What happened last night?

Ella can't remember a single thing from the party and she sure as heck doesn't know why she's woken up in her bed surrounded by objects that aren't hers. And she can't stop thinking about her huge crush on Madeleine, who she definitely can't tell about her sudden penchant for kleptomania... Can they piece together that night and fix the mess of their personal lives in time to form a normal, teenage relationship?

- 'An adorable sapphic romance about two teens who steal! Such a sweet and funny story with complex, flawed characters that you can't help but love, along with gorgeous, emotive artwork.' – Alice Oseman, Heartstopper
- LGBTQIA+ representation and issues dealt with in a normalising way and with a light touch
- Draws on the shōjo manga tradition with the character archetypes. They're strong and unique, which makes for a really engaging read
- Winner of the Entente Littéraire Prize 2024

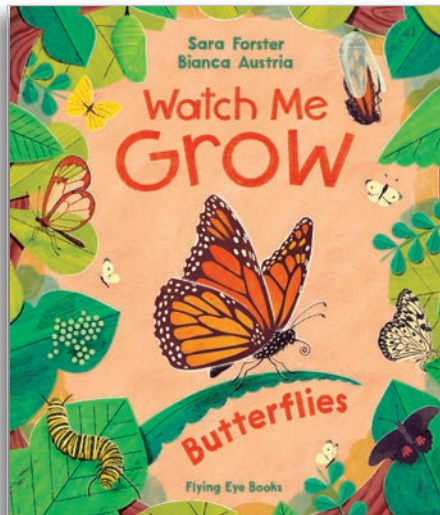

Lucie Bryon is a cartoonist and illustrator. She studied graphic design in Orléans, France and comics at the ESA St Luc Brussels, Belgium. She now lives in France and works for children's publishing, video game companies and various publications as an illustrator and comic artist.

THE GREAT OAK TREE

Zoë Armstrong & Amélie Videlo

$17.99 USD / $23.99 CAD | 2nd September
3+ | HCDJ | 32pp | 10-5/8" x 9"
ISBN 9781838749637

Discover the enchanting world of nature's resilience and the unbreakable bonds between a curious blackbird, a wise owl and a steadfast guardian tree.

A little blackbird questions why an old oak tree just stands there doing nothing, but the tree is, in fact, very busy. We learn about how central the tree is central to its ecosystem – the many ways in which it offers shelter and sustenance to the wildlife all around.

- This book offers a lyrical and captivating journey through the natural world, making science and ecology accessible and engaging for young readers
- It not only tells a heart-warming story but also imparts knowledge about photosynthesis, seasonal changes, and the vital role trees play in their ecosystems

Zoë Armstrong grew up in Oxford and Paris. She trained as a journalist and has worked as a reporter, a teacher and as a publicist for a large animal charity. Currently, Zoë lives in Brighton with her young daughter.

Amélie Videlo is a French-Mauritian illustrator based in the United Kingdom. Family and nostalgia from her childhood inspire her most. She is a prolific illustrator in her home country, where she has published dozens of books.

A heartwarming read out loud picture book celebrating the daily joys of a growing child.

Today tenderly celebrates the daily joys and milestones a parent or guardian observes in their growing child. With its universal themes, this heartwarming book captures the warmth, wonder and delightful moments of watching a young one navigate their world with curiosity and love.

- A beautiful gift for new parents and carers
- Children will relate to the milestones celebrated in this book and return to it again and again

Mark Wordsworth is a creative storyteller with a background in Genetics from the University of Leeds and filmmaking from the Northern Film School. He's spent years directing music videos, producing projects for brands like Apple and Adidas.

Ruby Wright grew up in Dorset. In 2024 she was selected for the Bologna Illustrator's Exhibition and shortlisted for the Shirley Hughes Sketchbook award in 2024. Her first book, Animal Crackers was longlisted for the Klaus Flugge prize.

A story of kindness and determination, night sky salesmen, nebulous wildcats and Tisky, who wants to be an owl. Before 1861, the world was black and white. As Colour reached the end of his job, world weary he stopped to rest on Last Island: the last uncoloured place. To make matters worse, the islands Nott - a deity responsible for drawing the curtain of night - begins to make more and more mistakes. It falls to Umbertiska Lupp, a young islander with pockets full of cake, to bring unity (and Colour) to Last Island.

- With undertones of Aiken, this is an incredibly exciting debut that reads like an instant modern classic
- This title has a map and synoptic chapter headings

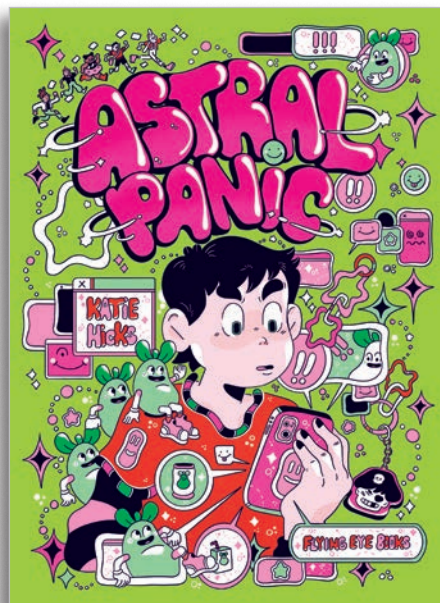

Katherine Child grew up in Devon, studied in Cornwall then spent a couple of years as a background artist in children's animation. Katherine gained a masters in Authorial Illustration from Falmouth University, then got a job in the Oxford University Museum of Natural History, photographing insects. She now works part time at the museum and part time as a writer and illustrator.

Gale has tried everything to master his anxious self, and when the happy-go-lucky Aiden stirs a little chaos into his life, Gale has to decide if stepping out of his comfort zone is really worth it. Gale's hoping the latest wonder-cure "Simply Pear" can help. Oh, it's definitely not working. His plan is thrown into chaos by the bubbly Aiden, who needs a buddy to help him get a job. Can this colourful and heartfelt romp through shoddy part-time jobs help Gale out of his anxious bubble? There's only one way to find out.

- Hicks touches on the topic of mental health and wellness in a unique way that connects to a YA audience
- Gale is our male protagonist, bringing male mental health to the fore

Katie Hicks is a comic artist and illustrator; she was raised in St. Catharines, Ontario and is now living just outside of Toronto. Having struggled with anxiety and depression most of her life, Katie explores those themes in her art through a comedic and whimsical lens. She's inspired by the cartoons she grew up with as a kid as well as the punk and emo music she listened to as a teenager.

Levelling up their magic and sword fighting skills deep in the kingdom of Puddin', Chiri and Dai are about to receive a spooky invite to their most terrifying trial yet. Can they face the deepest darkness ever to exist, and save both each other and the kingdom from doom?

After defeating the Shadow King, Chiri and Dai are settling into their new lives in the magical land of Puddin'. However, there is always more evil to fight against, and this time, the evil is coming to them.

- Accessible high fantasy adventure perfect for fans of Dungeons & Dragons, Lord of the Rings, Studio Ghibli, and Trollhunters
- Chiri is a deaf protagonist who uses sign language to enhance her spell-casting ability, Rune's storyline and characters have been created in discussion with two consultants

Carlos Sánchez grew up, with a pencil in his hand, in Barcelona. When he was very young a comic fell into his hand and that changed his life forever. He studied Design in EINA, and a master in Creative Illustration from BAU, Barcelona. He loves to draw, read comics, eat cereal and play videogames. Nowadays, he works as a designer, illustrator and comic artist in Barcelona, Spain.

Join Twig and his best friend Hilda on a slightly icy adventure in the Wilderness, where even the warmest, cosiest cups of cocoa are about to freeze!

Hilda and her new friend, Burku the giant are enjoying playing together in the Wilderness. There is just one thing that would make everything more fun... snow! It just so happens that Twig has accidentally woken the Ice Man, unfortunately, that means there's a lot more than a snow flurry headed straight for Hilda!

- The next Hilda adventure for younger readers, features another romp from Twig's perspective
- Speaks to the feelings of frustration that kids feel when things don't go their way, and fear of loneliness when their friends move away

Luke Pearson is the creator of the Hildafolk comic series. He is also a writer and co-executive producer of the BAFTA award-winning animated series of the same name. Outside of his work on Hilda, Luke has been an illustrator, a storyboard artist and has drawn a range of other comics.

ISBN 9781838743963

The first adventure featuring our favourite blue-haired heroine Hilda, and her trusty deerfox companion Twig is now out in paperback. Hilda and Twig would never let a bit of rain get in the way of an adventure, but it's different when your forest exploration is interrupted by a BIG storm. Dive into this magical comic as we follow our lovable pair on a soggy adventure.

- Mixture of full-page illustrations and large panels makes this perfect as a first comic book for beginner readers.
- The original Hilda graphic novels inspired the Daytime Emmy and BAFTA winning Netflix series 'Hilda'.

Luke Pearson is the creator of the Hildafolk comic series. He is also a writer and co-executive producer of the BAFTA award-winning animated series of the same name. Outside of his work on Hilda, Luke has been an illustrator, a storyboard artist and has drawn a range of other comics.
