

HAWTHORNE

NOW A MAJOR MOTION PICTURE DIRECTED BY KRISTEN STEWART

"The Chronology of Water invites us to experience each moment as if it were happening, but the movie is really telling the story of a spirit—the one that tries to survive, and become whole, through each moment."

—Variety

"Stewart adapts Yuknavitch's memoir to depict something raw and unsparing about the female experience—its violence, its trauma, its reckonings. The result is a harrowing, nearly overwhelming work, saved—and elevated—by the radical beauty of its direction."

—Vogue

"Rich with story, alive with emotion, both merciful and utterly merciless, I am forever altered by every stunning page."

—Cheryl Strayed
