Good Drinks
Alcohol-Free Recipes for When You’re Not Drinking for Whatever Reason
JULIA BAINBRIDGE
Blackberry-infused cold brew with almond milk and coconut cream. Smoky tea paired with tart cherry juice. A bittersweet, herbal take on the Pimm’s Cup. Writer Julia Bainbridge spent a summer driving across the U.S. going to bars, restaurants, and everything in between in pursuit of the question: Can you make an outstanding nonalcoholic drink? The answer came back emphatically yes, with elevated libations to satisfy the most discerning drinkers, like Verjus Spritz, Chicha Morada Agua Fresca, Salted Rosemary Paloma, and Tarragon Cider.

With an extensive pantry section, tips for sourcing ingredients, and recipes curated from stellar bartenders around the country, Good Drinks shows that decadent brunch cocktails, afternoon refreshers, and evening digestifs can be enjoyed by anyone, whether they are drinking alcohol or not. 50 Photographs, 176 pages.

Behind Bars
High Class Cocktails Inspired by Low Life Gangsters
VINCENT POLLARD, SHAWN McMANS
It’s been a century since the prohibition sent Americans scurrying to speakeasies and decades since the movie industry turned mobsters into celebrities. Now the two worlds collide in this highly original collection that creates signature cocktails for gangsters of every stripe.

There’s Tommy Shelby, who likes his Irish whiskey strong and stiff with just a splash of sweet vermouth and bitters. Billie Frechette mixes gin with honey and lemon, making the drink almost as sweet as her love for John Dillinger. There’s also Mia Wallace, who gets a boozy take on a classic milkshake. Famous characters from much-loved recent TV series including The Sopranos, Peaky Blinders, and Boardwalk Empire are seen alongside iconic roles from classic films such as The Godfather, Goodfellas, Scarface, and Miller’s Crossing. 60 Illustrations, 144 pages.

The Wine Lover’s Bucket List
1,000 Amazing Adventures in Pursuit of Wine
SIMON J. WOOLF
The adventures featured in this atmospherically illustrated book will fuel the wine lover’s imagination with an almost endless array of vineyard visits, must-see sights, and must-do events—harvest festivals, vineyard picnics, wine-region weekends, tasting tours, wine-focused restaurants.

Designed to highlight the world’s most rewarding wine destinations, this guide spans the spectrum from traditional (a wine luncheon in Bordeaux or touring Portugal’s port lodges) to fun and quirky. Some ideas are active—a cycling tour of the Champagne region or grape stomping in the Italian countryside—while others are more urban, such as a tour of Vienna’s summer wine gardens or Rome’s iconic enotecas. Sidebar panels throughout detail what makes each region special and include lists of the top five local wines to seek out. 250 Full Color Photographs, 416 pages.

An Entertaining Story
INDIA HICKS; foreword by BROOKE SHIELDS
Daughter of the late David Hicks and goddaughter to Prince Charles, India Hicks is known for her irreverent take on style. In her previous books, she invited readers into her homes on Harbour Island and in England. For her third book, India presents her own slightly madcap spin on entertaining. Organized by meal, the book begins marvelously with the most important meal of the day–cocktail hour–and ends with breakfast. In between, there are family suppers and big dinners, birthday cakes and Christmas crackers, great British breakfasts, quick teas and long lunches, mustard pots as vases, and bedcovers for tablecloths. Like India, these stories are full of personality, from the Panic Dinner (or what to do when you suddenly have a crowd descending) to the Naked Cake (cake decorating for the harried or untalented) to a White Christmas in the Bahamas. 150 Full Color Photographs, 224 pages.
