Sunny Day: A Celebration of Sesame Street

Superstar illustrators celebrate the iconic Sesame Street theme song with stunning original art in this one-of-a-kind picture book! 40 pages.

JOE RAPOSO (1937-1989) began playing piano as a child, and later studied piano with the great Nadia Boulanger in Paris. A serendipitous meeting with Jim Henson in the 1960s led Raposo to join the team behind the creation of Sesame Street, for which he served as musical director for several years. He wrote more than two thousand songs for Sesame Street, earning three Emmys for his work on the show.

How to Not Wear Black

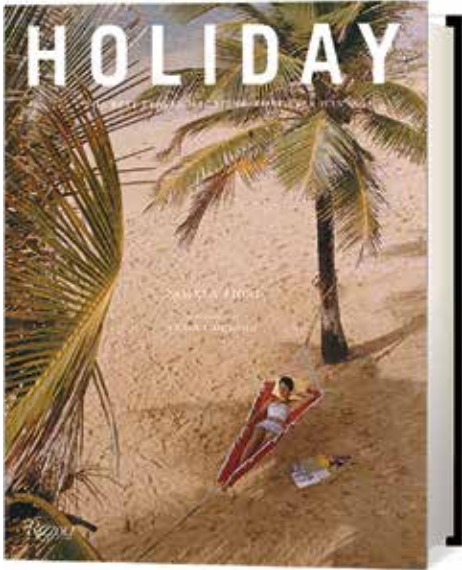

Find your Style, Create your Forever Wardrobe

Find your style, create your forever wardrobe. 256 pages.

As Fashion Director of The Times of London, ANNA MURPHY divides her time between the fantasy realm of the front row and what, to her mind, is the true fashion front line: the brands that deliver clothes for the real world. How to track down the right pieces for your life, your shape; how to look effortlessly stylish and contemporary; and how to do it without spending a fortune—that's what Anna sets out to nail in her writing. Not to mention in her own shopping! Retail therapy in the most literal sense, that's Anna's thing. And after more years than she would care to admit on the fashion circuit—first as Launch Editor of The Sunday Telegraph's "Stella" magazine, now at The Times—she's unbeatable on how finally to make fashion your friend.
