Fun for Art Lovers

Frida A to Z

The life of an icon from Activism to Zapotec

NADIA BAILEY; Illustrated by Susanna Harrison

This intricately illustrated and fastidiously researched book unpacks the life of Frida Kahlo, who herself was larger than life. From growing up in Coyoacán, Mexico City, in her family home, where she embraced sports—including wrestling—to overcome her childhood ill health; her school days as one of very few women attending Mexico City's renowned National Preparatory School (where she met Diego Rivera), and the tragic accident that would leave her with a lifetime of pain and artistic ambition.

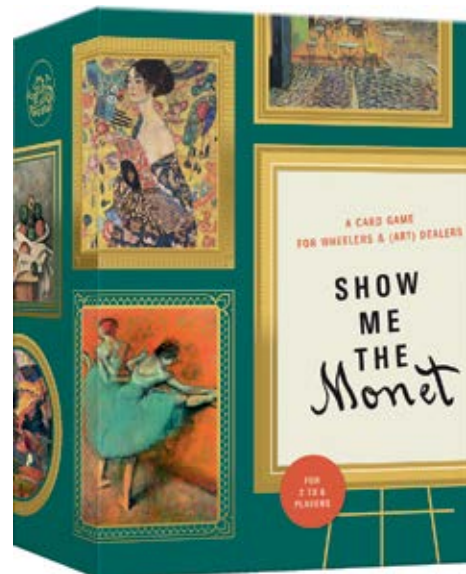

Track Frida's rise as one of Mexico's most important and celebrated artists, her friendships with European surrealists, the sensation caused by her first exhibition in New York, her contribution to popular culture, and the unparalleled phenomenon that is Frida Kahlo. This book looks at the life, art, collaborations, friendships, politics, beauty, and agony surrounding one of the twentieth century's most distinctive and important artistic voices—all in a brilliantly illustrated A to Z format.

Coming Home to Yourself

A Meditator's Guide to Blissful Living

OSHO

All of us have experienced moments of “coming home” — feeling relaxed, grounded, free of the restlessness that characterizes so much of our everyday lives. These moments can arise in nature or in the depths of an activity we enjoy, alone or together with people we love. They show us that we are exactly where we are supposed to be.

The meditations in Coming Home to Yourself were selected from Osho's hundreds of public talks and intimate conversations. These passages are designed to be a companion on the journey toward transforming our rare moments of “at-home-ness” into an undercurrent that permeates all aspects of our lives. They offer guidance about meditation and specific techniques to try, insights into the habits that keep us tense and conflicted, and what life might look like if we recognize those habits and let them go. Exercises include activating your awareness, opening the heart, learning to relax and concentrate in order to reap the benefits of meditation, and freeing the brain from mental blocks. 100-150 Illustrations, 128 pages

Cloudy Kitchens

High Tea

Cannabis Cakes, Tarts & Bakes

DIANA ISAIU

This beautifully photographed cookbook celebrates a British-style high tea—where all the delightful snacks are laden with cannabis. Because now that the legal and regulated consumption of cannabis is steadily increasing, more and more of us are using weed when we bake. Gobbling down cannabis gives you a different high than smoking it, plus it's fun and easy to bake with, and the therapeutic benefits are much more effective. So it's time to get this book and make a classy high tea worthy of the British royals (but load it with space cakes, tarts, and sweet treats).

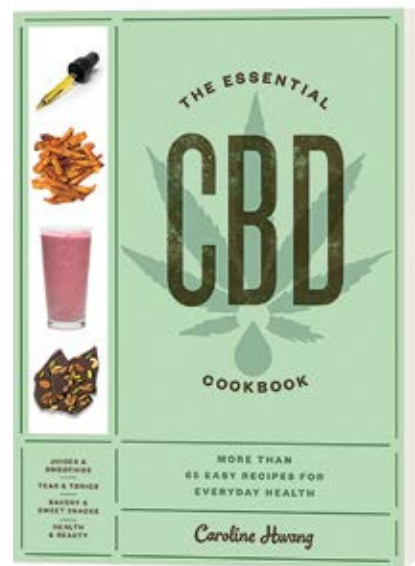

Just some of the recipes included in this book are sativa butter tarts, sponge cake, funnel cakes, lightly salted caramel cupcakes, and (most dramatically) cannabis croquembouche.

This book also explains the basics of making herb butters, oils, and other essential cannabinoid baking bases. 60 Color Photographs, 128 pages

Women in Fashion

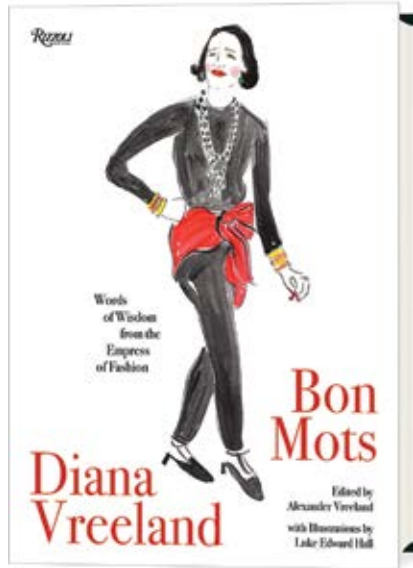

The Women Who Revolutionized Fashion

250 Years of Female Designers
 Edited by PETRA SLINKARD; Contributions by Madelief Hohé,
 Lan Morgan, Paula Richter, and Petra Slinkard

Diane Von Furstenberg, Vivienne Westwood, Sarah Burton, Kate and Laura Mulleavy, Donna Karan, and Iris van Herpen are among the great women designers to emerge in the last few decades. We now live in an age when no one would dare call them “that little seamstress,” as Paul Poiret disdainfully referred to Gabrielle “Coco” Chanel more than a century ago. The Women Who Revolutionized Fashion highlights early innovative and contemporary designers working in a variety of materials and genres. This unique volume profiles widely-known early fashion vanguards such as Jeanne Lanvin, Callot Soeurs, and Madeleine Vionnet, as well as underrepresented women who revolutionized fashion from the mid-1700s to the present. More than one hundred works—including street fashion, ready-to-wear, traditional, and haute couture—celebrate women designers’ concepts of dress and beauty. 125 Color Photographs, 160 pages

Diana Vreeland: Bon Mots

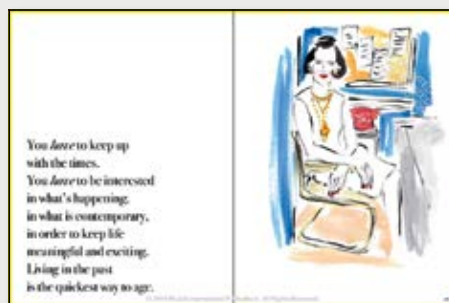

Words of Wisdom From the Empress of Fashion

ALEXANDER VREELAND ; Illustrated by Luke Edward Hall

Diana Vreeland’s insightful edicts and evocative aphorisms remain her strongest legacy. She looked at life as a romantic and lived through dreams and imagination. Showing leadership, vision, and timeless wit, this book celebrates her visionary words that not only transformed the world of fashion, but also gave us sage advice to live by.

Sourced and edited by her grandson Alexander, Diana Vreeland: Bon Mots covers Vreeland’s incisive views of subjects such as allure, fashion, and style (“I mean, a new dress doesn’t get you anywhere; it’s the life you’re living in the dress”); beauty (“The neck is the beginning and end of looking like anybody”); age (“The quickest way to show your age is to try to look young”); color (“Black is the hardest color to get right—except for gray”); and her powerfully creative way of thinking (“I’m looking for the suggestion of something I’ve never seen”). Color Line Art Throughout, 160 pages

Parks and Recreation

Welcome to Pawnee

Life according to TV's Parks and Recreation

AMY LEWIS; Illustrated by Chantel de Sousa

This illustrated book is a celebration of everyone's favorite municipal mockumentary TV series, Parks and Recreation. Throughout its seven-season run, Parks and Recreation was nominated for a staggering fourteen Emmy Awards, and was named by Time magazine as the best TV show of the year. Although its final season aired five years ago, Parks and Recreation still gives us the same warm fuzzies (and full knee-slapping laughs) as when we saw it first.

In this loving homage to Parks and Recreation, you'll find plenty of interactive activities like The "Which Pawnee Municipal Department Do You Belong To?" Quiz; Leslie Knope's perfect waffle recipe; The Burt Macklin FBI (probably official) training manual; and Donna Meagle's tips for Mercedes upholstery maintenance. This book is also laden with trivia-tastic breakdowns of each season, and Parks and Recreation's myriad recurring guest characters (including Tammy 1, 2, and/or 3). 120 Color Illustrations, 96 pages

Catlady
LEAH GOREN, EMMA STRAUB, AIDY BRYANT, JEN GOTCH

There's no question that cats rule the world—ask any cat owner and they'll tell you how these balls of fur insert themselves into our lives and establish dominion over the household. In this book, Leah Goren brings together smart, funny essays by ban.do founder Jen Gotch, writer Mara Altman, novelist Emma Straub, and designer Justina Blakeney, among others. She also conducts illuminating interviews with women who have built their lives or careers around cats, such as the founder of a big-cat sanctuary in California, the president of an animal advocacy organization in NYC, and the executive director of the world's largest registry of pedigreed cats. Throughout the book, Goren's appealing illustrations bring the joys of cat friendship to life, while her observations about the roles that cats have played in history, fashion, mythology, and art help us understand why the human-cat connection is so powerful. Sophisticated yet accessible, and featuring the work of a hugely popular illustrator, this book's wisdom and artwork reveal deeper truths about what makes cats so appealing as companions. 80 Illustrations, 224 pages

A Lively Guide to the 100 Terms Smart People Should Know

ROSS PETRAS and KATHRYN PETRAS

Your boss makes a joke about Schrodinger's cat—which is something you've heard of but you're a little vague about what exactly happened (or didn't happen) with that cat. Or you're reading a New Yorker article that explains that "Solecism slipped into solipsism into full-blown narcissistic project." An excellent point . . . if you're sure what "solecism" means . . . or, for that matter, "solipsism."

Language gurus Ross Petras and Kathryn Petras to the rescue! In the breezy and entertaining yet informative style of their New York Times bestseller You're Saying It Wrong, they give you a brief rundown on words smart people should know—from the worlds of science and the arts to philosophy, and from broader topics like quantum physics and ontology to more specific ones like Plato's cave and trompe l'oeil. They cover the Latin phrases we hear and read (prima facie, sui generis, and the like) as well as those that have entered our vocabularies from other languages (bildungsroman, sturm und drang). 192 pages

This handy dictionary hilariously captures the state of the English language in the year 2020. The Internet—and more specifically, social media—can make new and confusing words spread like wildfire. What about FOMO, lit AF, tea (sigh—no, Dad, not the drink), dead (no, not the state of nonbeing)? Look, we totally get it—communicating in the modern world is hard. So with more than 600 entries, all replete with sassy definitions, let this book be your definitive guide to the modern English language.

With this updated and expanded edition of the original 2017 version, A Very Modern Dictionary finds itself at the very forefront of modern parlance. No longer will you need to ask the closest teenager to translate that meme sailing right over your head—this book is your passport to the new world of semantics. 40 B&W Illustrations, 136 pages

Essential How To's

How to Wash the Dishes

PETER MILLER

Washing the dishes is an ordinary, everyday task—but with examination and care, it can become much more. In this reverent guide to the household chore, Peter Miller shows us how washing dishes can become a joy, a delight, a meditative exercise, and an act of grace and rhythm.

We pay so much attention to recipes but little attention to maintenance and cleanup. Washing the dishes is as much a part of making a meal as prepping the vegetables, making the sauces, or seasoning the meats. At times it is quite routine, sometimes raucous, other times complex. It is never convenient.

There are some who do the dishes for the clarity and privacy of it, and there are some who relish the quiet isolation of putting things in order where they belong. There are some who feel the time and movement is a kind of digestive. How to Wash the Dishes brings elegance, art, and a bit of mindfulness to the sink. 128 pages

Rad American History A-Z
Movements and Moments That Demonstrate the Power of the People
KATE SCHATZ and MIRIAM KLEIN STAHL

In Rad American History A-Z, each letter of the alphabet tells the story of a significant moment in America's progressive history—one that isn't always covered in history classes: A is for Alcatraz, and the Native occupation of 1969; C is for the Combahee River Raid, a Civil War action planned in part by Union spy Harriet Tubman; Z is for Zuccotti Park, and the Occupy movement that briefly took over the world. Paired with dynamic paper-cut art by Miriam Klein Stahl, the entries by Kate Schatz explore several centuries of politics, culture, art, activism, and liberation, including radical librarians, Supreme Court cases, courageous youth, punk rocker grrrls, Southern quilts, and modern witches. In addition to the twenty-six core stories, short sidebars expand the discussion, and dictionary-style lists refer readers to additional key moments. So while F is for Federal Theater Project, a New Deal-era program that employed thousands of artists, F is also for Freedom Rides and First Amendment. 75-100 Papercut Illustrations, 176 pages

Rooms of Splendor

Decorating with Marble by the World's Top Designers

KAREN PEARSE; Foreword by Massimo Ferragamo

For spectacular drama, fabulous luxury, or simply the warm glow of organic textures, colors, and patterns, marble is like no other natural material. Marble has been favored by architects and designers for millennia, and as this book attests, the love affair with marble continues today. Featured are rooms showcasing marble by many of the world's most prominent decorators, including Kelly Wearstler, Vincente Wolf, Juan Pablo Molyneux, Bjarke Ingels, Ryan Korban, Martyn Lawrence Bullard, Robert Kime, the Haas Brothers, and Joseph Dirand, among many others. This is the first book that explores the many ways marble can bring color, pattern, and warmth to the home, as well as the vast array of beautiful types of marble that are available. Living with Nature

Decorating with the Rhythms of the Seasons

MARIE MASUREEL

Author Marie Masureel is an interior stylist and photographer whose passion is varying home decor with repurposed elements and found objects from nature, season by season. For autumn, she gathers fallen leaves, seasonal berries, and rose hips for flower arrangements and wreaths. To welcome spring, she turns to a garland made of newly formed fern fronds, while in summer, wildflowers, shells, driftwood, and other materials create an effortless bohemian beach look. Winter is embraced with the concept of hygge, using a neutral palette and candlelight for a feeling of coziness. The book features illustrations that focus on only one house in order to demonstrate in practice how simple techniques and natural materials can create varied atmospheres throughout the year. Masureel shows the reader a more mindful way of living and decorating, revealing easy methods of styling the home following a less-is-more aesthetic to create an atmosphere that is warm, relaxing, and beautiful. 200 Color Photographs, 224 pages

The Perfect Kitchen

BARBARA SALLICK

The kitchen is the heart of the home, the destination of every party, everyone's favorite gathering spot, where style and functionality must go hand in hand. Designing a kitchen is a vastly complicated affair, involving an array of appliances (movable and fixed) and storage zones, not to mention addressing the kitchen's role as a multifunctional social arena to be used from very early in the morning until late into the night. Creating a timeless, high-functioning space is daunting indeed. Where is one to begin?

In The Perfect Kitchen, Waterworks cofounder Barbara Sallick explores the process of designing a kitchen in great and beautiful detail, from surfaces and finishes to storage, cabinetry, and hardware. The book is enriched by dozens of images of kitchens by esteemed designers such as Steven Gambrel, Gil Schafer, and Suzanne Kasler; essays by top food icons including Julia Turshen and Melissa Clark about their own kitchens; and important, how-to advice. 150 Color Photographs, 272 pages

Stuff You Never Want to Find in Your Parents' House

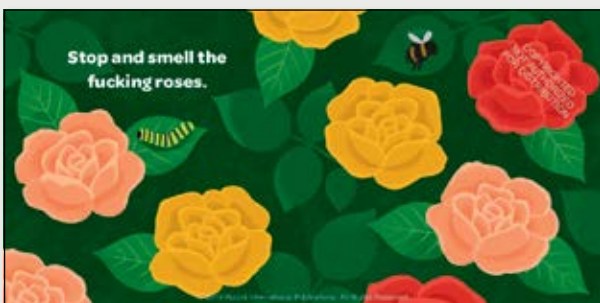

Edited by SMITH STREET BOOKS

Take this book as a cautionary (and hilarious) tale of woe—capturing some of the most frightening, traumatic, and straight-up disgusting items that you could ever possibly come across in your parents' house. It's a ridiculous and dark comedy that might hit too close to home for some. Because if we've all got our secrets, then surely that "we" must include our parents. What nefarious items have your parents stashed away in the nooks and crannies of your family home? This book offers some of the worst-case scenarios, all captured in hilariously earnest crime-scene photography. Some of the items photographed in this book include sex toys (obviously), paraphernalia for the purposes of conducting satanic rituals, equipment that is clearly being used to cook crystal methamphetamine, a Saint Andrew's Cross (and other large-scale BDSM equipment), the cremated ashes of your Golden Retriever Sebastian (who you were led to believe had simply retired to a farm upstate), and a live human prisoner chained to a radiator. 80 Color Photographs, 96 pages

Birding Without Borders

What It's Like to Be a Bird

What Birds Are Doing, and Why—from Flying to Nesting, Eating to Singing
DAVID ALLEN SIBLEY

“Can birds smell?” “Is this the same cardinal that was at my feeder last year?” “Do robins ‘hear’ worms?” In What It's Like to Be a Bird, David Sibley answers the most frequently asked questions about the birds we see most often. This special large-format volume is geared as much to nonbirders as it is to the out-and-out obsessed, covering more than 200 species and including more than 430 new illustrations by the author. While its focus is on familiar backyard birds—blue jays, nuthatches, chickadees—it also examines certain species that can be fairly easily observed, such as the seashore dwelling puffin. Sibley’s exacting artwork and wide-ranging expertise brings observed behaviors vividly to life. And while the text is aimed at adults—including fascinating new scientific research on the myriad ways birds have adapted to environmental changes—it is nontechnical, making it the perfect occasion for parents and grandparents to share their love of birds with young children, who will delight in the big, full-color illustrations of birds in action. 432 Full Color Illustrations in Text, 288 pages

Nature Spotlight

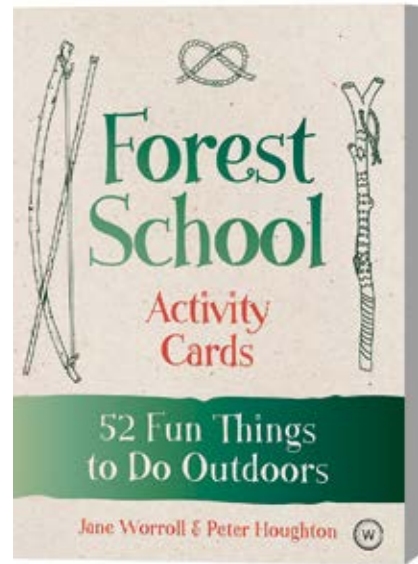

21 Rituals to Connect With Nature

THERESA CHEUNG

It is well known that spending time in nature increases our health, vitality, and sense of wellbeing. Some researchers have linked obesity, ADHD, and other health conditions to a disconnection from nature (what Richard Louv calls 'nature-deficit disorder'). The problem is that our society has never been as far removed from nature or our natural affinities with the nonhuman world as we are today. Spending more time in nature is an obvious solution to feelings of disconnection.

Drawing on what science and psychology teach us about the benefits of connecting more to the living power of nature and how to strengthen it using the life changing power of ritual this book offers 21 powerful rituals that don't necessarily require a wilderness trek or trip to the countryside. Readers will be encouraged to perform 21 'connecting with nature' rituals every day over a three-week period as research shows that it takes around three weeks to ensure a daily ritual becomes entrenched at neural level. 256 pages

Forest School Activity Cards

52 Fun Things to Do Outdoors

JANE WORROLL

This is the first-ever Forest School-themed activity card deck, offering 52 games, crafts and skill-building activities to enjoy outdoors. Aimed at parents, carers, teachers and Forest School group leaders, this is a uniquely handy reference tool to tuck into a pocket and take out into the woods to inspire outdoor fun. It complements Jane Worroll & Peter Houghton's two previous books (Play the Forest School Way and A Year of Forest School), containing activities from those books in abbreviated form, as well as new activities not described in either book. The cards are grouped into four "suits", each with 12 cards: Team Games (fun, high-energy games to play together); Survival Skills (working together to build dens, make fires, gather wild food and cook it); Nature Spotlight (exploring the natural world in more detail); and Forest Craft (woodland-themed makes). A booklet explains how to use the deck: forest school leaders or parents can get kids involved in leading the play and the suits will also help adults in considering how a session might be structured. 16 pages

So Punk Rock!

Too Fast to Live Too Young to Die

Punk and Post-Punk Graphic Design

ANDREW KIRVINE

Since finding punk in the summer of 1976, Andrew Krivine has amassed one of the world's largest collections of punk graphic design and memorabilia, with part of his collection exhibiting at the Cranbrook Art Museum in Michigan, before moving to the New York Museum of Arts and Design, and many other such spaces around the world in 2020 and 2021. This book represents the cream of that collection—over 700 original scans of posters, flyers, covers, and ads from the prime years of the movement, which changed the world of graphic design forever.

Too Fast to Live tells of one man's obsession with creating an unparalleled collection of punk memorabilia. The illustrative content of the book is verified, critically assessed, and given provenance by an array of graphic design experts, academics, and commentators. The unique mix of imagery and text makes this arguably the most essential and definitive work on the graphic design revolution within the punk and post-punk movements of America and the U.K. 700 Color & B&W Photographs, 352 pages

Patterns of India

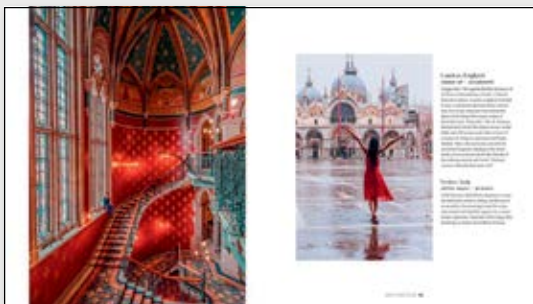

A Journey Through Colors, Textiles, and the Vibrancy of Rajasthan

CHRISTINE CHITNIS

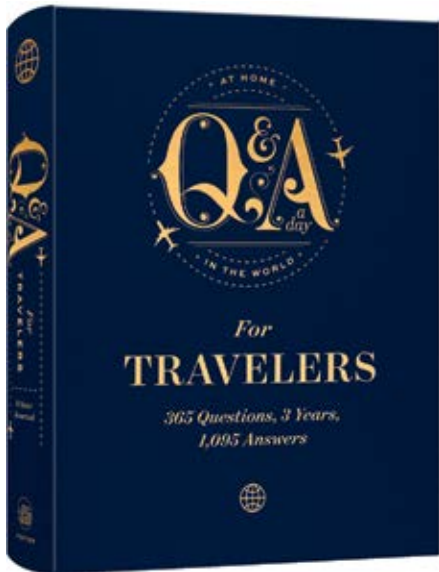

Patterns of India is a visual experience that offers intimate insights into the diverse and richly hued Western Indian culture. Though color drives her design schemes, it is never dominant. For Hume there is no wrong color, only wrong combinations. 200 Color Photographs, 224 pages
