

From the Award-winning Author of The Rain Heron

“This is nature writing at its finest.”

—Sam Franzini, Our Culture

“Arresting . . . Readers will be utterly captivated by this atmospheric tale of danger and survival.”

—Publishers Weekly, starred review

“A heart-pounding story.”

—Melanie Fleishman, Center for Fiction

“[A] meditative novel.”

—New Yorker

“An absorbing adventure.”

—Stephanie Cross, Daily Mail

“Arnott’s evocative prose keeps the ruggedly beautiful ‘freeing, lung-emptying openness’ of the Tasmanian highlands—an environment that poses an ever-shifting set of fearsome obstacles—in the foreground. It’s the perfect backdrop.”

—Harvey Freedenberg, BookPage
