

Winner of the 2025 PEN/Hemingway Award for Debut Novel!

"'Just give me one more day,' Monk says, and Early Sobrieties is such a wise and piercing book that we believe him."

—Charlie Lee, The New York Times Book Review

"Michael Deagler's Early Sobrieties is an exquisitely honest, humorous, and poignant depiction of life on the far side of addiction . . . This uniquely sustained portrait of recovery, all of its tedium shot through with moments of transcendence, lays bare the beautiful terror of each blank day, and the raw miracle of being alive."

—PEN/Hemingway Award judges' citation

"Michael Deagler is the real deal."

—Percival Everett, 2023 Windham Campbell Prize recipient and author of Dr. No

PBK • ISBN: 9781662603136 • eISBN: 9781662603136 • Price: $17 US / $23 CAN

To order, contact your PRH rep, call customer service at (800)-733-3000

or email csorders@penguinrandomhouse.com

 ASTRA HOUSE

Now Available in Paperback!

Longlisted for the 2025 Andrew Carnegie Medal for Excellence in Fiction

★ “A young man surfaces from the depths of alcoholism in Deagler’s pitch-perfect debut novel . . . This is a standout.”

—Publishers Weekly* (Starred review)

★ “Wry, sharp, charming, resistant to neat closures and easy turns—a debut of enormous promise.”

—Kirkus Reviews* (Starred review)

“Deagler’s debut novel skillfully examines the pitfalls and triumphs of sobriety, the challenges of having no clear direction in early adulthood, and the often winding paths we take toward the future.”

—Allison Escoto, *Booklist

“Really dug this novel. Funny, wry, honest, unapologetic, and soulful.”

—Michael Imperoli, American actor, writer, and musician

“Grimly funny.”

—Philadelphia Magazine

“South Philly is a distinct character here, its kudzu of grit, gentrification, and endless mazes of rowhouses bewildering to a soul newly emerged from the chemical haze of addiction.”

—Broad Street Review

“[Monk] has a recovering addict’s sense of the near-religious profundity of the day-to-day, the wry humor of a sober man among drunks, and a newly clear-eyed view of familiar people and places (or nearly familiar: the blackouts of his drinking days, their unknowability, haunt Monk’s newfound sober ones).”

—Meghan Racklin, *The Brooklyn Rail

PBK • ISBN: 9781662603136 • eISBN: 9781662603136 • Price: $17 US / $23 CAN

To order, contact your PRH rep, call customer service at (800)-733-3000

or email csorders@penguinrandomhouse.com

