.

Giuseppe Penone

THE INNER LIFE OF FORMS

EDITED BY CARLOS BASUALDO WITH ESSAYS BY EMILY BRAUN, TIMOTHY INGOLD, RÉMI LABRUSSE, AND SALVATORE SETTIS; CONVERSATION BETWEEN GIUSEPPE PENONE AND CARLOS BASUALDO; AND TEXTS BY DANIELA LANCIONI AND THE ARTIST

This monograph is the most comprehensive survey of Giuseppe Penone's work to date.

In a monumental oeuvre spanning more than forty years, Penone has explored and expanded our understanding of what constitutes sculpture through the interplay between the human body, nature, and art. His work represents a poetic expansion of Post-Minimalism's, and specifically, Arte Povera's radical break with conventional media, emphasizing the transformative logic involved in the processes of respiration, growth, and aging that are common to all living beings.

Housed in a box, the four new essays and conversation are collected in one volume, while twelve insightful texts investigate the main typologies that can be found as organizing principles in the work.

STREETLAMPS

TEXTS BY RUSSELL FERGUSON, CHRISTOPHER BEDFORD, AND GEORGE ROBERTS; CONVERSATION BETWEEN MICHAEL GOVAN AND CHRIS BURDEN; PHOTO ESSAY BY ARI MARCOPOULOS

This is Gagosian's 500th book. It fittingly marks the achievement, as Chris Burden was among the first artists to work with Larry Gagosian. Chris Burden: Streetlamps is the definitive publication on Burden's iconic series.

Chris Burden: Streetlamps explores the artist's work with antique streetlamps, which he began to amass in the early 2000s. Burden fully restored 202 streetlamps from the 1920s to create his renowned Urban Light, which was acquired by the Los Angeles County Museum of Art. He realized four more major streetlamp sculptures in both public and private spaces, all of which are lavishly documented here from conception through installation.

TEXTS BY PAUL HILLS AND NOAH DILLON, AND A CONVERSATION BETWEEN BRICE MARDEN, GARY HUME, AND TIM MARLOW

This catalogue marks Brice Marden's first exhibition in London since 2000 and is notable for his in-depth exploration of multiple varieties of terre verte.

Brice Marden has furthered the traditions of abstraction with his exploration of surface, material, and color, from his early monochromatic work to his more recent calligraphic compositions. In this body of work, Marden has turned his attention again to the qualities of monochrome, exploring the possibilities of terre verte (green earth), an iron silicate/clay pigment, which came into use during the Renaissance. The catalogue highlights ten new, identically sized paintings measuring eight by six feet, employing ten different brands of terre verte oil paint in order to explore variations in hue and chromatic nuances.

He has written several books on light, color, and veils in Renaissance art. Noah Dillon is a writer who lives and works in New York. Gary Hume is an artist who lives and works in London and Accord, New York. Tim Marlow is Artistic Director of the Royal Academy of Arts, London.

The Worlds of Joaquín Torres-García

ABIGAIL MCEWEN, TOMÀS LLORENS, AND FREDERIC TUTEN

One of the most revered Latin American artists of the early twentieth century, best known for his abstract and primitive paintings, with key works from private collections published for the first time.

With 70 paintings, sculptures, and works on paper, this is the largest survey of Torres-García's work to be on view in an American gallery since Joaquín Torres-García curated his own exhibition at the Sidney Janis Gallery in 1950. The book includes previously unpublished texts by the artist and iconic works that were kept by the family as representative examples of different moments in his career, first by the artist and later by family members who inherited them as a group. Torres-García founded the avant-garde group Circle and Square (Arp, Kandinsky, Léger, Mondrian), where he was inspired by indigenous art from the Americas, Africa, and Oceania, which reinforced his vision of symbols and cosmic order.

James Rosenquist

THIS AMERICAN LIFE

CHARLES BAXTER AND JUDITH GOLDMAN

A fresh look at this giant of 1960s Pop Art—featuring his billboard-sized images of commercial subjects and combining his eye of an advertising man and the heart of a Pop artist.

James Rosenquist adapted the visual language of advertising and pop culture (often funny, vulgar, and outrageous) to the context of fine art. An informative essay by art historian Judith Goldman examines the influence of Rosenquist's early days as a billboard painter, his early themes and techniques, and his similarities and differences with other Pop artists like Andy Warhol and Roy Lichtenstein. Goldman focuses on Rosenquist as a history painter who captured what he saw in the world around him, rather than just under the Pop label.

For any collector of American art, this gives attention to Rosenquist's singular achievement in American art during these three decades.

California Landscapes

RICHARD DIEBENKORN | WAYNE THIEBAUD

JOHN YAU

INTERVIEW WITH PHILIPPE DE MONTEBELLO AND WAYNE THIEBAUD

A must-have for anyone interested in these two beloved West Coast artists, best known for their geometric abstractions of the California landscape.

Featuring the pairings of more than 50 paintings, this book shows the connection of these two artists like never before. Richard Diebenkorn and Wayne Thiebaud were close friends; they shared the inspiration of California and experimented with perspective to capture their surroundings.

The book presents important examples from Diebenkorn's Berkeley series in addition to several works from the artist's Ocean Park series. Inspired by the environs of the Ocean Park neighborhood in Santa Monica, where he lived at this time, these works from the 1960s are characterized by geometric abstractions of subtle line and suffused with Californian luminosity. Wayne Thiebaud began producing landscapes in the 1960s, experimenting with perspective to capture his Californian surroundings. Included are his works from the early 1970s through 2017, including his dramatic depictions of San Francisco, flattened aerial views of the Sacramento River Delta, and close-ups and cross-section views of mountains and beaches.

John Yau has published more than fifty books of poetry, fiction, and art criticism. He teaches at the Mason Gross School of the Arts at Rutgers University. Philippe de Montebello is a director of Acquavella Galleries in New York, focusing on special exhibitions and publications. # Leonardo da Vinci

A LIFE IN DRAWING

MARTIN CLAYTON

Leonardo da Vinci's drawings reveal the genius of the Renaissance master.

Among the most famous artists and thinkers of all time, Leonardo da Vinci had interests that ranged from painting, sculpture, architecture, and music to anatomy, engineering, cartography, geology, and botany. It is primarily through his drawings and writings that we can begin to understand Leonardo's diverse creative and technical achievements. This collection of 200 drawings represents the finest of an extraordinary set which has remained intact since the artist's death in 1519, and has been part of the Royal Collection since the seventeenth century.

Though he created two of the world's most celebrated works—The Last Supper (c. 1494–8) and Mona Lisa (c. 1503–18)—Leonardo produced relatively few paintings. The studies, sketches, and notes reproduced here are instead the primary means through which the artist's pioneering research is known. With a directness that no other medium allows, drawings let us look on as Leonardo explores the subtleties of muscle movements, the minute form of a flower, the most delicate of half-smiles, and the power of nature.

In February 2019, to mark the 500th anniversary of Leonardo's death, a selection of the greatest drawings in the Royal Collection will appear in twelve simultaneous exhibitions across the United Kingdom. Thereafter, larger exhibitions will take place at The Queen's Gallery, Buckingham Palace, London, starting in May 2019; and at The Queen's Gallery, Palace of Holyroodhouse in November 2019, the largest group of Leonardo's works ever shown in Scotland.

Martin Clayton is Head of Prints and Drawings for Royal Collection Trust at Windsor Castle and a specialist in the drawings of Leonardo da Vinci. His recent publications include Portrait of the Artist and Castiglione: Lost Genius.

The Family of Hummingbirds

THE COMPLETE PRINTS OF
JOHN GOULD

JOEL AND LAURA OPPENHEIMER
PREFACE BY ROBERT PECK

Perfect for art and bird lovers alike, the definitive collection of hummingbird illustrations by 19th-century naturalist painter John Gould, the “British Audubon.”

The sublime collection of 418 superbly detailed lithographs of hummingbirds, created in the mid-1800s, represents all the known species on the planet at the time and is the most complete ever produced. Like Audubon, Gould depicted the birds as they are in life, in their native habitats, which was a revolutionary approach at the time. Yet unlike Audubon, Gould traveled widely across the globe, and the exquisite hummingbirds he painted hail from the most remote and exotic ecosystems in the world.

In their essay for the book, cowriters Joel and Laura Oppenheimer tell the story of Gould's colorful life and place his work in the context of the times, when exploration of science and the world's natural wonders was at an all-time high. The Family of Hummingbirds will delight bird-watching hobbyists, fans of naturalist historical prints, and especially lovers of the avian Tinker Bell.

Joel and Laura Oppenheimer are the owners of Oppenheimer Gallery, established in 1969, that serves as gallery and art-restoration laboratory; it is also one of the country's preeminent dealers of original Audubon works and facsimile prints. Robert Peck is curator of art and artifacts and senior fellow of the Academy of Natural Sciences at Drexel University.

THIRTEEN ARTISTS EXPLORE
NATURE'S LIMITS

SUZANNE RAMLJAK
INTERVIEW BETWEEN MARK DION AND
ALEXIS ROCKMAN

Artists such as Maya Lin, Roxy Paine, and Dustin Yellin show the impact of human intervention on our ecosystem through a mix of installations, video, photography, and sculpture.

Natural Wonders spotlights the works of thirteen artists who work in various media to depict themes of nature—both its beauty and its more disquieting aspects—from painting and sculpture to 3-D landscapes and botanical replications to dioramas and lenticular prints. The range of works encourages us to be more attentive to our natural surroundings and address timely issues such as habitat loss, environmental toxins, bioengineering, and increasing alienation from nature. Suzanne Ramljak's essay provides a broad cultural and historical context for the contemporary artworks, complemented by artist statements and an interview between environmentally minded artists Mark Dion and Alexis Rockman.

Suzanne Ramljak, a writer, curator, and art historian, currently serves as a curator at the American Federation of Arts. She was formerly editor of Sculpture and Metalsmith magazines. Mark Dion is a contemporary visual artist who produces work on the topic of the culture of nature. Alexis Rockman is an artist whose works depict future ecosystems impacted by climate change and genetically modified organisms.

MACIEJUNES, DREW SAWYER, AND DAVID STARK

The first survey of the visual art of the Harlem Renaissance in twenty years features the most celebrated African-American artists, from Romare Bearden to James Van Der Zee.

I Too Sing America celebrates the visual art and material culture of the Harlem Renaissance, illuminating the lives of its people, the art, the literature, the music, and the social history—through paintings, prints, photography, sculpture, and contemporary documents and ephemera. Included are paintings by cherished artists such as Elizabeth Catlett, Aaron Douglas, Palmer Hayden, William H. Johnson, Jacob Lawrence, and Archibald Motley.

The culmination of decades of reflection, research, and scholarship, the text is by Wil Haygood, acclaimed biographer and preeminent scholar on Harlem and its cultural history. ## Tara Donovan: Fieldwork

NORA BURNETT ABRAMS

CONTRIBUTIONS BY GIULIANA BRUNO
AND JENNI SORKIN

Tara Donovan's sculptures and installations are mind-bending experiences: she transforms common everyday materials like straws and index cards, turning them into elaborate, room-size sculptures that are as surreal as they are beautiful.

MacArthur "genius" grant recipient Tara Donovan's otherworldly sculptures have transfixed audiences for over a decade. Taking mundane materials and through clever craftsmanship, ingenuity, and repeated manipulation, the artist builds large-scale works made of rubber bands, plastic tubing, and paper plates into objects that evoke the natural world or other organic material. This volume—which accompanies a major retrospective exhibition—features an expansive selection of her most impressive and important works to date, spanning ten years.

Curator Nora Burnett Abrams, along with several other leading scholars of contemporary art, consider critical issues around her work: ideas related to labor and process, and the interplay between ethereality and monumentality, among other key themes. The book looks at several major bodies of work realized in different formats and different settings, affording the reader a glimpse into the important themes and visual languages the artist continuously explores.

Nora Burnett Abrams, PhD, is curator at MCA Denver. Prior to MCA Denver, she worked at the Museum of Modern Art, The Metropolitan Museum of Art, and the Grey Art Gallery at New York University. Giuliana Bruno is the Emmet Blakeney Gleason Professor of Visual and Environmental Studies at Harvard University. Jenni Sorkin is an art historian, critic, and Assistant Professor of Contemporary Art History at the University of California, Santa Barbara. Tara Donovan creates large-scale installations and sculptures made from everyday objects. For over a decade, numerous museums have mounted solo exhibitions of Donovan's work, including the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Hammer Museum, and Corcoran Gallery of Art.

CONTRIBUTIONS BY HILTON ALS, CHARLES GAINES, RACHEL KAADZI GHANSAH, SARAH LEWIS, AND ZADIE SMITH

Legendary artist Henry Taylor's first major monograph chronicles his life and work—the "visual equivalent of the blues."

This definitive survey of over 200 of the painter's portraits and street scenes forms a personal and political portrait of society today. For three decades, the iconic artist has worked his way through New York, Los Angeles, Europe, and Africa, documenting what he sees. In his circle are artists, musicians, writers, and performers, as well as friends from his ten years as a psychiatric technician. It is the artist's empathetic eye that allows him to imagine his figures with authenticity and grace—not better than they are, or more glamorous—but part of a big, complicated world. Flat, brushy flows of color cast figures that often float in surreal landscapes abstracted from the barbeque in the park or neighboring street.

Suites of Taylor's paintings are reproduced alongside handwritten accounts of the sittings, offering an in-depth understanding of the artist's world. Contributions by Hilton Als, Charles Gaines, Rachel Kaadzi Ghansah, Sarah Lewis, and Zadie Smith touch on the nature of truth, Matisse's concept of original naïveté, and the state of the subject. This definitive monograph celebrates Taylor's direct and revealing portraits, offering a tonic to a divisive cultural moment in time.

Martin Margiela

THE WOMEN'S COLLECTIONS
1989–2009

ALEXANDRE SAMSON

INTRODUCTION BY OLIVIER SAILLARD

A breathtaking survey of 20 years of fashion designs by Martin Margiela.

Timed to coincide with a major exhibition, this volume revisits the years during which celebrated designer Martin Margiela achieved the status as one of the most important designers at work today. One of the “Antwerp Six” who changed the face of contemporary fashion, Margiela created 41 runway shows between 1989 and 2009 which promoted a unique vision of understated luxury—monochromes, oversize volumes, and his signature “constructed-deconstructed” cuts—whose credo is comfort, timelessness, sensuality, and authenticity.

Famously reclusive, Margiela never showed his face even at his own shows to ensure the work could stand purely on its own, free from any link to celebrity or self-promotion. This volume chronicles these amazing fashion shows in careful detail: the extraordinary spaces, the music, the designer’s intentions, the iconic pieces. Over the years, recurring motifs and inspirations become more apparent, including anonymity, whiteness, past and anteriority, and diversion. The book reveals the sensitive, poetic, and incredibly innovative universe of this most influential contemporary fashion designer.

Alexandre Samson is a curator and manages the Palais Galliera contemporary collections. Olivier Saillard is a noted fashion historian and author and was the director of the Palais Galliera from 2010 until 2017. He is currently artistic director of J.M. Weston, a men’s luxury shoe brand.

MIRROR MIRROR

RYAN MCGINLEY

CONTRIBUTION BY CARLO MCCORMICK

Ryan McGinley, one of the most important photographers of his generation, asks his friends and colleagues to take the camera into their own hands. Following instructions given to them by the artist, a group of individuals explore their own image.

Ryan McGinley, since the earliest days of his unparalleled career, has chronicled his friends and cohorts. Whether on the now legendary annual road trips he has organized with a large coterie of twentysomethings documenting summertime exploits or documenting the early gritty years in downtown New York, McGinley is known as the consummate storyteller about freedom and abandon of youth. A few years ago, however, he wanted to challenge his creative habits and asked more than one hundred of his friends and colleagues—guided by detailed instructions and a camera given to them by the artist—to take nude self-portraits using mirrors and other props. Though related to the ubiquitous selfie, the participants didn't have the benefit of seeing the image before they clicked the shutter. Furthermore, McGinley would make the selection of the final image to represent the photo session. The experiment yielded scores of intimate and psychologically revealing photos that—even though not done by his own hand—bear some signature McGinley flourishes in their emotional depth and resonance.

Ryan McGinley is an acclaimed photographer who began taking photographs in 1998. In 2003, at the age of 25, McGinley became one of the youngest artists to have a solo show at the Whitney Museum of American Art in New York. In 2007, he received the Young Photographer Infinity Award from the International Center of Photography. His work has been shown in numerous galleries and museums internationally, and is collected by the Guggenheim Museum, New York, the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, and the Whitney Museum of American Art. Carlo McCormick is a New York-based curator and writer.

Larry Bell

ESSAY BY ROBIN CLARK
 INTERVIEW BY CLIFF LAUSON

The first definitive monograph on the work of the sculptor and painter Larry Bell, icon of the Light and Space movement and one of the great living American artists.

Having emerged as a star of the Light and Space movement in the late 1950s—alongside contemporaries such as Robert Irwin, John McCracken, and James Turrell—Larry Bell remains one of the most influential living American artists.

From his earliest monochrome paintings in the 1950s to the glass cubes and standing glass-panel sculptures of the 1960s and 1970s to his experimentation with vapor drawings in the 1980s and his recent “mirage works” and “light knot” sculptures, Bell’s career is a beautiful exploration of the properties of light on surfaces. Collecting works on paper as well as glass and metal sculptures, this comprehensive book reflects Bell’s extraordinary attention to materials and his dual interest in two- and three-dimensional forms. With an essay by Robin Clark and an interview conducted by Cliff Lauson—and drawing on rarely published writings by the artist himself—this is the definitive survey of Larry Bell’s career.

Larry Bell was born in 1939 and lives and works between Los Angeles and Taos, NM. His work has been exhibited around the world, from Tate Britain to the Whitney Museum of American Art. Robin Clark is a writer, curator, art historian, and director of the Artist Initiative at SFMoMA. Cliff Lauson is Curator at the Hayward Gallery, Southbank Centre, in London.

Friedrich Kunath

I DON'T WORRY ANYMORE

TEXTS BY FRIEDRICH KUNATH, JAMES ELKINS, AND ARIANA REINES

The first major monograph devoted to the witty paintings and sculpture of Los Angeles-based artist Friedrich Kunath.

From his precipitous rise in the late 1990s and early 2000s, Friedrich Kunath’s stock-in-trade has been making art that beautifully and lyrically combines the experience of the ordinary with the sublime. In the first major monograph devoted to the last 15 years of his work, the reader sees how the artist poignantly yet playfully distills the fundamentals of human emotion—desire, loneliness, and anxiety—creating comically tragic scenes in which human beings try to find their way in the world. Shifting easily between genres and modes of making—from painting to installation and even video—the work always maintains his signature wit and humor, laced with melancholy.

Organized thematically rather than chronologically, the artist has considered the ideas that run throughout his oeuvre and offers new insights by gathering works across media connected conceptually in ten chapters. Art historian James Elkins offers a more experimental approach to art history writing in his essay on the artist’s installation and video works and their use of appropriation. Ariana Reines contributes a poem inspired by Kunath’s work.

Friedrich Kunath is a Los Angeles-based artist. James Elkins is E.C. Chadbourne Professor in the Department of Art History, Theory, and Criticism, School of the Art Institute of Chicago. His most recent book is What Photography Is. Ariana Reines is a New York-based poet and writer.

Daniel Arsham

VIRGIL ABLOH AND STEVEN MATIJCIO
INTERVIEW WITH HANS ULRICH OBRIST
AND DANIEL ARSHAM

The first comprehensive monograph on artist Daniel Arsham's genre-bending world.

Daniel Arsham mines lusted-after consumer goods and iconic imagery to create his conceptual objects and sculptures. The artist then casts and refinishes his work to imitate the effects of erosion and subsidence, creating monuments to our present obsessions, as if the objects were rescued from Pompeii. That same impulse toward excavation animates many of his installations, which range from layered broken walls to geode-filled caverns to melting portals. From room-collapsing environmental installations for today's leading brands and museums to elaborate set design for classical dance, Arsham twists elements of architecture to create immersive aesthetic experiences that appeal to the divided attentions of a contemporary audience.

Presented as an induction manual to Arsham's covetable world, the book will provide a complete overview of his practice. Virgil Abloh discusses Arsham's contribution to a post-media artistic landscape, a thread developed by Hans Ulrich Obrist in a conversation with the artist that traces art-historical precedents. Steven Matijcio will discuss the artist's projects and collaborations, which range from sets for Merce Cunningham's dance company to clothes and sneakers with streetwear icons Ronnie Fieg and Adidas to projects with James Franco and Pharrell Williams and films with Mahershala Ali.

Virgil Abloh is an American designer, DJ, and stylist who came to prominence as Kanye West's creative director. He has since made waves in the fashion world with his luxury streetwear label, Off-White. Steven Matijcio is a curator at the Contemporary Art Center, Cincinnati. Hans Ulrich Obrist is an art curator, critic, and historian of art. ## Anne Brigman

A VISIONARY IN MODERN PHOTOGRAPHY

ANN M. WOLFE, SUSAN EHRENS,
ALEXANDER NEMEROV, KATHLEEN PYNE,
AND HEATHER WALDROUP

A much-anticipated look at one of the first feminist artists, best known for her iconic landscape photographs made in the early 1900s depicting female nudes outdoors in rugged Northern California.

This monumental publication rediscovers and celebrates the work of Anne Brigman, whose photography was considered radical for its time. For Brigman to objectify her own nude body as the subject of her photographs at the turn of the twentieth century was groundbreaking; to do so outdoors in a near-desolate wilderness setting was revolutionary. Brigman's significance spanned both coasts: in Northern California, where she lived, she was known as a poet, a critic, and a member of the Pictorialist photography movement. On the East Coast, her work was promoted by Alfred Stieglitz, who elected her as a fellow of the prestigious Photo-Secession.

The special deluxe packaging for this publication includes a box containing two volumes: one large book is devoted to Brigman's entire career, covering such topics as Brigman's work within the contexts of the California Arts & Crafts movement and New York Modernism, and the relevance of her work to contemporary conversations regarding gendered landscapes of the American frontier. Also included is a smaller book with Brigman's poetry and reproductions of Brigman's original Songs of a Pagan.

Roxy Paine

ESSAYS BY MARC MAYER AND TAN LIN

Sculptor Roxy Paine's installations can feel like a cross between an alien landscape or a mad scientist's laboratory: from life-size stainless-steel trees that seem postapocalyptic to large-scale dioramas with skewed perspectives which are as disorienting as they are fascinating.

This comprehensive monograph expertly surveys nearly 20 years of artist Roxy Paine's work. Known for bringing together science and the natural world, Paine's surreal and sometimes eerie work has garnered him an elevated place in the pantheon of uber-creative artists who create their own fantastical universes.

Paine divides his work into several revealing categories: "Art Making Machines," odd mini-factories that produce works of art; "Replicants," replicas of flora and fungi made out of industrial materials; "Fungal Fields," painterly compositions of his fungi sculptures; "Specimen Cases," vitrines filled with his fungal and floral replicas; and perhaps his most well-known and beloved body of work, "Dendroids," which are metal treelike forms. Through these industrial-natural visions, Paine reveals the horror—and wonder—when science and nature collide.

In this major monograph—the first in nearly a decade—Marc Mayer (who is Director of the National Gallery of Canada) provides a broad overview of the artist's work up to the most current work the artist created in 2017. Tan Lin, noted poet and writer, illuminates several aspects of Paine's complex and deeply resonant work and ideas through an experimental piece of writing.

Marc Mayer has been director of the National Gallery of Canada since 2008. Tan Lin is an American poet, author, filmmaker, and professor. He is most notably recognized for his work in "ambient" literature, a style that draws on and samples source material from popular culture. Roxy Paine has been exhibited internationally and is in major public and private collections, including the Museum of Modern Art; the Museum of Contemporary Art, Los Angeles; San Francisco Museum of Modern Art; and the Israel Museum, Jerusalem, among many others.

Frederic Church's Olana on the Hudson

ART • LANDSCAPE • ARCHITECTURE

EDITED BY JULIA B. ROSENBAUM AND
KAREN ZUKOWSKI
PHOTOGRAPHY BY LARRY LEDERMAN

An in-depth look inside Olana, one of America's greatest estates, which was designed and built by Frederic Church, the most renowned of the Hudson River School painters.

Frederic Church, a major figure in the much-loved group of artists known as the Hudson River School, made his name as a painter of monumental landscapes in the mid-1800s, helping to develop our vision of landscape and shaping the cultural identity of America. He applied his artistic talent to the house and property that he named Olana, known today as Olana State Historic Site and located in the heart of the beautiful Hudson River Valley.

The 250-acre naturalistic landscape surrounding the house is a work of art in itself, and the magnificent views of the Hudson River were an essential part of Church's composition, which he carefully designed with an artist's eye to the property's 360-degree views of neighboring hills, valleys, and distant mountains.

Spectacular photography of Olana is featured alongside Church's most famous paintings, and the accompanying essays offer insight into the painter's inspirations and motivations, illuminating not only the site he created but also his work as one of this country's greatest artists.

Rosenbaum is a professor of art history and faculty of the American Studies Program at Bard. Karen Zukowski is an art historian specializing in late-nineteenth-century American fine and decorative arts. Larry Lederman is a photographer and a member of the board of the Olana Partnership.

Monsters and Myths

SURREALISM AND WAR IN THE 1930s AND 1940s

EDITED BY OLIVER SHELL AND
OLIVER TOSTMANN
ESSAYS BY ROBIN ADÈLE GREELEY, SAMANTHA KAVKY, OLIVER SHELL, AND
OLIVER TOSTMANN

This revelatory survey of Surrealist masterworks of the 1930s and 1940s by artists such as Salvador Dalí, Joan Miró, Max Ernst, and André Masson presents the movement through a new and timely lens—that of war, violence, and exile.

During the pivotal years between the world wars, Surrealist artists on both sides of the Atlantic responded through their works to the rise of Hitler and the spread of Fascism in Europe, resulting in a period of surprising brilliance and fertility. Monstrosities in the real world bred monsters in paintings and sculpture, on film, and in the pages of journals and artists' books.

Despite the political and personal turmoil brought on by the Spanish Civil War and World War II, avant-garde artists in Europe and those who sought refuge in the United States pushed themselves to create some of the most potent and striking images of the Surrealist movement. Trailblazing essays by experts in the field trace the experimental and international extent of Surrealist art during these years—and, perhaps most unexpectedly of all, its irrepressible beauty.

Italian Frescoes

FROM GIOTTO TO TIEPOLO: THE GREAT PICTORIAL CYCLES

CURATED BY TOMASO MONTANARI

A tribute to the excellence of Italian frescoes in a large-format volume, featuring the paintings in extraordinary detail—a prestigious volume for the art lover's library.

Between the fourteenth and the eighteenth centuries, the art of fresco painting was to be found across all regions of Italy. This volume aims to illustrate the most significant periods still visible today in churches, convents, and in the palaces of the Italian courts, as well as in the villas of the enlightened aristocracy. Starting with Giotto, the great pictorial cycles from across the centuries—the fourteenth century, the golden centuries of the Renaissance, the Baroque, and the Venetian eighteenth century—are all presented in stunning reproductions. The high-quality images are displayed full-page, along with several close-ups that allow the reader to observe details of the artwork in a way that, in reality, would be close to impossible, as many frescoes are painted on inaccessible walls, vaults, and domes.

An introduction written by a well-known historian of Italian art narrates how the art of fresco painting originated and developed in Italy. Each period is also briefly introduced by a historical-artistic fact sheet.

Tomaso Montanari is an art historian who specializes in the baroque period. Formerly a pupil of Paola Barocchi at the Scuola Normale di Pisa, he is a professor at the University of Naples. As a columnist for several Italian newspapers, Montanari is one of today's most influential and original voices in the debate on artistic heritage and the preservation of the Italian territory.

For anyone who is passionate about wildlife, this bucket list offers around-the-world listings of ways to experience animals and birds in their natural habitats. Fun, life-affirming activities are the focus: from action-packed adventures (camel trekking in Jordan, riding among mustangs in the American West) to more relaxing experiences (savoring the peace of the Costa Rican cloud forest or floating among corals in the Maldives).

Each activity is location-specific and geographically unique—whale watching in Canada, bathing with snow monkeys in Japan, feeding elephants in Thailand. The book also addresses the issues facing vulnerable and endangered species and suggests ways that travelers can help. Conservation-themed adventures include working as a Giant Panda keeper in China, caring for wounded rhinos in South Africa, volunteering at an endangered orangutan rescue in Indonesia, and guarding baby turtles in Costa Rica as they make their way from beach to ocean.

Everyone has lifelong dreams of experiences they yearn to have, and this bucket list provides all the inspiration and practical advice necessary for the seasoned globe-trotter or armchair traveler alike.

Choose Your Wine in Seven Seconds

INSTANTLY UNDERSTAND ANY WINE WITH CONFIDENCE

EDITED BY STÉPHANE ROSA
ILLUSTRATIONS BY JESS GRINNEISER

For anyone who feels intimidated in a wineshop—vast selection, mystifying variety, attitudinal staff—this guide simplifies choosing wine in an easy-to-use system of pictograms.

With this innovative book, browsing and buying wine is transformed into a fun, positive experience, empowering anyone to understand at a glance which bottle is the right choice when taking into account budget, occasion, and personal taste.

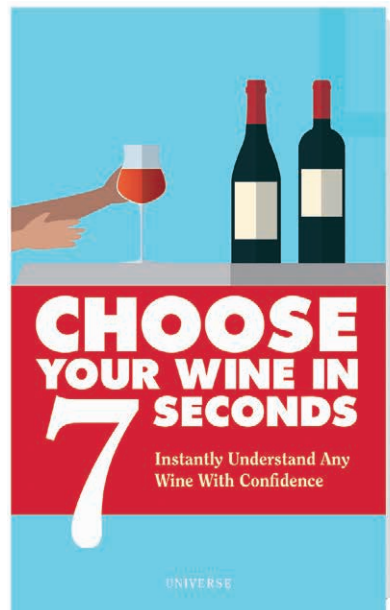

Featuring an infographic, user-friendly, intuitive approach that minimizes impressionistic, flowery descriptions by using pictograms to navigate wine selection, this book is full of information and encouragement—a smart “life hack” zeroing in on 300 of the world’s most widely available bottles. Each profile also points the reader to several similar wines in an “if you like this, you will also like that” feature that actually increases the number of wines covered to almost 1,500 varieties.

The book works by first organizing wines into flavor families. Within a family, individual wines are profiled in pictograms and graphs keying out important characteristics: region of origin, grape variety, mouthfeel, flavor portrait (showing levels of alcohol, acidity, and tannins), price range, ideal serving temperature, best age range, and finally food pairings.

Stéphane Rosa is a leading French wine expert who is the director of Guide Hachette des Vins—considered the bible of the French wine trade—which has been published annually since 1985. Jess Grinneiser is a Paris-based illustrator.

100 BIKE TOURS OF THE WORLD'S MOST BREATHTAKING PLACES TO PEDAL

CLAUDE DROUSSENT

Dramatic and panoramic, these are the best routes to ride on two wheels whether you are a passionate newbie or a seasoned pro.

Discover the best places to bike in this carefully curated guide to seeing the world on two wheels. Organized by terrain—urban, mountain, on-road, scenic—each tour was constructed by leading French cycling expert Claude Droussent who cofounded L'Étape du Tour which is an organized mass-participation event that allows amateur cyclists to race over the same route as the Tour de France on the tour's official rest days.

From family-friendly urban-sightseeing tours to epic rides off the beaten track, the destinations featured here range from easy bike tours of Paris to more challenging adventures in diverse locales like Utah's Zion National Park, the Ecuadorean Andes, or Mt. Snowdon in Wales. Included also are some of the world's favorite cycling destinations: Normandy's lush countryside, the historic Hudson River Trail, an exotic Phnom Penh-to-Laos trail along the Mekong River. Explore the hills of Tuscany with stops for regional cuisine and great art and architecture, or soak up the local color on the Bolivia-to-Peru loop along the shores of Lake Titicaca. Each tour comes fully illustrated including details about length, estimated duration, elevation, difficulty, and points of interest.

Apples

SIXTY CLASSIC AND INNOVATIVE RECIPES FOR NATURE'S MOST SUBLIME FRUIT

CHRISTOPHE ADAM

Just in time for autumn's bounty of apples, this collection of easy-to-follow sweet and savory recipes by a renowned French chef is a feast for all the senses.

Perfect for anyone who has just gotten a bushel of apples at the farmer's market or from their CSA without knowing exactly how to use them all, this mix of traditional and classic recipes is both adventurous and innovative. Each recipe comes with precise instructions and detailed photography by master chef Christophe Adam—ideal for anyone looking to broaden their repertoire and expand the possibilities of cooking and baking with apples.

Adam explains all types of apples and their stunning range of colors, textures, and tastes. Also included are detailed descriptions of thirty-seven heirloom and modern apple varieties. Recipes span the spectrum from breakfast to dinner to dessert, making this useful for the novice as well as the seasoned cook.

PARISIAN CHIC AT HOME

INES DE LA FRESSANGE AND MARIN MONTAGUT

A duo of high-profile tastemakers invite readers inside fifteen homes that are infused with the blend of vintage and contemporary style that is the essence of Parisian chic.

Style icon Ines de la Fressange and globe-trotting artist Marin Montagut share a uniquely Parisian sensibility for interiors that combine a variety of design traditions into a harmonious living space.

With extensive photographs, watercolor illustrations, mood boards, color palettes, and practical advice on the indispensable objects that personalize each maison, this exquisite volume is rich in inspiration for creating Parisian chic at home.

Natural materials—wood, wicker, bamboo, cotton, and linen—create warmth and personality. Vintage suitcases, vegetable crates, and jewel-toned pharmaceutical jars transform into charming storage containers. Embroidered cushions, terrariums, and fresh flowers enliven a room with pops of color. Collages, original art, or humble objects displayed in a series add a signature style to each residence.

The authors take readers inside fifteen Parisian apartments—including their own—that demonstrate how to imbue a home with a sense of well-being through a mix of vintage and contemporary styles. Each owner is passionate about home decor—whether in a studio, loft, or duplex—and they continually evolve their interior with new treasures uncovered in flea markets, on their travels, at design fairs, or in artisanal workshops.

In all areas—from fashion to cuisine to the art of seduction—Parisians reign supreme in their ability to enjoy life to the fullest. So why do we love to hate the French, yet still covet their singular joie de vivre?

A duo of savvy authors breaks it down for readers by dividing the French into relatable “tribes”—each of which offers keys to a life well-led. ## Villa Balbiano

ITALIAN OPULENCE ON LAKE COMO

RUBEN MODIGLIANI

PHOTOGRAPHS BY BRUNO EHRS

Jacques Garcia's meticulous restoration of Villa Balbiano, a magnificent Italian architectural masterpiece with a centuries-long history.

Esteemed interior architect Jacques Garcia has undertaken painstaking restoration work at Villa Balbiano that combines a stunning array of precious materials and a world-class collection of paintings and antique furnishings set against the backdrop of the original design that had been obscured over the centuries.

From its prominent position on Lake Como, Villa Balbiano radiates a majestic charm emblematic of the most splendid chapter in the history of great villas in the idyllic Italian region. Each successive owner added to the splendor of the villa through additions, new frescoes and statues, and increasingly extensive and sumptuous gardens, which were distinguished by the Society of Garden Designers for best historic garden restoration in 2018. The villa's history reached an acme at the end of the eighteenth century, when the enlightened Cardinal Angelo Maria Durini, as master of the house, transformed Villa Balbiano into a crucible of philosophy and art, framed within the villa's archetypal Roman lines.

Garcia's glorious new restoration inaugurates a new season in the life of the villa in one of the world's most glamorous locations.

CASA LOPEZ

PIERRE SAUVAGE WITH FABIENNE REYBAUD
PHOTOGRAPHY BY VINCENT THIBERT
FOREWORD BY MICHAEL S. SMITH

Pierre Sauvage, designer of luxury homewares and interiors, brings the reader inside his French homes—both urban and country—providing inspiration and advice for creating effortlessly elegant interiors and garden spaces.

Against the backdrop of his exceptional homes in France, Pierre Sauvage—owner and art director of Casa Lopez, the legendary Parisian housewares firm whose stylish furnishings feature exceptional hand-craft produced in France, Spain, Italy, and Portugal—showcases his very personal and contemporary style of decorating and entertaining. His striking use of color and textures sets the tone for each room and serves as a counterpoint to his playful matchings of materials and patterns, which work equally well in his Parisian apartment, rustic farmhouse in Normandy, and stone summer home in Provence. With discriminating taste, Sauvage pairs modern furniture with singular antiques. From bold interiors to elegant outdoor spaces, each home is infused with his connoisseur's eye for refined details.

Stunning photography commissioned for this book under Sauvage's art direction provides inspiration for interiors that exude a charm and elegance that is decidedly contemporary, yet conveys the timeless allure of a home that has been passed down over generations. A dozen recipes for entertaining with style complete the volume.

Château de Villette

THE SPLENDOR OF FRENCH DECOR

GUILLAUME PICON, PHOTOGRAPHY BRUNO EHRS, DRAWINGS BY BERND H. DAMS AND ANDREW ZEGA

This intimate tour provides a lesson from Jacques Garcia in the art and technique of historic house and garden restoration.

The Château de Villette, situated in a lush woodland near Paris, has been an oasis of art and beauty since its construction (1663–69) according to François Mansart's plans. Among its prestigious owners was Sophie de Grouchy, wife of the Marquis de Condorcet. As leading political actors of their era, she and her husband hosted some of the most intellectually influential salons of the prerevolutionary period for an international elite that included Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin, and Thomas Paine. The Marquis de Lafayette was a witness at the couple's wedding at Villette in 1786.

New owners have commissioned Jacques Garcia to restore the house and gardens to their idyllic former glory. Presented here for the first time, the result is a veritable museum of French craftsmanship, with interiors featuring fabulous silks and passementeries, as well as eighteenth-century paintings, decorative arts, and furniture. The original stone features and elegant trumeaux and boiseries of the château's historic dining room have been restored to their initial splendor. Villette's austere elegant facade houses an octagonal grand salon that gives way to magical vistas of formal gardens inspired by Le Nôtre, cascading fountains, reflecting pools, and eighteenth-century sculptures, sphinxes, and an obelisk, alluding to classical artistic traditions and eighteenth-century aesthetics. All-new photography, along with drawings by architectural historians Bernd Dams and Andrew Zega, illustrate this lavish volume.

Historian Guillaume Picon wrote several books, including Versailles: A Private Invitation. Bruno Ehrs's photographs have appeared in many books, including A Day at Château de Vaux le Vicomte. Bernd H. Dams and Andrew Zega create watercolors of historic buildings and garden ornaments.

Dinosaurs

A JOURNEY TO THE LOST KINGDOM

CHRISTINE ARGOT AND LUC VIVÉS
PUBLISHED IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE FRENCH NATIONAL MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY

Blending history and fantasy, science and art, the story of how dinosaurs were discovered and reimagined comes to life through splendid illustrations in this handsome slipcased volume.

Stegosaurus, Triceratops, Brontosaurus, Tyrannosaurus...these exotic prehistoric creatures continue to fascinate more than 200 million years after they last roamed the earth. Dinosaur skeletons have been reconstituted, reconstructed, and interpreted by scientists and artists since the first fossils were uncovered near Cañon City, Colorado, in 1877, sparking the Bone Wars. In 1907, the Carnegie Museum of Natural History mounted "Dippy" the Diplodocus, which sparked dinomania, igniting the imagination of popular culture and Hollywood. From the Morrison Formation to Montana's Hell Creek, and from Mongolia's Gobi Desert to Argentina's Patagonia, new discoveries and excavations have uncovered a lost kingdom that has inspired myriad homages.

This volume enriches our understanding of dinosaurs through rich visual iconography—from paintings, drawings, and sketches to new photography, film stills, reconstructed skeletons, and archival documents—along with detailed descriptions and anecdotes from great nineteenth-century explorers, artists, and writers such as Benjamin W. Hawkins, Charles R. Knight, Zdeněk Burian, and Jules Verne, and from filmmakers including Walt Disney and Steven Spielberg.

This book is published in partnership with the Muséum National d'Histoire Naturelle in Paris to coincide with a traveling exhibition of the exceptional Trix T. Rex and the international release of Jurassic World.

In the paleontology and comparative anatomy gallery at the Muséum National d'Histoire Naturelle in Paris, Christine Argot is a research professor and curator of collections and Luc Vivés is a project manager.

Paris: Ronis

WILLY RONIS

Humanist photographer Willy Ronis's most iconic images of Paris are beautifully produced in this affordable volume.

Unparalleled in his ability to portray the Parisian joie de vivre, Willy Ronis captured sheer delight on the faces he photographed, from the Parisian gamin running with an oversized baguette to the cheerful Parisiennes behind the bakery counter, and from dancers in full swing at a summer festival to a gaggle of children in a bumper-car tangle. His images are iconic and varied, ranging from lovers embracing in front of the Eiffel Tower to monuments softened by gauzy fog to a determined factory worker protesting for her rights.

The Parisian-born Ronis bought his first Rolleiflex camera in 1937 at the age of 27. He strolled the streets of his beloved city, training his camera on the working-class neighborhoods of Belleville and Ménilmontant, capturing the essence of everyday life in Paris. He memorialized the urban landscape—a lamp-lit bridge or the leafy horse chestnut trees bordering the Seine—and typical Parisians—in the metro, sunbathing on the Île de la Cité, or ice-skating in the park.

This pocket volume of high-quality reproductions is a joyful tribute to Paris and the esteemed photographer's finest work.

Major twentieth-century photographer Willy Ronis (1910–2009) was featured in MoMA's exhibitions The Family of Man (1955), Postwar European Photography (1953), and Five French Photographers (1951–52). His photographs appeared in Life, Vogue, and Time, and he received many awards, including the Venice Biennale Gold Medal, the Grand Prix des Arts et Lettres, and the Prix Nadar.

THE PHOTOGRAPHER'S COMPLETE UNPUBLISHED ALBUMS

WILLY RONIS

Willy Ronis curated and commented on the iconic images featured in this beautiful volume that retraces his career and contributions to photography and photojournalism.

A key figure in twentieth-century photography, Willy Ronis conveyed the poetic reality of postwar Paris and Provence in iconic black-and-white photographs. Influenced by Alfred Stieglitz and Ansel Adams, and amicable with his contemporary Magnum photographers, Ronis was the first French photographer to contribute to Life magazine. In the 1950s, MoMA curator Edward Steichen featured Ronis—along with Henri Cartier-Bresson, Robert Doisneau, and Brassai—in the groundbreaking exhibitions The Family of Man and Five French Photographers.

Throughout his life, this powerhouse of humanist photography kept meticulous records of his work, curating each era into albums, which are reproduced here for the first time. Timeless photographs of postwar France and its inhabitants are accompanied by the photographer's original observations and comments, framing the images within their technical and historical context. Photography historian Matthieu Rivallin's critical perspective adds nuance to the photographer's notes, and the ensemble is a groundbreaking and definitive reference on the myriad aspects of the artists' immense career and an essential volume for all photography aficionados.

Renoir: Father and Son

PAINTING AND CINEMA

SYLVIE PATRY, EDITORIAL DIRECTOR

Beloved Impressionist painter Pierre-Auguste Renoir left a vibrant legacy that influenced the life and films of his son, the acclaimed director Jean Renoir.

The Impressionist paintings of Pierre-Auguste Renoir are characterized by portraits and lively episodes from daily life. These joyful scenes influenced the life and work of his son, filmmaker Jean Renoir, who Orson Welles described as "the greatest of all directors."

This catalogue—and the traveling exhibition it accompanies—demonstrates how Pierre-Auguste Renoir's artistic practice and creative universe influenced Jean's art, and how Jean's films shed new light on his father's paintings. Focusing on leitmotifs in both artists' works, this volume commingles paintings, drawings, films, costumes, photographs, and ceramics. Contributions from the Barnes Foundation, the Musée d'Orsay, and the Cinémathèque Française provide in-depth insight.

Alberto Giacometti

CATHERINE GRENIER

An insightful and comprehensive biography of the great twentieth-century sculptor Alberto Giacometti.

Alberto Giacometti was one of the most enigmatic and memorable personalities of the twentieth century. Born in Switzerland in 1901, he settled in Paris in 1922, where he lived and worked for the rest of his life. Giacometti's early influences included his father—painter Giovanni Giacometti—sculptor Antoine Bourdelle, and mentors Zadkine, Lipchitz, and Laurens. When he turned from Cubism to Surrealism, his work earned near-instantaneous recognition, but Giacometti quickly moved on, pioneering a solitary path on the margin of contemporary trends. Today, his signature elongated sculptures are icons of art history.

The fruit of new research, this riveting biography offers a chronological look at the whole of the artist's life and work. It is published in coordination with the Giacometti exhibition at the Guggenheim in New York (June 8–September 12, 2018).

Catherine Grenier is director of the Fondation Alberto et Annette Giacometti. She has curated over forty international exhibitions, including eight dedicated to Giacometti.

A FOOD JOURNEY DOWN ITALY'S EASTERN COASTLINE

PAOLA BACCHIA

A beautifully crafted cookbook that charts the food traditions in the towns that skirt the coastline of Italy's striking Adriatic Sea.

The food of Italy's eastern coastline mirrors the memories and traditions of peoples past and present who have lived on the shores of the Adriatic, with ingredients reflecting the climate and terrain—of course with seafood in abundance, as well as an array of incredible pasta, rice, polenta, and meat dishes.

The Adriatic coastline runs from the heel of the boot-shaped peninsula at the Ionian Sea, through Puglia and Venice, to the northern waters of the Gulf of Trieste on the border with Slovenia. Along its length are rugged rocky coastlines, sandy stretches of beach, lagoons, and wetlands. Spindly wooden fishing piers, white washed walls, colorful villages, and sea-facing piazzas dot the 750-mile coastline with a rich history touched by Etruscan, Greek, Roman, Venetian, and Austrian populations.

Join Paola on this beautiful journey where she travels the length of this relatively unexplored coastline, to find ancient food traditions still thriving.

Paola Bacchia is one of Australia's most popular Italian food bloggers. Her blog, Italy On My Mind, tells the story of family memories and their connections to food. It won awards for best food blog in 2013 and 2015 by ITALY magazine. Paola returns to Italy every year to expand her knowledge of Italian food, and its traditions and innovations. # The Catalan Kitchen

FROM MOUNTAINS TO CITY AND SEA—RECIPES FROM SPAIN'S CULINARY HEART

EMMA WARREN RODRIGUEZ

The Catalan Kitchen is a celebration of one hundred authentic and traditional dishes from Spain's culinary heart.

The Catalonia region is situated on the west coast of the Mediterranean and blessed with one of the richest food cultures in Europe. Although Catalonia is still geographically and politically connected to Spain, Catalans consider themselves independent with their own language, history, culture, and cuisine. Its food is considered unique in Spain, and it is home to one of the highest concentrations of Michelin-starred restaurants in the world.

Catalan cuisine does not center around tapas, and although pintxos do feature heavily, they are not the mainstay of the region and most dishes are larger, stand-alone meals. Dishes are heavily influenced by pork and fresh seafood, with a focus on fresh, seasonal produce that varies from recipes as simple as crushed tomatoes smeared on bread to hearty, slow-cooked stews. Famous dishes include calçots—large salad onions cooked on a coal barbecue and then dipped into nutty and addictive Romesco sauce, a unique paella made without saffron and the addition of vermicelli noodles, myriad types of Catalan sausage served with white beans, sauces such as aioli and picada, and multiple pastries and desserts including crème Catalan (a version of crème brûlée). Beautifully packaged with stunning location and food photography, The Catalan Kitchen is the ultimate cookbook for lovers of Spanish and Mediterranean food.

Melbourne-based food writer and chef Emma Warren Rodriguez earned her chef wings in Barcelona, where she was classically trained in Catalan cuisine.

Will & Grace Playing Cards

Golden Girls Playing Cards

Spice up your card nights with these two original playing decks, featuring characters from the iconic shows Will & Grace and The Golden Girls.

While these two playing card decks include the typical 52 standard-sized cards, four distinct suits and all printed on quality card material—the theme of each deck is completely original.

In the Will & Grace deck of cards, the fabulous four from the hit TV show feature—each representing a suit from a standard playing-card set. Will is spades, Jack is clubs, Grace is hearts, and—of course—Karen must be diamonds. This is the perfect gift for lovers of this iconic series—which, after an eleven-year hiatus, has returned funnier, bolder, and more biting than ever.

In the Golden Girls deck of cards, it is the fearless foursome of Dorothy, Rose, Sophia, and Blanche who each assume a suit in the deck of cards. The ever-romantic Blanche takes hearts, country-at-heart Rose takes spades, ever-wise Sophia takes clubs, and the sharp-witted Dorothy takes diamonds. Play a game of cards with the series rolling in the background for a truly immersive experience! This is one for the fans of the TV show that first aired more than thirty years ago and continues to gather ever more fans (thanks to the proliferation of streaming services).

Your card nights promise to be more fun than ever!

Australian artist and illustrator Chantel de Sousa created the original, bright, and fun looks for both sets of playing cards.

MATILDA DIXON-SMITH

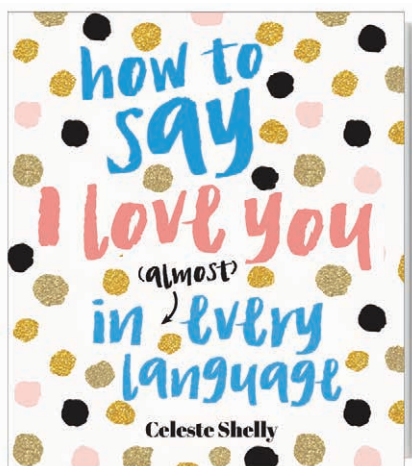

ILLUSTRATED BY EMMA MUNGER

A beautifully illustrated book celebrating fifty of the world's sexiest brains—people who have changed the world in big and small ways.

What have the world's sexiest people ever really done for the world? We should be crushing big-time on the beautiful brains of the people who make a difference. Elon Musk, swoonworthy inventor who spends his billions developing sustainable energy and space exploration. Ruth Bader Ginsburg, (gavel-) bangin' babe of the Supreme Court who has spent her life fighting for women's rights. David Attenborough, the foxy zoologist-turned-broadcaster who has inspired generations to care about the natural world. And not to mention Ada Lovelace and her white-hot drop-dead machine algorithm—inventing intellect.

These dreamboats are the real pin-ups, the poster people for brilliance, bravery, and giving a damn.

The Style Guide to Moustaches

40 TIPS & TRICKS FOR A PERFECT LOOK

STEFANO ROSSETTI

Men—the beard is officially over! So get creative with your razor, scissors, and a tiny comb to fashion yourself a fetching mo'!

The moustache is back! Walk through any hipster neighborhood these days and you'll see the move away from full-flowing beards and back to the far superior, gentlemanly moustache (don't even think about a whisker-free face!). Today, the modern man uses the mo' much like a pair of raffish eyewear—to accent his face and personality.

This book is your easy step-by-step guide to crafting forty classic and contemporary moustache styles. Think beyond the '70s porn-star mo' or Tom Selleck's lip slug in Magnum P.I. (although that one is included!) to cooler versions, including the Horseshoe, the Dalí, the freestyle, the Fu Manchu and the B-Boy. Add some serious style to your face this fall.

Stefano Rossetti is a fashion and men's style writer, illustrator, and artist based in Milan, Italy. He sports a classic handlebar moustache, which he insists never went out of style.

Dancing with Myself

MARTIN BETHENOD, FLORIAN EBNER, ANNA FRICKE

Dancing with Myself is a wild jig through the art of the last fifty years, in which the dancers are the artists themselves.

Dancing with Myself investigates the elemental importance of self-representation in art from the 1970s to the present day and the role of the artist as protagonist and subject of the work.

Through a wide variety of artistic practices and artists (from Claude Cahun to LaToya Ruby Frazier, from Gilbert & George to Cindy Sherman, and from Alighiero Boetti to Maurizio Cattelan) coming from different cultures and backgrounds, generations and experiences, it reflects on the contrast between different approaches: melancholy and vanity, ironic games played with identity and political autobiography, existential rumination and the body as sculpture, effigy or fragment, and its symbolical representation.

Martin Bethenod, former commissioner of visual arts at the French Ministry of Culture and Communication (2003-2004), is the CEO and director of Palazzo Grassi and Punta della Dogana. Florian Ebner, one of the most highly rated critics in Germany and formerly the director of the Folkwang Museum in Essen, has been director of the department of photography at the Centre Pompidou since June 2017. Anna Fricke is curator of contemporary art at the Folkwang Museum in Essen.

Albert Oehlen

COWS BY THE WATER

CAROLINE BOURGEOIS

The most substantial monograph ever devoted to Albert Oehlen.

Albert Oehlen has established himself as one of the leading figures in contemporary painting thanks to a continually evolving practice that focuses more on overcoming formal limitations and on experimentation than on the subject of the work. Music has played a central part in the artist's output, serving as a metaphor for his method of working in which fusion and rhythm, improvisation and repetition, and density and harmony of sounds are turned into pictorial gestures.

This monograph maps out a route through the whole of Albert Oehlen's production, from his best-known works to less familiar ones and from the 1980s to the present day, with reproductions of paintings in the Pinault Collection and other major private collections and international museums.

Caroline Bourgeois has been artistic director of Le Plateau, an important contemporary art venue in Paris. Currently, she is artistic adviser to François Pinault and has put together his collection of video art.

Fulvio Roiter

PHOTOGRAPHS 1948–2007

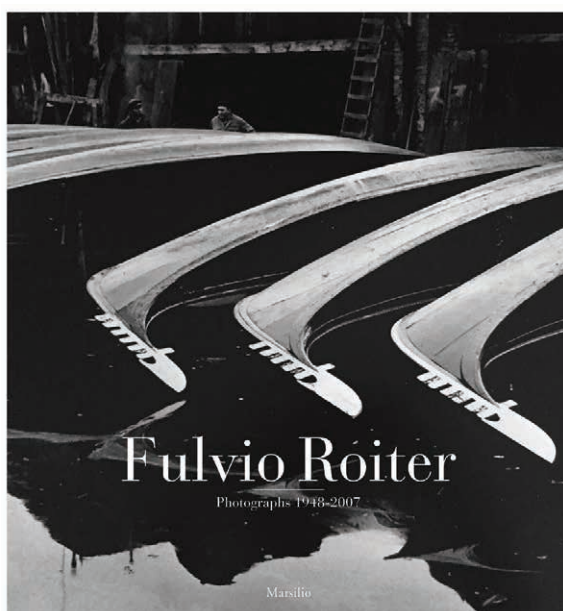

DENIS CURTI

The most complete monograph ever published and the first after the death of the great Venetian photographer.

An incomparable photographer with images from all over the world, Roiter started to take photographs in 1947. For twenty-five years, he preferred to use black and white, with an uncompromising formal and compositional rigor and a technique rooted in contrast, a technique he would continue to seek even in his later work with color.

The catalog celebrates Fulvio Roiter with essays by Italo Zannier and Denis Curti and an anthology of writings on his art. The photographs are organized into thematic sections: "Venice in Black and White," "The Tree," "Venice in Color," "Italy in Black and White," "Around the World" and "A Man Without Desires."

Denis Curti is artistic director of the Casa dei Tre Oci and adviser to the Fondazione di Venezia on the management of its collection of photographs. From 2005 to 2014, he was director of Contrasto-Milano and vice president of the Fondazione FORMA. For over fifteen years, he has been the photography critic for ViviMilano and Il Corriere della Sera. An expert on the photography market, in the years 2002–2003 he organized Sotheby's first auctions of photographs in Milan. He edits the monthly Il Fotografo.

Franco Angeli

THE 60s

LUCA MASSIMO BARBERO

The first monograph devoted to this great Italian artist.

Franco Angeli was one of the leading figures in the Italian art of the postwar period. Often labeled superficially as "Pop," he is revealed here, through new documents and studies, as an artist who took a surprising and unprecedented approach to his work.

He made his debut in the fifties in a still little-known experimental Roman laboratory where the new generations encountered the masters of Italian art. This book reconstructs the stylistic and artistic reciprocities and the relations of Angeli with his friends and colleagues up until the sixties, a time when, with his attainment of an existential image that was at the same time deeply polemical and provocative, his work developed along versatile lines, in an original dialogue with the international context.

Luca Massimo Barbero is director of the Istituto di Storia dell'Arte of the Fondazione Giorgio Cini and associate curator at the Peggy Guggenheim Collection, both in Venice. From 2009 to 2011, he was director of the MACRO (Museo d'Arte Contemporanea di Roma). He has taught at a number of Italian universities.

Italiana

ITALY THROUGH THE LENS OF FASHION 1971–2001

STEFANO TONCHI AND MARIA LUISA FRISA

The great march of Italian fashion, with the boom in ready-to-wear.

Italiana sets out to celebrate Italian fashion in the crucial years from 1971 to 2001 and to tell its story, highlighting the progressive and bringing into focus the establishment of an Italian fashion system in that great period of Made in Italy that set the seal on the Italian lifestyle's leading role in the world.

This volume is produced to coincide with the exhibition "Italiana. Narrating Italian History Through Fashion, 1971-2001" (open February 21, 2018 through May 6, 2018) and presents Italian fashion as a polycentric phenomenon fed by a wide range of know-how and intelligence, illustrated with an important set of pictures, some taken by photographers for magazines but others the fruit of collaboration with the designers.

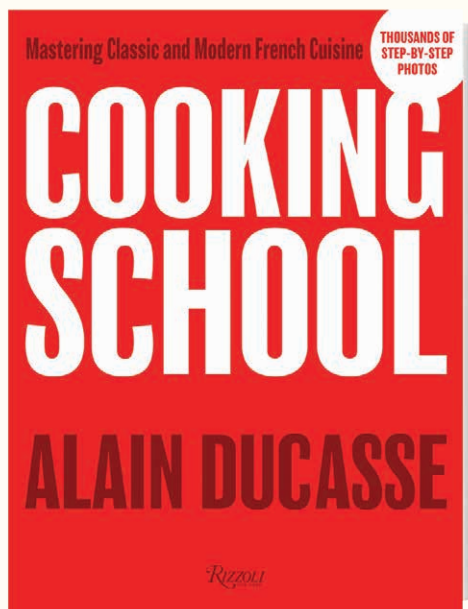

It also contains previously unpublished essays on less well-known themes and an anthology of texts previously published by Italian writers in the years under examination.

Stefano Tonchi has been editor of W magazine since 2010. Previously, he was editor of T: The New York Times Style Magazine, creative director of Esquire and Self and fashion editor of L'Uomo Vogue. Maria Luisa Frisa is a professor at the IUAV University in Venice, where she directs the degree course in Fashion Design and Multimedia Arts. # New York Living

RE-INVENTING HOME

PAUL GUNTHER

Residences featured here show New York living of the moment: homes that defy traditional definition but which are nevertheless rooted in the historic ground of the city.

What does a home look like in twenty-first-century New York? While the city's name alone brings to mind very specific ideas—the Fifth Avenue penthouse, with its elegant moldings and crystal chandeliers; the SoHo loft, with its bright spaces and air of bohemian ease; the Brooklyn brownstone, with its fireplaces, parquet floors, and lush backyards—the truth is, New York today is much more than this, and the potential for variety in ways of living is, now more than ever, virtually limitless. As a result, in the twenty-first century, the combined design professions enjoy an unprecedented menu of prospective solutions, whether based upon respect for a classically inflected New York past, an emphatic denial of such a tradition, or, most often, some hybrid response that often yields the best innovation possible.

Paul Gunther is the executive director of the Gracie Mansion Conservancy, former president of the Institute of Classical Architecture & Art, and former vice president of institutional advancement and director of development at the New-York Historical Society.

TRISH DESEINE

RECIPE PHOTOGRAPHY BY DEIRDRE ROONEY

Best-selling food writer Trish Deseine demonstrates how a few well-chosen, high-quality ingredients can create simple yet sublime dishes.

Trish Deseine is renowned for her unpretentious approach to food, creating delicious and easy-to-prepare recipes that are always inspired and refined. Ever mindful of the home chef's tight schedule, the recipes—divided into appetizers, soups, and salads; main and side dishes; and desserts—are quick and easy to prepare. Each recipe is accompanied by tips and a suggested drink pairing. Modern yet informal, these recipes show how simple cuisine using exceptional products can yield delectable results to delight gourmets everywhere.

Adobe Houses

HOMES OF SUN AND EARTH

KATHRYN MASSON

Alluring adobe-brick houses of California here hint at the charms of a bygone age while offering, at the same time, a vision for home today.

Adobe residences from the Spanish and Mexican eras were the original California houses. Architects, designers, builders, and homeowners today, as in the past, look to their simple, utilitarian features—such as plain, whitewashed walls, beamed ceilings, and intimate open-air courtyards—and try to emulate their forms to capture the charm of a romanticized past. Leading architects of style movements such as the Spanish Colonial Revival traveled to California and studied its extensive eighteenth- and nineteenth-century adobes firsthand as the foundation of their education in California architecture.

Kathryn Masson, a former longtime resident of California who now lives in the hunt country of Virginia, has authored numerous books. Her Historic Houses of Virginia was awarded the First Prize Gold Medal for best book on architecture in 2007 by Foreword magazine.

Ritz Paris

HAUTE CUISINE

MICHEL ROTH AND JEAN-FRANÇOIS MESPLEDE

PHOTOGRAPHY BY GRANT SYMON, FOREWORD BY PAUL BOCUSE

This celebration of the grand culinary tradition at the Ritz Paris features inspirational stories of three great men and is completed with sixty recipes

At the age of thirteen, the young sommelier Cesar Ritz was summarily dismissed by his employer who told him he lacked the flair and talent to succeed in the hospitality business. Of course, Ritz went on to become one of history's greatest hoteliers, creating the Ritz in Paris and its world-renowned restaurant L'Espadon with the help of renowned chef Auguste Escoffier. Both Escoffier and Ritz loved simplicity, but perfection reigned in their finest of dining rooms.

Today, having climbed the ranks at L'Espadon, Michel Roth is now at the helm of this Michelin two-starred restaurant. His menus pay tribute to the heritage of Escoffier, using his classical standard as the backdrop for outstanding contemporary cuisine. The spectacular, award-winning egg-shaped macaroni and truffles dish inspired by Escoffier appears among the sixty featured recipes. Superb photographs accompany each recipe, inviting the reader behind the scenes of this legendary culinary monument.

Michel Roth has been awarded the Prix Taittinger, the Prix Escoffier, Meilleur Ouvrier de France, the Bocuse d'Or, and two Michelin stars for the Ritz's L'Espadon restaurant. Jean-François Mesplede is former director of the Michelin Guide to France. Paul Bocuse has held three Michelin stars since 1965. Grant Symon's photographs have appeared in Uncooked, Egg, and Vegetables by Forty Great French Chefs.

SEASONAL RECIPES

BERTRAND AUBOYNEAU AND FRANÇOIS SIMON

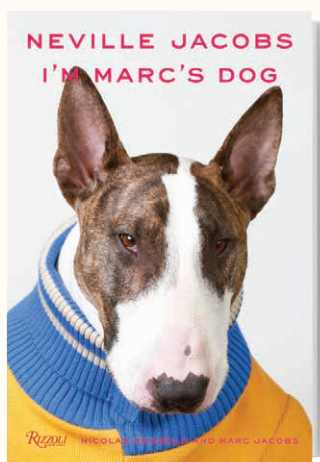

PHOTOGRAPHY BY CHRISTIAN SARRAMON

The French bistro provides an irresistible dining experience, combining fresh, traditional dishes with a friendly atmosphere.

Bertrand Auboyneau, the owner of Bistrot Paul Bert in Paris, offers a seasonal selection of sixty hearty recipes. Starters include rustic country pâté with cognac and wild mushroom confit or scallops cooked in their shells with a piquant twist. An extensive selection of main courses ranges from shoulder of lamb en cocotte to duck breast with cherries and roasted new potatoes. After a dazzling cheese platter, if you still have room for dessert, you can indulge in an assortment of delicious classics, such as Paul Bert's signature Paris-Brest, praline cream in a crisp choux pastry ring, or Île flottante, an island of poached meringue floating in Tahitian vanilla crème anglaise.

To accompany the recipes, revered food critic François Simon outlines the ten commandments that rule a true bistro, such as the importance of an inspirational owner and a highly experienced chef as well as impeccable waiters and the art of creating an authentic decor, dense with the wafting smells of good food and wine. Photographs feature both recipes and the lively spirit of a dozen Parisian bistros.

Neville Jacobs

I'M MARC'S DOG

NICOLAS NEWBOLD

The Instagram photographs of the glamorous life of Neville, social-media superstar and esteemed companion of the fashion designer Marc Jacobs.

With classic images from his popular Instagram account as well as outtakes, carefully styled shots from Neville's "fashion editorials," and candid snapshots of Neville and Marc together, Neville Jacobs is a treat for any dog lover and a delight for anyone with equal fascination for fashion and dogs alike. Dubbed "the hardest-working dog in fashion" by T Magazine, Neville Jacobs—the sweet-natured bull terrier belonging to the ubiquitous Marc Jacobs—is, in the canine world at least, fast becoming as popular as his owner. Drawing on hundreds of photographs taken of Neville from puppyhood to today, this charming book not only captures the character of one charismatic animal, but also sheds light (and some fur) on the busy and glamorous world of a downtown New York dog. From the Marc Jacobs offices (where Neville plays a key role) to the streets of SoHo, the dog runs of Manhattan, and even private jets to exotic vacations, Neville's life is a whirlwind the likes of which most dogs could only twitch their paws and dream of.

Neville Jacobs is a black-and-white bull terrier. He belongs to Marc Jacobs, with whom he works and travels the world. He lives in New York City. Marc Jacobs is an American fashion designer. Nicolas Newbold is a photographer and Neville's studio manager.

A definitive collection of photographs of the legendary and influential band New Order.

New Order remains one of the most popular bands of the last half century. From underground beginnings as the flagship group of Factory Records in Manchester to grandstand tours around Europe and America, Cummins captured the band in every light, from the intimacy of the studio to the frenetic energy of live performance.

The Tudor Home

KEVIN MURPHY

PHOTOGRAPHY BY PAUL ROCHELEAU

A beautifully illustrated volume on the Tudor-style house, a keystone in American interiors and architecture.

Since its birth in sixteenth-century England, the Tudor-style house has been a favorite for homeowners from all walks of life. Hallmarks of the style include steeply pitched gables and roofs covered in slate or imitation thatch, bays of casement windows with diamond-paned leaded glass, clustered chimney stacks, interiors of wood paneling and plasterwork, and, especially, half-timbered and stuccoed facades. In the United States, prime examples can be found coast to coast, from the Tudor City apartment buildings of New York to the stately homes of Tuxedo Park, and from the cozy, Prairie-inspired homes of Oak Park, Illinois, to the richly nuanced Arts and Crafts-inflected mansions of Pasadena, California.

Pope Francis and the Virgin Mary

A MARIAN DEVOTION

VINCENZO SANSONETTI

A devotional keepsake that focuses on Pope Francis's love for the Virgin Mary.

This beautifully illustrated book highlights one of the main aspects of Pope Francis's spirituality: his veneration of the Virgin Mary. A valuable source of inspiration, this book includes a collection of quotes from his speeches, prayers, and tweets that directly refer to his worship of the Holy Mary.

Jorge Mario Bergoglio's faith has always been marked by his strong devotion to the Mother of God; his first public act as Pope paid tribute to her in the Basilica di Santa Maria Maggiore. His admiration is reflected in his coat of arms that features a star (according to heraldic tradition, the star symbolizes the Virgin Mary, Mother of Christ and of the Church), and reaches a peak in the devotion to "Mary Undoer of Knots," which is spreading worldwide. Pope Francis helps believers to see the Virgin Mary not just as a mother, but also a sister and friend who possesses countless virtues.

Vincenzo Sansonetti has written for some of Italy's major publications, including Avvenire, Oggi, and Il Timone, and is the author of the book Francis: The People's Pope.
