

THE LIVING DECLARATION: A BIOGRAPHY OF AMERICA'S FOUNDING TEXT

A historian and former presidential speechwriter traces the words and ideas that made America

This landmark book is the centerpiece of

THE LIVING DECLARATION

Rediscovering America's Founding Text

A Library of America Public Humanities Program

June – December 2026

- public programs — high-profile public programs at major cultural and historical institutions across the country

- livingdeclaration.org — digital archive with video readings and commentary, discussion guides, and more, launching in May

- six-part podcast — with historians, public figures, artists, faith leaders, & others talking about the enduring global legacy of the Declaration of Independence

The Living Declaration is made possible with generous support from The National Endowment for the Humanities, Les Levi, and David Bruce Smith/Grateful American Foundation

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES

978-1-59853-844-1

400 pages | with 83 illustrations

$29.95 U.S. / $39.95 Can.

On sale
6/23/26

Author Ted Widmer joins leading scholars and public figures nationwide

NEW YORK | The Society Library (launch) | 6/24/2026

CHICAGO | Chicago Public Library, Harold Washington Center | 7/16/2026

LOS ANGELES | Library Foundation of Los Angeles, Central Library | 9/23/2026

BOSTON | The Massachusetts Historical Society | 9/30/2026

NEW ORLEANS | Historic New Orleans Collection | 10/11/2026

PHILADELPHIA | The National Constitution Center | 10/21/2026

CHARLOTTESVILLE | Monticello | 11/13/2026

With other events still to be scheduled

Library of America

loa.org

Classic Writers. Classic Books.

Brian McCarthy, Associate Publisher
bmccarthy@loa.org // 212.308.3360