WELCOME

The year for travel.

With a new year comes the promise of new adventures—and here at DK Eyewitness we can't wait to get our readers closer to their next destination.

The early days of 2022 so far have been filled with hope, as we've seen positive growth in both travel bookings and travel guide sales, with destinations such as Paris, Scotland, and even Australia trending upward. With these sales likely to increase over the coming months, I'm excited to say that we are back to publishing a full program of updated travel guides, with exciting new editions of our DK Eyewitness, Top 10, Road Trips, and all-new Like a Local travel guides, alongside three important additions to our growing gift and inspiration list.

The first of these is Gardens of the World, which marries DK's brand leadership on both travel and gardening to create the perfect bucket-list book for green-fingered explorers.

We've then got Hike—the much-anticipated follow up to our bikepacking bible Ride—and the perfect inspiration for those who have fallen in love with the great outdoors in lockdown.

And then later in the year, we'd like to introduce you to Go Here Instead: The Alternative Travel List. This book does away with those well-loved but overtouristed spots, ripping up the established bucket list to provide better options for that all-important next adventure.

With things looking promising, this year we're standing by our continued goal of enabling travelers to make informed, eco-conscious, and safe choices without compromising on their experience, and in order to achieve this, our partnership with our retailers is essential.

We look forward to celebrating a new exciting year of travel publishing with you and working together to help our readers get back out there.

Georgina Dee, Publishing Director, DK Eyewitness

TRENDING DESTINATIONS

After a period of being grounded, our readers are ready to travel again. Here's where they want to go:

THE AZORES

Once a somewhat overlooked archipelago scattered across the Atlantic ocean, the Azores are gaining a reputation as an underrated gem. Drawing travelers with the promise of deserted beaches, spectacular scenery, and affordable prices, these islands are a great destination for outdoor and adventure tourism.

NORWAY

A sustainable eco-haven, Norway is home to spectacular landscapes and forward-thinking cities. Europe's fastest-growing capital, ultra-cool Oslo, offers world-class restaurants and superlative museums including the new National Museum of art, architecture and design. In June 2022, the opening of the largest gallery in the entire Nordic region will entice culture vultures with a superb collection including Edvard Munch's The Scream.

HAWAII

It's no wonder the Island of Hawaii ranked the number 1 trending destination in the US for 2022 in TripAdvisor's Annual Travelers' Choice Awards. Cast in the Pacific Ocean, this little slice of paradise is a haven for nature lovers and outdoor enthusiasts. The cobalt-blue waters surrounding the island are rich in reef and marine life, while the interior features spectacular volcanoes and lush rainforests ripe for exploration.

PARIS

It's easy to see why Paris inspires adoration: its elegant landmarks and romantic vistas are inarguably beautiful, its heady mix of Coco Chanel couture and cutting edge cuisine is hard to beat. The focus of a thousand iconic cinematic images, the city has a way of making the visitor feel like the main character in their own movie. Perennially popular, this classic destination continues to outperform.

MEXICO

Mexico is a standout hotspot for those looking to make up for lost time. Many are drawn here by the pristine beaches, but exploring inland reveals a treasure trove of natural wonders, from vast canyons to snow-capped volcanoes. And when it comes to urban pleasures, few places in the world can match Mexico City, with its teeming markets, vibrant galleries, and exuberant festivals.
