EVERYBODY HAS A MARK TO MAKE!

More than fifteen years ago, a teacher and his students in Iowa celebrated the themes of creativity and courage in The Dot by Peter H. Reynolds, and a global movement began! Now, every September 15th-ish, communities around the world take part in International Dot Day.

One dot can launch the journey.~

31 million people

200 countries and territories

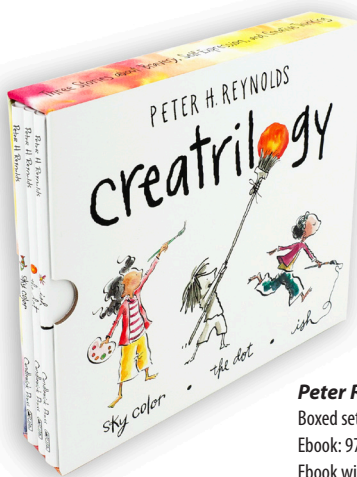

2.5 million copies in print worldwide

★ "Engaging, inspiring. . . Reynolds pulls off exactly what his young heroine does, creating an impressive work from deceptively simple beginnings." —Publishers Weekly (starred review)

JOIN THE CELEBRATION!

Visit internationaldotday.org to download an event handbook. Host a reading of The Dot, throw an in-store dot-making event, partner with a local school on programming—the possibilities are endless, and each community can tailor the celebration to its needs.
