NEW SOUNDS OF SERIES

Good Night Books is thrilled to present you with our new SOUNDS OF series, the first children's sound book series based on local places. We've relied on our 20 years' experience creating local board books to ensure they are both thoroughly engaging and powerfully enriching. Every 10-button book features authentic photographs of each subject with icons that correspond to the easy-to-use sound buttons built into each book. Kids press the buttons to hear the delightful sounds we enjoyed designing for each topic.

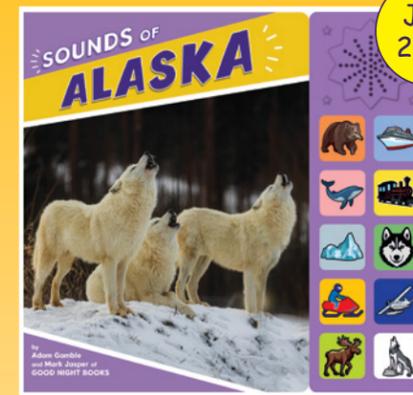

Pages are made of top-quality board that stands up to toddlers having fun, just as the sound modules are also built sturdily and with safety screws holding the battery cases shut. Sounds are powered by simple AAA batteries that are available wherever batteries are sold, and an on/off button is also included, so you can control when the sounds play.

Shoot us an email at info@goodnightbooks.com if you'd like a sound book for your city, state, or locale, and let us know what sounds you'd like to hear.
