About the Book

Anne loves autumn in Avonlea, and she's been enjoying her first three weeks of school. She also loves walking with and sitting next to her kindred spirit, Diana Barry. However, one day, Gilbert Blythe joins the class. According to Diana, he's very handsome, and smart too. He's also very bold, and immediately gets on Anne's nerves. After Gilbert pulls on Anne's braid and calls her "Carrots" because of her red hair, Anne vows never to talk to Gilbert again, and even stops going to school for a time when her teacher forces Anne to sit next to her rival. But later, when Anne has an accident on the pond, who should come to her rescue but her nemesis, Gilbert Blythe? Lovingly adapted by Kallie George with beautiful nostalgic illustrations by Abigail Halpin, Anne's School Days is perfect for fans of Anne, new and old.

Keep the Conversation Going

Here are some ideas, activities and questions to consider after you've read the book:

- This book is based on the classic novel Anne of Green Gables by L. M. Montgomery. What are some other classic stories that you may have read and like?
- Anne's schoolhouse is set in the 1880s. What are some differences between Anne's school and yours that you may have noticed, either in the text or the pictures?
- Anne and Gilbert get off to a bad start. What happens? Do you think Gilbert meant to hurt Anne's feelings? Do you think she should have forgiven him when he said sorry? Why or why not? Have you ever misjudged someone at first, or become friends with someone you were originally not friends with? How have some of your friendships changed over time?
- Anne has some troubles in her school days, but there are a lot of things she loves about them too. Make a list or a picture of the favorite things you like about your school day. What are some things you find challenging?
